HOW CLARA ILLUSTRATED A POEM.

Little Clara was told by her teacher to make,
Like the rest of the class a fit illustration
To go with a poem. "Which one shall I take?"
Asked Clara, poor child, in some perturbation.

"The Old Oaken Bucket," the teacher replied.
"I'll try," was the answer; and here's what she drew:
A circle, three buckets, and off at one side
Some dots, loosely scattered, a dozen or two.

"This circle?" asked teacher. "The well," she said, vexed.
"But why have three buckets? Come Clara, please tell."
"One's the old oaken bucket; the mossy one next;
The third 'the iron-bound one that hung in the well."

"Of course," said the teacher, "but what are these dots?
I really don't see just what they have to do."
With the poem." "Why, don't you?" said Clara. "Those spots,
"Why, they're 'the loved spots that my infancy knew."

—George Jay, in St. Nicholas.

READY FOR THE DOLLAR

Marjorie, aged nine, had not been having very satisfactory reports from school. Her father finally said, "Marjorie, for the first hundred you get I'll give you a dollar." Time went on and the reward could not be claimed. One day the child was taken violently ill. Her mother sent for the doctor. When he had gone, Marjorie said, "Mamma, am I very ill?"

"No, dear; your temperature is a little over a hundred, but the doctor thinks you will be all right in a day or so."

Smiles broke through Marjorie's tears.

"Now, mamma, I can have my dollar. Papa said he would give it to me if I could get a hundred in anything."

YOU WILL NEVER REGRET.

Living a pure life.
Doing your level best.
Being kind to the poor.
Looking before leaping.
Hearing before judging.
Thinking before speaking.
Harboring clean thoughts.
Standing by your principles.
Stopping your ears to gossip.
Being as courteous as a duke.
Asking pardon when in error.
Bridling a slanderous tongue.
Being generous to an enemy.
Being square in business dealings.
Giving an unfortunate fellow a lift.
Being prompt in keeping your promises.
Putting the best construction on the acts of others.

WHEN YOU ARE TIRED.

Don't grit your teeth and work harder. Ease up a little.

Don't talk any more than you can help. Talking takes vitality.

Lie down in a dark place, if only for fifteen minutes.

Don't read anything in which you are not interested.

Don't feel that everything must be done in one day. There are 364 more.

Realize that it is better to leave things undone than overdo yourself.

Avoid people and their woes at that time. Seek some one frivolous.

Don't try to improve yourself. Give your mind a rest.

And don't forget that a little lemon juice in cold water in the morning is a great help.

HE WAS POOR ONCE.

The little hero of the following incident did not belong to me. In fact, from his appearance I think he belonged to no one in particular. I am equally sure that the fact of his loneliness had no terrors for him. He was a ragged little urchin selling papers on a busy down-town corner. A stylishly gowned woman amid the hurrying throng dropped her pocketbook. Quick as a flash the boy seized it and hurried after her. Touching his cap, he handed her the heavy purse.

She thanked him very graciously and handed him a nickel. In a tone equally gracious he responded, "Aw, keep your nickel; I was poor once myself."

TRAVELLERS' TALES.

A distinguished traveller and war correspondent on a lecture tour in Scotland spoke one night at a little village four miles from a railway station.

The chairman of the occasion, after introducing the lecturer as "the man wha's come here tae broaden oor intellects," said that he felt that a wee bit prayer would not be out of place.

"And, O Lord," he went on, "pit it intae the heart o' this man 'tae speak the truth, the hale truth, and nathing but the truth, and gie us grace to understan' him."

Then, with a glance at the lecturer, the chairman said, "I've been a traveller meself!"

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.

KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

Doctor—"Ah—yes—why—er—in cases of this nature I always require my fee in advance."

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has the largest sale of any similar preparation sold in Canada. It always gives satisfaction by restoring health to the little folks.

Greater work is the best reward for good work.

Religion is not to bind back, but to bind together all men.

THOUGHT SHE KNEW HIM.

A short time ago a surgeon had three leg amputations in a week. The unusual number caused talk in the surgeon's household, and his little daughter Dorothy was greatly interested. A few days after the last operation the surgeon's wife and little Dorothy were rummaging in the attic. In a trunk was found a daguerreotype depicting a girl about eight years of age. The portrait, through a peculiarity of pose, showed only one leg of the subject, the other being doubled up under her.

"Whose picture is that, mamma?" asked Dorothy.

"Mine. It was taken when I was a child not much older than you are now."

"Did you know papa then?"

"No, dear. Why do you ask?"

"I thought maybe you did, 'cause you've only got one leg."—The August Delineator.

Cheapest of all Medicines.—Considering the curative qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil it is the cheapest medicine now offered to the public. The dose required in any ailment is small and a bottle contains many doses. If it were valued at the benefit it confers it could not be purchased for many times the price asked for it, but increased consumption has simplified and cheapened its manufacture.

There are too many people in the world who use their nest eggs to make cake of.

There never was and never will be a universal panacea in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir. What would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate the others. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound, unadulterated state a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strength by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilizing the nerves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame and giving life to the digestive organs which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto have given to the public their superior Quinine By the opinion of scientists, the wine approaches nearest perfection of any on the market. All druggists sell it.

The difference between what we are and what we know we ought to be is the great opportunity in life.

No Disease is so Quiet and Stealthy in its Approach as Kidney Disease

That is why it is so dangerous. It may become deep-seated before you realize the danger.

It is therefore of great importance to recognize the early warning symptoms pain or dull ache in the back, bladder pains, smarting sensation when urinating, frequent or suppressed urination, sediment in the urine, etc., because in its early stage kidney disease is easily cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Elgin Brisebois, Vernon, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled a great deal with kidney trouble. I had to get up four or five times every night, my urine contained a thick brick-dust sediment, I had a pain in the small of my back, and could not sleep at night.

"I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and in a very short time I was all right again. I am very thankful to have found a cure so speedy in its action.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50c. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

In fever and ague they act upon the secretions and neutralize the poison which had found its way into the blood. They correct the impurities which find entrance into the system through drinking water or food if used as a preventive fevers are avoided.

WHAT CAN YOU DO.

Lord Tennyson could take a penny piece of paper, write a poem on it, and make it worth sixty-five thousand dollars. That's genius!

Rockfeller can write a few lines on a sheet of paper and make it worth ten million dollars. That's capital!

A mechanic can take a piece of material worth five dollars and make it into watch springs worth one thousand dollars. That's skill!

A merchant can take an article worth seventy-five cents and sell it for a dollar, That's business?

A lady can purchase a hat for a dollar and fifty cents, but she prefers one at thirty dollars. Thats extravagance.

A coke drawer can pull several tons of coke in a day and get several dollars. That's labor!

A preacher can preach for a whole year on ten dollars per month—and—live. That—O, that means he has a saving wife!

You can write a check for ten millions of dollars that would not be worth a dime. That's moral foolishness!

THE KING LAUGHED:

A curious court story went the rounds some little time ago about a lovely foreigner, one of whose verbal slips gave King Edward occasion for a hearty laugh. A very lively personage with delightful accent, she made such a favorable impression upon the King that he asked her to be his partner at bridge. "But sir," she said, "I really don't know how to play." The King would take no denial, however and she became rather embarrassed. "I assure you sir," she said, "I could not think of playing. I don't know the difference between a king and a knave." There was an awkward silence, and then she realized what she had said and was covered with confusion. The King, of course, laughed it off, and now tells the story with gusto.

Was A Total Wreck From Heart Failure

In such cases the action of MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS in quieting the heart, restoring its normal beat and imparting tone to the nerve centres, is beyond all question, marvellous.

Mr. Darius Carr, Geary, N.B., writes "It is with the greatest of pleasure I write you a few lines to let you know the great blessing your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been to me. I was a total wreck from heart failure and my wife advised me to take your pills. After using two boxes I was restored to perfect health. I am now 62 years old and feel almost as well as I did at 20."

Success is not so much getting there as in knowing what you are there for.

Just the Thing That's Wanted.—A pill that acts upon the stomach and yet is so compounded that certain ingredients of it preserve their power to act upon the intestinal canal, so as to clear them of excreta, the retention of which cannot but be hurtful, was long looked for by the medical profession. It was found in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which are the result of much expert study, and are scientifically prepared as a laxative and an alternative in one.

Laws always depend on our essential valuation of life.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

Many people make a mistake in thinking that the only office of a pill is to move the bowels, but a properly prepared pill should act beneficially upon the liver and the entire glandular and secretory system.

This is just what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills do, and by their specific alterative action cure Liver Complaint, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation, Flatulency, Heartburn, Headache, Dyspepsia, Water Brash, Catarrh of the Stomach, Coated Tongue, Foul Breath, and all diseases arising from impurities clogging the system.

They are small and easy to take, and do not gripe, weaken or sicken. They may be used as a mild laxative or a strong purgative according to the dose.

Price 25 cents a vial, or 5 vials for a $1, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardstown, Ky., writes:

"I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration.
