BEFORE I GO TO BED

Each evening as the clock strikes seven,
Directly after tea,
My mamma puts me dressed for bed,
An' then she cuddles me,
Sits down in her own rocking chair
An' takes me on her knee.

She tells me then such lovely tales
How all the stars and flowers
An' clouds are splendid castles grand
With shiny rainbow towers,
I think that I would like to stay
An' listen there for hours.

An' 'fore she kisses me "good night"
She softly strokes my hair,
While I kneel down beside her knee
An' say my evening prayer.
An' when she tucks me safe in bed,
She says I'm in God's care.

So I'm not frightened of the dark,
'Cause mamma says it's clear
That children who have trust in God
Need never have a fear;
For angels watch them as the sleep,
And God is always near.

A CHANGE OF VIEW

In a Great Western Railway carriage, on the way up to London, a youth had disturbed and annoyed the other passengers by loud and foolish remarks during a great part of the journey. As the train passed Hanwell Lunatic Asylum he remarked: "I often think how nice the asylum looks from the railway."

"Some day," growled an old gentleman, "you will probably have occasion to remark how nice the railway looks from the asylum!"

ANOTHER NAME

"Father, don't men call themselves bachelors before they get married?"

"Yes, my boy."

"And what do they call themselves after, dad?"

"Hush! It isn't for little boys to know."

Watch Your Liver.

If It Is Lazy, Slow or Torpid Stir It Up By the Use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver is a terrible affliction, as it holds back the bile, which is required to move the bowels, and lets it into the blood instead, thus causing Constipation, Catarrh of the Stomach, Sick Headache, Languor, Pain under the Right Shoulder, etc.

Mrs. Wesley Batabrooks, Midgic Station, N.B., writes:—"For several years I had been troubled with pains in the liver. I have had medicine from several doctors, but was only relieved for a time by them. I then tried Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and I have had no trouble with my liver since. I can honestly recommend these to every person who has liver trouble."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial, or 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

EXPIRED

The defendant, who was held on a charge of keeping a dog without a license, repeatedly tried to interrupt the evidence, but was hushed each time by the court. Finally the clerk turned to him:

"Do you wish the court to understand that you refuse to renew your dog license?"

"Yes, but—"

"We want no 'buts.' You must renew your license or be fined. You know it expired on January 1."

"Yes, and so did the dog."

HE GOT IT

"Here," said the schoolmaster, "is a five-shilling piece, and I will give it to the boy who can ask a riddle I cannot answer." Everyone tried, and the schoolmaster answered each one, until they began to think no one would win the money. At last a small boy asked—"Please, sir, why am I like the Prince of Wales?" The master could not tell. "Because I am waiting for the crown," was the reply. He got it, too.

We are pleased to note that many a homely woman has made good as a beauty specialist.

The average man accepts advice with about as much grace as a tramp accepts a bar of soap.

It's a pity we can't put some of our youthful enthusiasm in cold storage and keep it for old age.

Her HEART and NERVES

Were So Bad She Could Not Sleep.

To those who sleep in a kind of a way, but whose rest is broken into by fearful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake in the morning as tired as when they went to bed, we can recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. By taking them you can have your old, peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again.

Mrs. Chas. Teel, Horncastle, Ont., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. My heart and nerves were so bad I could not sleep, and the least noise or excitement would make me feel so that I used to think I was going to die, and I would tremble until I could hardly stand. I took doctor's medicine, but it did not do me much good. At last I tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I can certainly say they did me a great amount of good. I can recommend them to anyone who is suffering as I was."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box, 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

STORY OF JOHN BRIGHT

Dean Hole once told a story of John Bright. A persistent clergyman was urging Mr. Bright to subscribe towards rebuilding his church, and got the natural reply that, as a Quaker, Bright could hardly be expected to give for the purpose. The clergyman replied that the building must be pulled down first, and that perhaps he would like to subscribe on that part of the process. "In that case," said Mr. Bright, "I'll give ten pounds."

Every man ought to know at least as much about his own business as he does about the other fellow's.

THIS WOMAN'S SICKNESS

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Baltimore, Md.—"I am more than glad to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I suffered dreadful pains and was very irregular. I became alarmed and sent for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until I was without a cramp or pain and felt like another person, and it has now been six months since I took my medicine at all. I hope my little note will assist you in helping other women. I now feel perfectly well and in the best of health."—Mrs. AUGUST W. KOHNHER, 1632 Hollins Street, Baltimore, Md.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

HE MEANT WELL

English cyclists travelling alone on the Continent have many queer experiences, says a contributor to the Boston Traveller. One of them it tells:

A young man who was bicycling in Southern France was pushing his machine up a steep hill when he overtook a peasant with a donkey cart who was making but little progress, although the donkey was doing his best.

The benevolent cyclist, putting his left hand against the back of the cart and guiding his machine with the other, pushed so hard that the donkey, taking fresh courage, pulled his load up to the top successfully.

The summit reached, the peasant burst into thanks to his benefactor.

"It was very good of you, indeed, monsieur," he protested. "I should never in the world have got up the hill with only one donkey."

How A Clever Girl Helped Her Mother

DELORAINE, MAN.

I must tell you about my mother. She thinks there is no other medicine as good as GIN PILLS, for Backache. She tried a lot of other medicine for her back. Sometimes she would get a little better, and then be as bad as ever.

Then a friend advised me to get GIN PILLS. Mother tried them and has not been troubled with backache since.

MINNIE HAIR.

Backache is the surest sign of Kidney Trouble—and GIN PILLS are the surest cure for weak, sick Kidneys. If you are troubled with backache, don't hesitate a moment but get GIN PILLS and you will get relief. If GIN PILLS do not do all that we say they will—let us know, and we will cheerfully refund you your money. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50. A man never looks better than when he is looking for another man who owes him money.

Good-bye to Asthma.—Persons suffering from that extremely trying trouble known as asthma know what it is to long with all their hearts for escape as from a tyrant. Never do they know when an attack may come and they know to struggle unaided is vain. With Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy at hand, however, they can say good-bye to their enemy and enjoy life again. It helps at once.

PIMPLES Are an "EYE SORE."

Pimples are caused by the blood being out of order. These little festering sores appear on the forehead, on the nose, on the chin and other parts of the body, and although they are not a dangerous trouble they are very unsightly to both you and your friends.

There is only one way to get rid of them, and that is to purify the blood.

Burdock Blood Bitters is without a doubt the best remedy on the market for this purpose.

Wm. P. Donohue, Jr., Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"About six months ago my little son's face was literally covered with pimples. I tried every preparation I was told of by my friends, but to no avail. Soon I thought I could not have them fixed up, and would have to wait, and let him grow out of them, but thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters they are all gone, and I gladly recommend it to anyone."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured solely by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FAT WAS READY

Father X, a well-known member of the Roman Catholic Church, is famous for his wit. But a laborer on the railway got the better of him one day. The editor, one of the good father's parishioners, was laying asphalt paving under the superintendence of an Italian foreman, and the priest smiled and said: "Well, Pat, and how do you like having an Italian boss?" Pat smiled back as he quickly answered: "Ah, faith, father, an' how do you like havin' one yourself?"

GO TO CHURCH TO-MORROW

Let us be frank. Let us admit there has been a big change in the attitude of many people toward church going.

It has come about slowly. It has been going on for the past fifty years. The startling point of this change dates back before autos became so large—before automobiling and the reading of magazines and Sunday newspapers became so prevalent as a Sunday morning diversion.

In the old days "Everybody went to church," not simply for spiritual and moral benefit, but because the church was the meeting place of the people and because if you went to church you would see and have a chance to talk with many friends and neighbors. Moreover, it was a moral thing to do, and many went in response to the dictum of convention.

Since that time other meeting places have grown in popularity—there have sprung up so many other places and ways for people to meet—and theatres advertised while churches did not—and many began to reason: "Well, it makes no difference whether I go to church or not; I tried to do my duty to God and man, and, church-going isn't everything, and one less church-goer will make no difference"—and the first thing we know church-going decreased.

It is deplorable, but a fact just the same. It is a condition that has been valiantly fought against by clergyman of all denominations.

But the way we figure it out, the world is not worse than it was—the world is better than it ever was—and while we do not expect to overcome, in a day or a month, conditions that are the result of more than fifty years of changes, we are going to do something.

First of all, we are going to turn on the light of publicity—we are going to send our message into the highways and byways with the powerful searchlight of advertising.

This year will mark a new area for the church, for we believe that thousands who do not go church now will realize their opportunity—and do it!

We mean by opportunity: Would you want to live in a Dallas that knew no church? Would you care to raise your children in a churchless community?

Isn't it true that Christianity has done more for civilization than any other one factor in the history of the world? Isn't the church a greater force for good than all the policemen in the world? Woodrow Wilson says: "Throughout the land every church stands as an interrogation point, asking of every man for what purpose he was put here."

In other words, you have got to think: "What would the city of Dallas be without the church?" Would it be better off or worse? And then, if you agree with us that Dallas needs the church—that you believe it is a preventative of lawlessness and a force for law and order—isn't it up to you to support the church in some shape or form?—Dallas Ad. Club.

NOT A CLOTHES PEG

Peggy Newton had been a faithful household drudge for years and had not grumbled much when her wages were occasionally passed over. But as time went on and her salary fell more and more into arrears she ventured to ask something "on account."

"Why, haven't I paid your wages lately, Peg? How careless of me," her mistress said. "I'm sorry I have no money in the house just now, but here's a smart cloak which I have ceased to wear, and which is only a wee bit out of fashion. You'll take it in lieu of wages, won't you?"

"No, ma'am, I'm sure I shan't," said Peg wrathfully, eyeing the faded old cloak. "A Peg I may be by name but I won't be that sort of peg that people hang cast off clothes on—not if I know it."

SANDY AGAIN

Sandy, on the death of his wife, had inscribed on her tomb:

"The light of my life has gone out."

Sometime afterwards he remarried and those words seemed somewhat out of place. Meeting his crony at the entrance to the kirk he said:

"Man, Tammas, I've got to pass that tombstone every time I gae in or oot the kirk, and ma wife dinna like it, but I canna' see hoo I can alter the words. What would ye advise?"

Tammas: "Weel, Sandy, it wad be a pity tae alter the words, and forbye expensive. I'd let it bide as it is and just add—'But I've struck anither match'."

A Severe Cold Settled On Her Lungs.

Mrs. Geo. Murphy, Spence, Ont., writes:—"I have had occasion to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and can say it most certainly is a wonderful medicine. Last winter my little girl, just a year old, took a severe cold which settled on her lungs. I tried everything, and was almost in despair, when by chance I read of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and decided to try it. I got two bottles, and as soon as I started to use it I could see it was taking effect. I gave her three bottles in all, and they completely cured her."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is a universal remedy for sufferers from all bronchial troubles. Coughs and Colds of all kinds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Whooping Cough, and Throat and Lung Troubles, disappear quickly after a few doses have been taken.

It will stop that distressing, tickling sensation in the throat which causes coughing and keeps you awake at night.
