Barn Burned In Osprey Twp.

On Sunday morning the barn of Mr. Alex Findlay, five miles east of Maxwell on the Collingwood gravel, was struck by lightning during the heavy thunder storm and burned to the ground. The barn, which was 60x80 and had a stone foundation, contained 60 loads of grain and 30 loads of hay, all of this season's crop, besides a number of implements, some of which were saved. No stock was lost. The stable was fully equipped with steel stanchions and water in each stall and was one of the most up-to-date barns in that district. There was only a small insurance and Mr. Findlay's loss will be heavy. Lightning rods were on the building but for some reason were not able to turn the bolt when it struck.

East Mountain

School reopened with Miss Armstrong of Huntsville still in charge. We again wish her success.

Mrs Louis Graham of Detroit spent a week with her friend, Mrs G Harbottle.

We neglected to mention in our last items the arrival of a little son—Laurence Melville—at the home of Mr and Mrs Comford Thompson. We offer our heartiest congratulations.

Mr John Smith of Rob Roy spent a week with his son, Stanley, here.

Geo Harbottle and wife visited with the latter's mother, who is very ill at Mr Ed Harbottle's, Lady Bank.

Little Dorothy Genoe spent a week with her aunt, Miss Kate Jamieson, Eugenia.

When Dad Was Young

When Dad was young he druv along
With a hoss an' buggy an' love's ol' song,
An' his girl run second nary nother,
The dear little girl that I call Mother!
The world was sweet an' their hearts were gay
When they stopped to whisper. What did they say?
Well, the story was old and so was the buggy,
But no limousine could a-been more snuggy!
Your motor cars of the great to-day
Go whizzin' along in a sumptuous way,
An' they sometimes stop nigh the ol' trees there
Where dad whoed up the ol' gray mare.
Yea, the road is changed from dirt to gravel,
An' there's more of fashion, wealth an' travel,
But the story that's told by the modern tongue
Is the same ol' yarn my Daddy sprung.
When souls are livin' on clouds and wind,
Don't matter at all what you ride behind
A chauffeur or hoss that has one lung,
Like the mare Dad druv when he was young.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. McLeod and family desire to thank their friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and bereavement of their beloved father and husband.

A Ray of Sunshine

It looks as if J. J. Morrison is coming out very much ahead of Premier Drury in the "broadening out" U. F. O. battle. Mr. Drury's proposal to form a new party looks just like a stab to retain office. Members of the U. F. O. who were elected to the legislature by that party naturally want to continue as members and draw a sessional indemnity of $1400 and a bonus (or steal) of $600 in addition. It is astonishing how quickly they forget their pre-election promises. If there is any "broadening out" of the U. F. O. to be done it is almost certain that the Conservative members of the U. F. O. will hustle back to their old party.—Orangeville Sun

Mitchell—Leichsenring

A quiet but pretty wedding took place in Chicago, U S A, on Monday, Sept. 4th 1922, when Ann Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Leichsenring, became the bride of Mr. J. Kendall S. Mitchell of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs Geo. Mitchell. The young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Mackinac, St. Ignace, Sault Ste. Marie and Flesherton. Kendall is a rising young lawyer in Chicago and The Advance, along with a host of his friends, extend to him their best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will be at home after November first at 1326½ Estes Ave., Chicago.

Ferrier--Cuthbertson

The marriage took place on Wednesday of last week at ingersoll of Miss Kathleen Galbraith, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Cuthbertson of Ingersoll to Mr. Harold Poole Ferrier of Yarker, Ont., formerly of Flesherton, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The best man was Mr. Alister Fraser of Toronto, who taught in the high school here, last term. Mr. and Mrs. Ferrier left for a trip to Atlantic City and other points and on their return will reside at Yarker, where the groom is manager of the Bank of Montreal.

The T. Eaton Co. will equip the operating room of Durham's new memorial hospital.

Threshing Begins Barn Burned

Feversham Correspondence

The harvest has been gathered in once more in this locality and the whistle of the steam thresher is once more heard. Reports say a wonderful yield of grain is being threshed.

Mr Alex Findlay, near McIntyre, had his good barn burned on Sunday morning by lightning, together with all this year's crop, hay and several hundred bushels of last year's oats in the granary. It is a serious loss for him at this time of the year.

Mrs Robert Alexander has returned home after spending a couple of months with her aunt, Mrs Geo Myers, in Flesherton, who has been very ill.

Install A Radio

"A Radio Store stocked with all good standard Radio parts and supplies is opening September 16th in Owen Sound. This store will be in a position to supply you with any style of set, complete, or any parts, for you to construct your own set, and will also be in a position to instruct you in different methods of wiring these parts, so as to achieve the best results--or will do the wiring for you. It is a mistake to think that Radio is an extravagant idea just the reverse -- if you are properly instructed as to what to buy.

Any information regarding Radio--cost of sets or parts--can be obtained by addressing Frank Slater--Coulson House, (opposite the City Hall). Owen Sound who is opening this up-to-the-minute Radio Shop."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Thomas Julian, who died September 16th 1921.

Only a memory of bygone days and a sigh for a face unseen,
But a constant feeling that God alone
Knows best what might have been.
Though a loving voice is silent and his heart ceased to beat,
How I miss his well-known footsteps
And the smile I loved to greet.

Scaled The Clifts of Eugenia Mountain

Eugenia Correspondence

Mr Riley, the new caretaker and overseer at the Club House, had quite a thrilling experience one day recently while trying to find his cattle, which had strayed. He came upstream and in some way became confused or lost, and walking on soon came face to face with the great wall of rock over which the falls used to flow so freely. Thinking there was no other way out, and having his collie pup along, he seized the animal by the collar and taking it in his teeth, scaled the wall of rock which was some 40 or 50 feet high, just as the human fly may have climbed the Traders Bank building in Toronto. Coming out on top he realized where he was at and seemed very little the worse. Moral—The English always come out on top.

Miss Patricia Morgan held quite a successful bazaar on Thursday last, consisting of homemade baking, candy, doll clothing, children's rompers and pinafores and other fancy articles, Patty having made quite a number of the articles herself. Being a little girl of about 10 years she deserves quite a lot of credit. We are sure her work will be appreciated by the Sick Children's hospital, when they receive the $10 which was realized from the sale of the goods.

Mr and Mrs A Hoy celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary the past week and entertained about thirty of their friends, among whom from a distance were :—Mr and Mrs Lebert, Mrs Leachburg and Mrs David of Buffalo, Chas Hoy, Robt Phillips, wife and son of Toronto, Mr Tuchy, wife and family of Meaford, and E Simmons and wife of Drayton.

The many friends of Jacob Sloan were pleased to have him back to the old home town once more after his accident a year ago. Since then he has had to undergo several very critical and painful operations on his face and eyes. Jake is a general favorite and everyone was pleased to see him looking so well.

J E Large spent the week end with his family here.

Messrs Robt Purvis, Ern Morgan, J Williams and Mr Shipley motored to the city and spent a few days at the Ex.

Mrs Jacob Williams is visiting her daughter, Mrs Leeman, in Toronto at present.

Leonard Latimer is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Dell Wilson has returned to her school at Epping. Wesley Latimer has taken a school near Orillia and Miss Etta Latimer goes back to the 8th Line school.

Miss Jean Wright of Vandeleur is this year teaching in the Eugenia school. We are pleased to welcome Miss Wright and wish her every success.

Mrs McMullen and Nurse Graham are visiting in the city at present.

Miss Lillie Campbell received a sudden call to Meaford on Sunday last to the bedside of her sister, Millie, who was taken suddenly ill with appendecitis. The Drs. thought an imediate operation necessary, but the patient is doing nicely at time of writing without the operation being performed.

Mr and Mrs Elwood Purvis of Burwash visited at Robt Purvis's the past week.

Fred Large has gone to Dundalk to attend the high school and take up music.

Arthur Pedlar, Pearl Latimer and Mae Duckett have returned to Flesherton high school.

Mrs A Smith and Miss Georgina leave this week to visit friends in Toronto.

Harry Foester visited with friends in Waterloo and Toronto.

What did the animals and pheasants at the exhibition look like, anyway ?

The new Union Sunday School opened on Sunday last with a good attendance. A week from Sunday is Rally Day for the new school. Will those having books belonging to the library be kind enough to bring them along so that the librarian can get the books in shape.

John Sillicks of the 12th concession of Culross was severely gored by a bull while attending to his stock. The animal became enraged and attacked Mr. Sillicks, crushing several ribs and breaking his shoulder blade. In order to overcome the beast it had to be shot. Mr. Sillicks is reported to be in a critical condition.
