THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH.

Under a spreading chestnut tree
The village smithy stands,
The smith, a mighty man is he.....
—Now prepared to meet demands
For prompt repairs to auto cranks,
Magnetos, spatters, chains, hoods,
tanks,
New parts for every known machine;
Full stock oil, graphite, carbide, gasoline—
.....And all the muscles of his brawny arms
Are strong as iron bands.
His hair is crisp, and black, and long,
His face is like the tan;
His brow is wet with honest sweat,
He earns whate'er he can.....
—Vulcanizing, riveting, brazing,
repairing
Of radiator, clutch, cylinder, bearing;
Inner tubes for sale, cement,
patches, tires,
Battery cells, spark plugs, coils, wires—
.....And he looks the whole world in the face,
For he owes not any man,
Toiling—rejoicing—sorrowing,
Onward through life he goes;
Each morning sees some task begin,
Each evening sees it close.....
—Tires recovered, relined, retreaded; sectional and tube patching; aluminum brazing; repairs to radiators, mudguards, sprocket cones; overhauling and adjustment of every description; on hand day and night (residence third house to right, behind school-house); patronage of automobilists respectfully invited—
.....Something attempted, something done,
Has earned a night's repose.

ANECDOTAL.

Tommy Figg—Slater's bean kicked my dog yesterday, but I got even with him, you bet.

Johnny Briggs—How?

Tommy Figg—I mixed quinine with her face powder.

Candidate—Yes, as I've already told you, gentlemen, you see before you a self-made man.

Voice (from the back)—Better lay put the job out, mister!

A woman on the train, entering Grand Rapids, asked the conductor how long the cars stopped at Union station.

He replied: "Madam, we stop just four minutes, from two to two to two two."

The woman turned to her companion, and said: "I wonder if he thinks he's the whistle on the engine."

After a fire which recently occurred in South Wales an assessor sent in his report to the insurance corporation, a portion of which ran as follows:

"The junior partner informed me that the fire was caused by an arc lamp on the first floor; the senior partner told me that the fire was caused by an incandescent light on the second floor; but in my opinion it was caused by an Israelite in the basement."

Do Not Delay.—When, through debilitated digestive organs, poison finds its way into the blood, the prime considerations is to get the poison out as quickly and thoroughly as possible. Delay may mean disaster. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a most valuable and effective medicine to assail the intruder with. They never fail. They go at once to the seat of trouble and work a permanent cure.

HOW TO WIN.

If young men desire success in life, in the purest and truest sense of the term,—success that culminates in a noble, stainless life, enduring, exalting and immortalizing even after passing over the Unseen,—it is certainly very essential that their characters be founded unwavering upon the broad and enduring principles of religion. An unbeliever may become a great man, without doubt, if he has the energy, ambition and talent; but an intellect of the highest order must be based upon Christianity. There exists in the present age so many temptations to lead the young the pleasure-loving and the thoughtless astray, and such an utter disregard of honesty, virtue and truth among many of our leading men, that a wide field of usefulness is open to the honest and upright in heart. Why should not you, young men, just stepping upon the arena of life, bring your influence to bear with a strong hand and a clear head in the correction and punishment of many great evils? Will you do it?

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.

The condor, it is said, can fast 40 days.

The Dutch are the greatest of all coffee-drinkers.

Undertake deliberately, but, having begun persevere.—Wren.

Where the wage determines the work, the work is never worth it.

COULD NOT FOOL HER.

Miss Amelia was visiting relatives in one of the large cities for the first time. Her experiences interested her so much that she wrote long letters to her friends at home. Among others was one in which she described her visit to the business part of the city.

We went down-town to-day, she wrote, and Cousin William took us to the top of one of the tall buildings. A man who has an office in the building went with us.

"All this country round here," he said, "where this populous city stands, was under the lake once."

"Where we are standing?" I said. "Was all this under water.

"Yes," he said. "This was all under water, too."

Then I looked at the gravel on the roof, and on the roofs of all the other buildings round us, but I didn't say anything. I knew, though, that nature never put that gravel there. Some people think, because you've lived long in a city before, that you know everything.

FOREIGN ENGLISH.

Some interesting specimens of foreigners' English have recently come to light. A Belgian man of science, for instance, writes to a Chicago journalist:

"I shall get in your city in February. And I think the next time I am in Chicago I shall fix myself."

A Danish girl who is making excellent progress in the language—for the Danes always learn English quickly—told her mistress how she had slipped and fallen on the sidewalk, and added: "It shames me very hard to think I did fall down just as long as I am!"

A New York paper says that a musician in Germany wrote to a friend recently to acknowledge the gift of some music:

Lena has learned to gamble the piece; we listen to hethink us of you."

WHY THE TEAKETTLE SINGS.

Little Tom will doubtless become a scientist. Already he has begun to see the connection between cause and effect.

He was looking, says the New York Times, at a drop of water through the microscope. Here and there and everywhere were darting animalculae.

"Now I know," said he, "what sings when the kettle boils. It's these little bugs."

Don't Neglect a Cough or Cold

IT CAN HAVE BUT ONE RESULT. IT LEAVES THE THROAT or LUNGS, OR BOTH, AFFECTED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.....

It is without an equal as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Pain in the Chest, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Quinsy and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

A single dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs, the healing properties of the Norway Pine Tree will proclaim its great virtue by promptly eradicating the bad effects, and a persistent use of the remedy cannot fail to bring about a complete cure.

Do not be humbugged into buying so-called Norway Pine Syrups, but be sure and insist on having Dr. Wood's. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25 cts.

Mrs. Henry Seabrook, Hepworth, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in our family for the past three years and I consider it the best remedy known for the cure of colds. It has cured all my children and myself."

Preacher's Opinions

Rev. P. K. McIlae, Forks Baddeck, C. B.: "I always count it a pleasure to recommend the Dr. Slocum Remedies to my parishioners. I believe there is nothing better for throat and lung troubles or weakness or run-down system. For speaker's sore throat I have found Psychine very beneficial."

Rev. W. H. Stevens, Paisley, Ont.: "Psychine seemed just the stimulant my system needed. I shall add my testimony as to its efficacy at every opportunity."

Rev. R. M. Browne, Amherst Head, N.S., "I have often recommended Psychine since taking it myself, for it is a cure for the troubles you specify."

Rev. Chas. Stirling, Bath, N.B.: "I have used Psychine in my family; the results were marvelous. I have visited people who state that they never used its equal. I strongly recommend it.

Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, Markdale, Ont.: "I have taken two bottles of Psychine and am pleased to say that I am greatly improved in health. I was troubled with my throat, but now I find it about restored to its normal condition. I find my work very much less taxing. I believe Psychine is all claimed for it."

These are earnest preachers of the gospel of Psychine. They know whereof they speak. Psychine cures all throat, lung and stomach troubles. It is a great voice-strengthener, acting directly on the vocal, respiratory and digestive organs, thus specially adapted to public speakers. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Repine not; the disappointments of to-day often prove the blessings of to-morrow.—Thomas a Kempis.

There never was and never will be a universal panacea in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir. What would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate the others. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound, unadulterated state a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strength by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquillising the nerves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame and giving life to the digestive organs which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto have given to the public their superior Quinine By the opinion of scientists, the wine approaches nearest perfection of any on the market. All druggists sell it.

DIAGNOSING JUDITH'S CASE.

Whenever Mrs. Peck's family showed even the faintest sign of ailing, she always sent post-haste for the family doctor, who, fortunately for all concerned, lived within the same block that contained his most anxious patron. One night Mrs. Peck's small Judith, whose appetite was usually in excellent working order, refused to eat her supper. Mrs. Peck's motherly fears were instantly aroused. There was certainly something wrong with Judith.

The child had recently been unsuccessfully vaccinated and was in consequence, living in hourly terror of undergoing a second vaccinating experience, so Mrs. Peck considered it expedient to smuggle the doctor into the house without forewarning the little girl.

"Well," said Doctor Brown, capturing his small patient and seating her on his knee, "I hear you didn't eat any supper. What's the trouble?"

"Couldn't," replied Judith.

"Why not?"

"Don't know—just couldn't."

"Have you a pain anywhere? Does you head ache? Is your throat sore? No? Then let me see your tongue. Hum—nothing the matter with that tongue. Had anything to eat since noon?"

"Yep," said Judith, brightening at the remembrance)

"What, for example?"

"Well," adpitted the patient, "I stopped at Kittie Page's after school. Her mother was having a party, and Kittie and I ate all the ice cream and cake there was left.

"Then I went to the church fair with Kittie, and they gave us doughnuts. After that we met Flossie Blake going with her uncle for hot chocolate, and we had that, and some nice little wafers besides.

"Then I went home with Flossie and ate five of the waffles that their cook was making for supper. I guess that's all, except the banana that grandma gave me."

FOLLOWING THE RECIPE.

A side-light on character comes from a cooking-school by the way of the New York Times.

"There are women" said the instructor, "who, when the recipe calls for a teaspoonful of hot water, will go to a tea-kettle and attempt to pour the water directly into the teaspoon."

Prevent Disorder.—At the first symptoms of internal disorder, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills should be resorted to immediately. Two or three of these salutary pellets, taken before going to bed, followed by doses of one or two pills for two or three nights in succession, will serve as a preventive of attacks of dyspepsia and all the discomforts which follow in the train of that fell disorder. The means are simple when the way is known.

When two grow angry, he who is silent first is the wiser.—Steele.

SUFFERING WOMEN

who find life a burden, can have health and strength restored by the use of

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

The present generation of women and girls have more than their share of misery. With some it is nervousness and palpitation, with others weak, dizzy and fainting spells, while with others there is a general collapse of the system. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills tone up the nerves, strengthen the heart and make it beat strong and regular, create new red blood corpuscles, and impart that sense of buoyancy to the spirits that is the result of renewed mental and physical vigor.

Mrs. D. O. Donoghue, Orillia, Ont., writes: "For over a year I was troubled with nervousness and heart trouble. I decided to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a trial, and after using five boxes I found I was completely cured. I always recommend them to my friends."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited Toronto, Ont.

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean?

It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and above-board."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs—without drugs?

Come and See.

Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told?

Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick woman are asked to write?

Come and See.

Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential?

Come and See.

Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents?

Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health!
