DREAMS

If a good little child be ever so good,
As good as a child can be;
Wee Willie Winkle comes over the hill
With his sack of dreams—comes he.
One little dream of a truly train,
One little dream of a candy cane,
One little dream of a woolly sheep,
One little dream of a doll to keep,
One little dream of rub-a-dub drums,
One little dream of a top that hums,
One little dream of a trumpet red,
One little dream of a brand new sled,
One little dream of a chocolate drop—
Dream upon dream, and they never stop.
If a good little child be ever so good,
As good as a child can be;
Wee Willie Winkle:—Why here he is!
"Shut you eyes, quick," says he.

RIDDLES, NEW AND OLD

Which is swifter, heat or cold? Heat, because you can catch cold.

Why does a Russian soldier wear brass buttons on his coat and an Austrian soldier wear steel ones? To keep his coat buttoned.

When is a bee a great nuisance? When he is a humbug.

What is the difference between a bill and a pill? One is hard to get up, the other is hard to get down.

Why is a lazy dog like a hill? Because he is a slow pup (slope up.)

A man had twenty-six (twenty sick) sheep and one died: how many remained? Nineteen.

What is the oldest table in the world? The multiplication table.

Why is the professional thief very comfortable? Because he usually takes things easy.

Why is A like honeysuckle? Because B follows it.—Children's Magazine.

THE "WORD FITLY SPOKEN"

Said a child to it's mother, after working over its school tasks one evening until eleven o'clock:

"Mamma, do you suppose the teacher will say it's good?"

"Doesn't she ever tell you so?" asked the mother in return.

"Not very often," said the child, with a sigh, putting her books aside.

What a lesson for teachers in that simple question.

Oh, do not withold the "word fitly spoken." Give it now. A teacher's heart should be overflowing with love and sympathy for those intrusted to her care.

Let the Great Teacher be your model.

THOUGHT OF THE FUTURE

One of the diminutive flower maidens was both pretty and plump, and, when Her Majesty stopped for an instant to smile down upon her, what did she do but put up her wee mouth for a kiss, which she received.

"Molly!" gasped her astounded mother, after the distinguished visitor had passed on, "how could you?"

Molly gave good reason. "I fought, said she, "it ud be interestin' to tell my grandchildhren."

'Tis love that makes the man come round.

Externally or Internally it is Good.—When applied externally by brisk rubbing, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil opens the pores and penetrates the tissue as few liniments do, touching the seat of the trouble and immediately affording relief. Administered internally, it will still the irritation in the throat which induces coughing and will cure affections of the bronchial tubes and respiratory organs. Try it and be convinced.

A MORMON'S WIFE

A Mormon's wife, coming downstairs one morning, met the physician who was attending her husband. "Is he very ill?" she asked anxiously. "He is," replied the physician. "I fear that the end is not far off." "Do you think," she asked hesitatingly—"do you think it proper that I should be at his bedside during his last moments?" "Yes. But I advise you to hurry, madam. The best places are already being taken."

There never was and never will be a universal panacea in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir. What would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate the others. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound, unadulterated state a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use the feeblest systems are led into convalescence and strength by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilizing the nerves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame and giving life to the digestive organs which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto have given to the public their superior Quinine By the opinion of scientists, the wine approaches nearest perfection of any on the market. All druggists sell it.

I AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them.

Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S. C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I was greatly run-down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. It not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardstown, Ky., writes:

"I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

A fool and his money are soon married.

Often what appear to be the most trivial occurrences of life prove to be the most momentous. Many are disposed to regard a cold as a slight thing, deserving of little consideration, and this neglect often results in most serious ailments entailing years of suffering. Drive out colds and coughs with Bickle's Anti Consumptive Syrup, the recognized remedy for all affections of throat and lungs.

How many people are like ocean waves—they make a lot of noise but say nothing.

HAD BACHACHE.

Was Unable To Do Housework For Two Years

Many Women Suffer Untold Agony From Kidney Trouble.

Very often they think it is from so-called "female disease." There is less "female trouble" than they think.

Women suffer from backache, sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability and a dragging down feeling in the loins. So do men, and they do not have "female trouble."

Why, then, blame all your trouble to "female disease"?

Most of the so-called "female disorders" are no more or less than "kidney disorders," and can be easily and quickly cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. C. Dupuis, Belleview Village, N.B., writes: "I was unable to do my housework for two years on account of backache. I could not get up the stairs. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me permanently after doctors failed to even relieve the pain. I can highly recommend them to all sufferers from kidney trouble."

Price 50 cts. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

A REASONABLE DOUBT

Officials have a right to ask questions in the performance of their duty, but there are occasions when it seems as if they might curtail or forego the privilege. Not long ago an Irishman whose hand had been badly mangled in an accident entered the Boston City Hospitable Relief Station in a great hurry. He stepped up to the man in charge and inquired:

"Is this the Relief Station?"

"Yes. What is your name?"

"Patrick O'Connor, sor."

"Are you married?" questioned the officer.

"Yis sor, but is this the Relief Station?" He was nursing his hand in agony.

"Of course it is. How many children have you?"

"Eight, sor. But sure, this is the Relief Station?"

"Yes, it is," replied the official, growing a little angry at the man's persistence.

"Well," said Patrick, "sure, an' I was beginning to think that it might be the pumping station!"

A ring on the hand is worth two at the door.

Worms feed upon the vitality of children and endanger their lives. A simple and effective cure is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator.

A BRIEF INTRODUCTION

"Long introductions when a man has a speech to make are a bore," says former U. S. Senator Spooner, "I have had all kinds, but the most satisfactory one in my career was that of a German Mayor of a small town in my State, Wisconsin.

"I was to make a political address, and the opera house was crowded. When it came time to begin, the Mayor got up.

"'Mine friends,' he said. 'I haf asked been to introduce Senator Spooner, who is to make a speech, yes. Well, I haf did so, and he vill now do so.'"

HELPLESS 3 WEEKS

HANDS COVERED WITH ECZEMA

AMPUTATION FEARED, BUT ZAM-BUK SAVED.

"For three long months I was not able to attend to my own needs; and for three weeks the eczema on my hands was so bad that I was unable to feed myself. I had to be fed as one feeds a baby, because I could not hold knife, fork, spoon or cup." So says Miss Violet McSorley, of 75, Core Street, Sault Ste. Marie, in telling how Zam-Buk cured her of eczema. She adds: "Hands, wrists and arms up to the elbows were covered with eczema. The itching and the soreness were nigh unbearable. As the disease developed, the skin actually peeled off leaving raw sores. The palms, fingers, backs of my hands and wrists were all in this shocking state, and I was forced to sit in agony all the while."

"The raw sores were soon in a foul condition, and my finger nails, all except two, fell off. During the different stages of my trouble, I sought the advice of three different doctors and received treatment, but although getting slight relief at first there was no cure. Amputation was at one time thought necessary but the timely introduction of Zam-Buk prevented this fearful ending."

"Zam-buk was recommended by a friend and we bought a supply. The first few applications gave me a little ease, but it was not until I had continued with it for some time that I felt a decided improvement. After that my cure went on quickly. Zam-Buk did what everything else had failed to do. Now my hands and arms are quite freed from the terrible eczema."

Are you suffering from skin diseases? If so, take Miss McSorley's advice and try Zam-Buk.

Zam-Buk cures eczema, ulcers, piles, bad leg, ringworm, festering sores, cuts, bruises, burns, stiffness, poisoned wounds of all kinds, pimples, face and lip sores, bad sores, diseased ankles, and all itching, irritation, and inflammation. Of all druggists and stores, 50 cents a box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for same price. Refuse all cheap and worthless substitutes of the "just as good" type.

A DEADENING HABIT

A fault-finding, criticising habit is fatal to all excellence. Nothing will strangle growth quicker than a tendency to hunt for flaws, to rejoice in the unlovely, like a hog, which always has his nose in mud and rarely looks up. The direction in which we look indicates the life aim; and people who are always looking for something to criticise, for the crooked and the ugly, who are always suspicious, who invariably look at the worst side of others, are but giving the world a picture of themselves.

The disposition to see the worst instead of the best grows on one very rapidly until it ultimately strangles all that is beautiful and crushes out all that is good in himself. No matter how many times your confidence has been betrayed, do not allow yourself to sour, do not lose your faith in people. The bad are the exceptions; most people are honest and true, and mean to do what is right.—Success.

SHE KNEW THEIR QUALITIES

A spinster was witness in a divorce

"How old are you?" asked counsel for defence.

"Sixt-y-e-l-g-h-t?" replied the witness, giving her voice the same upward slide as if she herself were asking the question.

"Are you married?" was the next question.

"No, thank God!" was the reply.

"Why do you thank God you are not married?" said the attorney.

"Because," replied the witness, complacently, "I don't need a husband. I have a dog that growls, a cat that stays out late nights, and a parrot that swears. Why should I stand the extra expense of a husband, when I already possess the principal characteristics of one?"

The counsel did not try to answer this question, and the trial went on after the laughter had subsided.

CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA

As is well known, this troublesome complaint arises from over-eating, the use of too much rich food, neglected constipation, lack of exercise, bad air, etc.

The food should be thoroughly chewed, and never bolted or swallowed in haste, stimulants must be avoided and exercise taken if possible.

A remedy which has rarely failed to give prompt relief and effect permanent cures, even in the most obstinate cases, is

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

It acts by regulating and toning the digestive organs, removing costiveness and increasing the appetite and restoring health and vigor to the system.

Mr. Amos Sawler, Gold River, N.S., writes:—"I was greatly troubled with dyspepsia, and after trying several doctors to no effect I commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters and I think it is the best medicine there is for that complaint."

Pills for Nervous People. — The stomach is the centre of the nervous system, and when the stomach suspends healthy action the result is manifest in disturbances of the nerves. If allowed to persist, nervous debility, a dangerous ailment, may ensue. The first consideration is to restore the stomach to proper action, and there is no readier remedy for this than Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. Thousands can attest the virtue of these pills in curing.
