Formal Opening of The Memorial Park

County Council Graces the Occasion With Its Presence

Memorial Park was well and truly opened on Tuesday afternoon when close on to a thousand people were present, including the Grey County Council as a body. The park has been described in these columns before, and on this occasion received much praise from both speakers and spectators.

Reeve McTavish ran over the difficulties surmounted and gave Dr. Jamieson much deserved credit for donating the timber on the lot for the purpose of a park. Dr. Jamieson, however, in his speech which followed the Reeve's remarks, said that had he known what magnificent trees there were on the property he might have thought again before making the promise.

Dr. Jamieson occupied the chair and gave a short introductory address before presiding over a lengthy program. The Markdale band was present and rendered several selections. The program also included the following: Introductory prayer by Rev. Mr. Fowler, Scripture reading by Rev. Mr. Vose of the Baptist church, a lesson from the Passover ; prayer of dedication by Rev. Mr. Oke ; reading roll of the fallen, by Everett Henry ; sounding of The Last Post, by Bugler Perkins ; reading roll of those who returned, by R. Bellamy ; prayer of thanksgiving, by Rev. Mr. Fowler ; address by Col. Carmichael and declaring park open ; address by Capt. Elliott of Owen Sound, representing Col. Fleming; short speeches by Warden Howey, Mr Calder of Durham, George Bothwell and Gilbert McKechnie, representing the County Council ; Dr. Leeson, M. P., spoke shortly and the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

The speeches throughout were very eulogistic, especially of the energy displayed by the ladies in bringing the work to its present state. Mr. Calder it was who said Flesherton has a very energetic Reeve, and he was not disappointed in finding that the ladies of Flesherton were also energetic. Col. Carmichael gave a splendid address of advice and comfort to the mothers of the boys who had fallen. He said these men died in the most noble manner in which mankind can quit life and it should be no occasion for mourning.

Capt. Elliott gave an eloquent address in which he quoted McRae's "In Flanders Fields."

Before proceedings in the park a procession was formed consisting of 30 volunteers and the County Council, headed by the Markdale band.

The weather was ideal and the affair a splendid success.

Dundalk and Flesherton played ball in the afternoon and the White Sox made up for the defeat at the hands of the Dundalk Shamrocks a week ago, winning the game 12 to 9.

One of the highest class concerts that has been held in Flesherton for some time was given in the rink in the evening by Toronto talent consisting of David Raitblat, violinist, "Joe" Williams, comedian and Agnes Adie, soprano. The violinist is just a boy, but his classical playing was a marvel. Miss Adie has a fine voice with a large range and charmed the audience with her singing. "Joe" Williams, as usual, gave his best, and is considered one of the best comedians today.
