PULLING AND PUSHING

Flesherton has some good citizens—men who have the welfare of the town at heart, who desire to see it progress and who will put their shoulder to the wheel and give a push when things are going too slow. But it also has a few of the other kind.

The other day we saw a bunch of boys shoving and pulling a light wag. on the street. Most of the boys were puffing and blowing like porpoises, but there was one fellow who acted as a drag and let the other boys pull and shove him along. And he made the most noise of all.

There are some grown-ups who never get over the habit of letting the other fellow do it all, but at the same time will make a lot of noise to make the world believe that they are doing a lot to make the civic wagon buzz along. Those who have been associated with such for some time are not deceived, but strangers are often misled into believing that they carry the burdens of the town on their shoulders. Later it is discovered that they are using the band wagon and their own calliopes to further their own interests. We suppose that every town has people of this class, just as every garden has its pestiferous weeds to retard development in the vegetable kingdom. but we do not envy the weed, nor the fellow who pulls on the wagon instead of pushing. He hath no honor and dies unmourned. The world is no better for his having lived.

THE COMEDY OF THE WYE

For the past two weeks the papers have been full of a treasure hunt over on the little river Wye, two miles east of Midland. A new species of divining rod was brought into use which denoted the presence of gold, silver and copper, and probing revealed the existence of something—supposedly a chest containing articles of this kind lost by the Jesuits when they evacuated the old fort of St. Marie in 1649 to escape the Iroquois. A dredge was engaged and after some days' dredging the article sought was found to be a large stone!

Exit divining rod!

Exit treasure!

Exit Hope and Faith, but Charity still covereth a multitude of sins.

And the excitement created a lot of good copy for the newspapers, which goes to prove the wisdom of the old darkey adage that "its an ill wind blows nowhar."

Dandelion wine with a 23 per cent. kick is something extraordinary, but that is the grade that got a Tiverton restaurant man into a $200 mess. How did he do it? We have never been able to get any more than 1½ in any of our home brew.

Lots of those juvenile motorists trust to the horn when they should use the horn.

Bentinck township young people figured in what might easily have been a fatal accident at Wellbeck (north east Bentinck) last Friday evening, the victims being Hector and Myrtle Boyce, aged 18 and 20 years respectively, children of Mr Harvey Boyce. It appears that Kendal Stanborough was carrying a shotgun and in some manner it was discharged, Hector Boyce being hit in the lung and his sister in the arm. Fortunately the accident did not end fatally, although Hector was in a serious condition for a time. He is now out of danger and both are recovering.

one good reason

Why the sale of Chevrolet cars is increasing steadily and rapidly every month is because the style and finish is equal to that of cars double their price.

When you buy a Chevrolet car from us you buy a complete car—not another cent to be spent in extras.
