MAY

"Little beds of flowers,
Little cans of paint
Make homes bright and healthy
Out of them that ain't."

Now is the time to clean up and paint up with Sherwin-Williams paint. A paint or varnish for every purpose will save the surface. S. W. P. standard of quality, known by everyone, used by all who want superior paint. Cheap, poorly-made substitute products cannot give you the same satisfaction.

Dr Huff Receives Degree

Inspector and Mrs. S. Huff left Saturday for Kingston for the convocation which will be held at Queen's University there on Wednesday, May 10th. Inspector Huff has the honor and distinction of being one of three Public School Inspectors in the province having the degree of D. Paed which will be conferred upon him at this convocation. Unlike some titles which are handed out in the manner of bouquets, the honor of D. Paed is conferred upon merrit alone and even after the struggling years necessary to attain the B. A., represents years of study and hard work. There is none more worthy or will wear with greater dignity this high honor than Dr. Huff. —Meaford Mirror.

Don't Buy This Horse

Stanley Darling, sr., a prominent Carrick farmer, and his son, Stanley, are both laid up with serious injuries as the result of being kicked by the same horse on the same day. Last Friday after dinner Mr. Darling was hitching up a team to work in the field when one of the animals kicked at him, striking him above the elbow and fracturing the arm in two places, the bone protruding through the flesh. After supper the same evening Stanley Datling, jr., was rubbing down the team when the same beast that had kicked his father drove at him while his back was turned, inflicting an ugly gash at the back of his head and fracturing his jaw in two places—Walkerton Telescope.

The high school inspector on his visit to Walkerton refused to grade the school owing to the need of further accommodation.
