To Everyman

THE first and most important aim of Everyman who desires to succeed should be the same as that of successful business and financial houses—the formation of a Reserve Fund.

A reserve is not only invaluable when reverses or emergencies arise, but it is a guarantee of strength and promotes self-confidence.

Sunday, July 3, will be taken by Mr. R. J. Woods of Corbetton ; July 30, no service, and the last Sunday of Mr. Fowler's absence the service will be taken by Mr. Thornley of Shelburne.

The Orange church parade on Sunday, when Rev· Mr. Fowler preached to the fraternity, was largely attended, there being some 75 members in the procession. There were representatives present from most of the surrounding lodges The sermon, though based mainly on Orange principles and what they stood for, was minus text. The subject was ably handled.

Pedlar-McDowell

An interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Phillips, Wed., July 5th at 4 o'clock, when their granddaughter, Alice Gertrude McDowell was united in marriage to Samuel Ray Pedlar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pedlar of Portlaw. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Mr Duffield, of Maxwell, in the presence of about forty guests, the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

The parlor was fragrant with quantities of summer flowers. The bride and groom stood under an arch of ferns and orange blossoms. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Samuel Phillips, was attired in a navy blue dress of Canton crepe and carried American Beauty roses and ferns. Her gift from the groom was a handsome cut glass fruit set. Miss Della Pedlar, sister of the groom, played the wedding march. After congratulations and signing of the register a dainty repast was served at a table arranged with the wedding cake in the centre, surrounded by orange blossoms.

The young couple left on a motor trip to Toronto, Hamilton and Creemore, the bride travelling in a tailored suit of navy whip cord with hat to match. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, 4th line, Osprey.

Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vandusen and daughters of Toronto, Mrs. H. C. Dieterz, Cleveland, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pedlar of Creemore.

LeGard-Hunter

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Andrews Presbyterian church, Toronto, on Monday, July 3rd, when Miss Elizabeth Hunter of Penetanguishene, Ont., was united in marriage to Joseph A. LeGard of Toronto, formerly of Flesherton, by the Rev. W. A. Mahon. The congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends go with the young couple.

Successful Garden Party

One of the most successful garden parties ever held at Maxwell was that given at the home of Mr. Angus Morrison under the auspices of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid on Wednesday evening of last week. The program was a good one and attracted a very large crowd. A football game between Markdale and Feversham clubs created a great deal of excitement, the score being 2 to 0 in favor of Markdale. Among the several speakers was Rev. Mr. Duffield, the newly arrived Methodist minister on that circuit, and other numbers were the Large Bros. and Wes. Armstrong, Hawaiian music ; violin music by Freddie Large, Maypole dance by the girls, an excellent solo by Mrs. George Lawler and a reading by Miss Seeley.

The supper was all that could be desired, the evening was ideal and the big crowd thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Hanover Stores Destroyed

Hanover, July 5—Hanover yesterday was visited by the most disastrous fire for some time, when the shoe store owned and occupied by J. Koenig, the Olympia candy works and pool room were destroyed, the estimated loss running from $9000 to $10,000. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it started in the basement of the establishment. Mr. Koenig had a particularly heavy stock of boots and shoes, which was completely destroyed. The loss to the Olympia candy works is set at $1500, including stock and machinery, and the billiard and pool room fixtures and furnishings, with stock of cigars, etc, were valued at $1200.
