A Boozy Funeral

License Inspector Pellow and High Constable Whitesides of Huron County recently dug up in a cemetery near Dungannon, six cases of choice liquor which had been decorously buried as a corpse some days before. The supposed corpse was brought to Goderich on the Steamer Greyhound from Detroit. A regular funeral was held with hearse clergyman and several auto loads of mourners, the latter being ready at the dock to meet the steamer. The minister and clergyman who participated, had no idea they were being made partners in a hoax. The authorities have not yet learned who shipped the liquor and nobody has claimed the stuff, resurrected a little too soon! As the Pioneer says, the lengths or rather depths to which bootleggers and rumrunners will go in carrying on their nefarious work, is well illustrated in the above story. Somebody expected the stuff, the Inspector got a hint that something was not in order, and organized a grave-robbing party on his own account.

One day last week a young business man of this vicinity while motoring down the Elora Road, felt his car give a sudden jolt. On looking out to discover the cause, he saw his tire running on ahead of the car, and making straight for the creek. The driver hurried after his property, but before he reached it the tire had fallen into the water and being an Aero Cushion, it was carried rapidly down stream. The owner struck across the field to head it off, and succeeded in rescuing it —Mildmay Gazette.

SOME COUNTY STATISTICS

The complete census returns of the Province of Ontario have come to hand including the County of Grey and shows the population of Grey has decreased 6,840 in the past ten years. Every township in the County lost in population, Artemesia being the heaviest loser with a total of 752. Dundalk lost 12, Markdale 48 and Flesherton's loss was not given but the population given at present is 422. Osprey, with a population of 2205 has a loss of 321. Proton with a population of 2382 loss 404 people; Euphrasia, with a population of 2438 lost 449. Only two municipalities in the County showed an increase and these were Hanover and Thornbury with an increase of 439 and 27 respectively. Ontario's total population is 2,933,662, the rural municipalities contributing 1,226,292 and urban, 1,707,370

W. I. Annual Meeting

The sixteenth annual convention and the twenty-fifth anniversary of Women's Institute in Grey County was held at Kemble Thursday, Aug 24th.

The convention took the form of two sessions and the entire procedure was a wonderful example of the great undertaking, the vigorous endeavor, the practical yet beautiful ideals that have given the Women's institute a history of twenty-five years, ripe with tasks well done, and a future golden with the promise of greater service.

The meeting was held in the Public Library building, which was very attractive with a profusion of summer flowers used on the platform. There was a large representation of members, 225 registered.

At several intervals during the meeting splendid community singing of patriotic known selections was led by Miss Irving.

A very happy feature was presentations from the county to four long faithful members and officers of Kemble branch 20 years ago, when first organized. Mrs Jas Gardner, Pres., was presented with a beautiful silver flower vase and reflector; Mrs. B J Long sec. a pearl sunburst, Mrs Davidson, 1st vice pres., with a silver vase, Mrs McGregor, a silver and cut glass vase, as a token of the appreciation felt for their years of service.

The representative of South Grey, Miss Jamieson of Hanover, gave a helpful address on "The Hasty Passing of Resolutions". Mrs A M McClure of Williamsford, representative of centre Grey, gave an excellent paper on "what can we do more".

A very important address of the day was that given by Mrs Segworth of Brampton, field secretary of Ontario School on education.

The speech of the afternoon that has been so eagerly anticipated was that of Mr G A. Putnam, superintendent of the Women's Institutes of Ontario.

This was Mr. Putnam's first visit to Grey County since the inauguration meeting in Flesherton, 1907, and he expressed pleasure at being present.

The next County Convention will be held at Flesherton in 1923.

Following the meeting supper was served, and after good byes were said the gathering broke up.

Many expressions of appreciation to the Kemble hostesses was heard. Those present from Flesherton were, Mrs H Down, Mrs O Phillips, Mrs W Inkster, Mrs W. A. Hawken.
