TOMMY'S EASTER SURPRISE

It was Tommy's delight at close of day
To bring in the eggs from nests in the hay.
And when he was going his round
The night before Easter, up on the mow,
Over the stable of Crikey, the cow,
O what do you think that he found?
A nest near the beam, with red eggs and blue!
He never thought hens laid such eggs, did you?
With triumphant gleam in his eyes,
He called the man from the oat-bin to look,
And Robin Blake, coming home from the brook;
For indeed it was a surprise.
Then grandpapa came and Aunt Jennie White,
They seemed quite astonished at such a sight.
But grandmamma only said low,
As she looked down through her spectacles clear,
In quite a wisp way: "Why, Tommy, my dear,
It's Easter to-morrow, you know!"
Now Tommy declares there are hens that lay
Red eggs and blue, just before Easter day;
For that fact he understands well.
But are they Plymouth Rocks, Leghorns, or Guinea?
That is the question. Now what are their names?
I rather think grandma could tell!

DOCTOR SAID ONLY ZAM-BUK COULD CURE HER ECZEMA

In view of the numerous cures which Zam-Buk has worked when all else has failed, there is little wonder that in the end the doctor attending Mrs. J. P. St. Denis, of 995 Thompson Street, Winnipeg, should tell her there was nothing but Zam-Buk could cure her. The result showed the far-seeing wisdom of this practitioner, and having been completely cured by Zam-Buk, Mrs. St. Denis gives her experience for the benefit of other sufferers.

She says: "Eczema started on one side of my face and nose. At first my nose felt sore, similar to what one feels when having a bad cold. I paid no attention to this, thinking it would pass away in a day or so, but to my surprise it got worse. The nose then became swollen and hard, and turned a purplish red, as well as part of the cheek on that side of my face. As the disease developed, pimples and ulcers broke out, then the skin cracked in places and peeled off in flakes, leaving my face and nose raw and sore. This condition re-acted on my general health, and I became very ill. I could get no sleep at night because of the irritation and the pain, and my face was in such a shocking condition that for two month I did not go out of the house. I applied remedies which were supposed to be good for skin diseases, but in vain. My doctor also treated me, but without effect, until one day he said that the only thing which would now be likely to cure me was Zam-Buk.

"Acting on his advice, I procured a supply and found that even the first few applications had a soothing effect on the sores. I left off everything else in favor of this balm, and applied it liberally every day to the affected parts. In a remarkably short time, considering the obstinate nature of my disease, we saw traces of improvement, which encouraged us to persevere with the Zam-Buk treatment. Zam-Buk reduced the discoloration, then the hard swelling began to show traces of leaving, and the sores seemed to be less angry, and in about three weeks' time most of the sores were healing nicely. To cut a long story short, I continued with the Zam-Buk treatment until my face was cleared completely of all traces of the troublesome and painful eczema."

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for cuts, lacerations, burns, eczema, ring-worm, poisoned wounds, festering sores, bad leg, and all skin injuries and diseases. It is also a cure for piles. Druggists and stores everywhere sell it at 50c. a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, on receipt of price. You are warned against cheap and harmful imitations sometimes represented as "just as good."

EASTER-EGG ROLLING

One of the droll customs of Eastertide in Germany is "Easter-Monday rolling." The boys and girls go to the top of a grassy hill, and, at a given signal, down they all roll. One girl has a bowl of colored eggs that, as they start, she pours after them; they all scramble for them as best they can, each trying to catch an egg before reaching the foot of the hill.

Probably the only place on this continent where this rolling is practiced is at Washington, and here it is only the eggs and not the children that roll.

It usually takes place early in the day in front of the Capitol and close to the White House, where the sloping hillocks form a very favorable place for rolling the variegated, hard-boiled eggs. During the forenoon of Easter Monday it is the custom for thousands to flock to the playground, young and old, rich and poor, black and white, in the most democratic way, and the children of all classes join in the chase, over the green sward, of the rolling and bounding eggs. The spoiled boys and girls of the millionaire are seen running side by side with the joyous and sometimes barefooted little colored children, and the frolicsome egg-rolling assumes the character of a great public festival, all class discrimination being laid aside. Those who have witnessed it pronounce the trooping of the children into the White House at one o'clock, to offer the President a joyous Easter greeting, a very pretty sight.

THE EASTER HOPE

Wherever death goes, the Easter message should go, too. Wherever hearts break with the anguish of bereavement the balm of the Easter hope should work its healing. It is to our shame that almost nineteen hundred years after Calvary there should still be millions who have not learned that death has found its master.

EASTER DAY

"The Lord is risen indeed!" These are the words which the two disciples, on their return from Emmaus, heard "the eleven and they that were with them" repeating to each other. They were assured in their hearts that his resurrection from the dead was an accomplished fact; for he had appeared unto Simon. How their once doubting, despondent hearts now exulted with joy! His triumph over death and the grave, after having lain therein thirty-six hours, was a more signal victory, and prophetic of greater good to man, than if he had come down from the cross as His cruel mockers dared him to do.

Easter Day celebrates this signal victory of the God-man over death and the grave. Christmas is a day of rejoicing. Easter is a day of victory and exultation. As when the enemy is conquered, and the war is ended the veterans exultingly pass in review, and the whole country rejoices, so Christ, having conquered death and stripped the grave of its terrors by His triumphant resurrection, all who believe in Him rejoice more and more, and, with exultations of joy and triumph, celebrate the anniversary of the day which saw an angel of light and glory instead of the monster death sitting in the tomb where had lain the body of the crucified Saviour!

It is meet that Christians celebrate this day with songs and flowers and joyous exultations. Its memory sheds light and hope into the grave, and strengthens our faith in the blessed assurance that because Christ lives we shall live also. But more than songs, more than rejoicings, more than any externals of parade and pomp, should we all bring our tribute of praise and heartfelt adoration, and lay it at the feet of Him who died for our sins and rose for our justification.—Religious Telescope.

WALDORF SALAD

"Wipe and pare apples, then cut in small pieces," writes Fannie Merritt Farmer in Woman's Home Companion. "Mix with an equal quantity of finely cut celery, and mayonnaise dressing. Mound on a nest of crisp lettuce leaves and garnish with curled celery and canned pimentos cut in strips or fancy shapes.

"Curled celery often makes attractive garnish, and I am wondering if you all know how to prepare it. Cut thick stalks of celery in two-inch pieces. With a sharp knife, beginning at the outside of the stalks, make five cuts parallel to each other, extending one-third the length of the pieces. Make six cuts at right angles to the cuts already made. Cut the other end in the same fashion. Put the pieces in cold or iced water, and let stand for several hours."

PAID TO SEE ROYALTY

In the eighteenth century the Londoner could look at royalty on Sunday for a modest fee. In a guide to London, published in 1707, it was said: "At St. James chapel royal by knocking at the side door and slipping a shilling for each person into the hand of the verger who opens it, you may have admittance and stand during divine service in presence of their majesties; and for one shilling each person more you may sit in their royal presence, not in pews, but in turn-up seats on the side of them."

COULD NOT GO TO WORK
BACK WAS SO WEAK.

Backache is the primary cause of kidney trouble. When the back aches or becomes weak it is a warning that the kidneys are liable to become affected.

Heed the warning; check the Backache and dispose of any chances of further trouble.

If you don't, serious complications are very apt to arise and the first thing you know you will have Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's Disease, the three most deadly forms of Kidney Trouble.

Mr. James Bryant, Arichat, N.S., was troubled with his back and used Doan's Kidney Pills. In writing he says: "I cannot say too much about the benefit I received after using three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. I was greatly troubled with an aching pain across the small of my back. I could not go to work and my back was so weak I would have to sit down. It would go away for a few days but would always return. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I must say they completely cured me."

Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

TOOK AN ANTIDOTE

Percival came running to his grandma one day asking for a drink of water. "Quick, quick, grandma," he said, "give me a drink of water, quick!"

After he got his drink he said: "The reason that I was in such a hurry, I thought I swallowed a worm while eating an apple and I wanted to drown it."

There never was and never will be a universal panacea in one remedy for all ills to which flesh is heir. What would relieve one ill in turn would aggravate the others. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound, unadulterated state a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual and judicious use the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strength by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves those to whom a chronic state of morbid despondency and lack of interest in life is a disease, and by tranquilizing the nerves disposes to sound and refreshing sleep—imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which being stimulated, courses through the veins, strengthening the healthy, animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result strengthening the frame and giving life to the digestive organs which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman of Toronto have given to the public their superior Quinine By the opinion of scientists, the wine approaches nearest perfection of any on the market. All druggists sell it.

A DISAPPOINTING ROOSTER

Little six-year-old Jack had never seen much of chickens. Last summer he was visiting in a small place where the family kept a few. One day he was out watching them for quite a long time, and came in looking very much disgusted. Stepping up to one of the young men he said:

"Say, Cousin Ned, your old rooster has been coughing and coughing all the morning, and I was watching him and he hasn't coughed up an egg yet."—Delineator.

It Rubs Pains Away.—There is no liniment so efficacious in overcoming pain as Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The hand that rubs it in rubs the pain away and on this account there is no preparation that stands so high in public esteem. There is no surer pain-killer procurable, as thousands can attest who have used it successfully in treating many ailments.

The best evidence of a healthy soul is its hunger for work to do.

Some of the virtues of our friends grow out of the graves where we have buried their faults.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Is A Remedy Without An Equal For COUGHS, COLDS, And All Affections Of The THROAT and LUNGS.

Coughs and Colds do not call for a minute recital of symptoms as they are known to everyone, but their dangers are not understood so well. All the most serious affections of the throat, the lungs and the bronchial tubes, are, in the beginning, but coughs and colds.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the admonition to all persons affected by the insidious earlier stages of throat and lung disease, as failure to take hold at once will cause many years of suffering, and in the end that terrible scourge of "Consumption."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is not Sold as a Cure for Consumption but for affections tributary to, and that result in, that disease. It combines all the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth, and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe. So great has been the success of this wonderful remedy, it is only natural that numerous persons have tried to imitate it. Don't be humbugged into taking anything but "Dr. Woods." Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

THE MISSING END

An Irishman on board a man-of-war was ordered to haul in a towline. After pulling in forty or fifty fathoms, he muttered to himself: "Surely it's as long as to-day and to-morrow. It's a good weeks work for any five in the ship. Bad luck to the leg or arm I'll leave at last. What, more of it yet? Och, murder! The say's mighty deep to be sure!" After continuing in a similar strain, he suddenly stopped short, and, addressing the officer exclaimed, "Had manners to me, sir, if I don't think somebody's cut off the other end of it! It's missing."

A Purely Vegetable Pill.—The chief ingredients of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are mandrake and dandelion, sedative and purgative, but perfectly harmless in their action. They cleanse and purify and have a most healthful effect upon the secretions of the digestive organs. The dyspeptic and all who suffer from liver and kidney ailments will find in these pills the most effective medicine in concentrated form that has yet been offered to the suffering.

No man can take iniquity into his creed and keep it out of his character.

LIVER COMPLAINT

The chief office of the liver is the secretion of bile, which is the natural regulator of the bowels.

Whenever the liver becomes deranged, and the bile ducts clogged, liver complaint is produced, and is manifested by the presence of constipation, pain under the right shoulder, sallow complexion, yellow eyes, slimy-coated tongue and headache, heartburn, jaundice, sour stomach, water brash, catarrh of the stomach, etc.

Liver Complaint may be cured by avoiding the above mentioned causes, keeping the bowels free, and arousing the sluggish liver with that grand liver regulator,

LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

Mr. Geo. Fawcett, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "Having suffered with liver complaint for years and tried all sorts of remedies, I was advised to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I must say, that after taking two vials of them, I feel quite a new man, and can strongly recommend them to anyone."

Price 25 cents per vial or 5 for $1.00, at all dealers or mailed direct by the The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE OF LIVING.
Heart Trouble Cured by MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Grattan's, N.B., writes: In the year of 1903 I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors but they could do me no good. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no pain, but was so weak nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law.

One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling any better, but on the fourth day my husband said, 'I believe those pills are doing you good.' I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of the third one, and I was perfectly well and have not been sick since then.

I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now.

Price 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25.

The man who hasn't the vigor to be vicious usually prides himself on his virtues.

"A Grand Medicine" is the encomium often passed on Hickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and when the results from its use are considered, as borne out by many persons who have employed it in stopping coughs and eradicating colds, it is more than grand. Kept in the house it is always at hand and it has no equal as a remedy. If you have not tried it, do so at once.

AN EXPERT ON KISSING

A successful young novelist was praising the critical powers of a certain famous author.

"I once had the honor of reading a tale of mine to this author," he said, "and, thanks to his criticism, the story was greatly improved. Originally it was too high-flown; he brought it down to earth and made it homelier and truer.

"For instance, the tale concluded with these words:

"'Mabel's lovely eyes drooped for an answer, a faint flush tinted her cheek, and she gave him both her hands; and there in the old orchard in the shade of the heavy-fruited trees, he drew her to his breast, and, raising her long ringlets to his lips, kissed them reverently.'

"The author, at this ending, blew a cloud of smoke thoughtfully into the air, and, as he watched it curl upwards, he drawled:

"'What do you think, now, honestly, of a young man who would go dibbling at a girl's back hair when she had her face with her?'"

WHOM HE FEARED

An old Irishman who had recently recovered from a severe sickness chanced to meet the parish priest, who had been summoned during his illness to administer the rites of the Church to the dying, as he was considered to be near death's door, and the following conversation took place:

"Ah, Pat, I see you are out again. We thought you were gone sure. You had a very serious time of it."

"Yes, yer riverence, indade I had."

"When you were so near death's door were you not afraid to meet your Maker?"

"No, indade, yer riverence," replied Pat, "It was the other gintleman I was afraid of."

AFTER FOUR YEARS OF MISERY

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Baltimore, Md.—"For four years my life was a misery to me. I suffered from irregularities, terrible dragging sensations, extreme nervousness, and that all gone feeling in my stomach. I had given up hope of ever being well when I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Then I felt as though new life had been given me, and I am recommending it to all my friends."—Mrs. W. S. Foun, 1838 Lansdowne St., Baltimore, Md.

The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has stood the test of years and to-day is more widely and successfully used than any other female remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed.

If you are suffering from any of these ailments, don't give up hope until you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. She has guided thousands to health, free of charge.
