THE WAY OF THE SCOUT

Cheery and bright from morning till night,
Ready and willing to aid;
Hard though the work, he never will shirk,
Plodding along undismayed.
Trusty and true, he'll see the thing through;
"Fail" is a word he's rolled out.
Never give in, but stick to it and win;
That is the way of the Scout.

Upright and clean, both thrifty and keen,
Orders he'll gladly obey;
Living a life of use and not strife,
Doing his good turn a day;
Heedless of gain, but with might and main
Working for good without doubt;
Making a game by "playing the game,"
That is the way of the Scout.

Sturdy and fit, oft proving his grit,
Handy and friendly to all;
Loyal and true, a sticker like glue,
Ready if country should call;
Ever by deed upholding his creed,
Pointing the foed to the foul;
Fighting for right, with God as his might;
That is the way of the Scout.

—The Canadian Scout.

VERY DISAPP'INTIN'

Uncle Rastus, you are preaching for a new congregation now, aren't you?"

"Yus, sah."

"What are the prospects? How do you like the outlook?"

"Well, sah, the outlook ain't so bad, but de fust inlook I took at de hat afsah it had gone round 'mong de cong'gation for collections wus very disapp'intin', sah, very disapp'intin."

A FALL IN COPPER

A doctor who had been summoned hastily alighted from his carriage to find a woman awaiting him on the doorstep, but without the anxious look he expected in the circumstances.

"I understand," he said, "that your boy has swallowed a quarter. Where is he?"

"Oh, sir!" was the reply, "I'm glad to to tell you we made a mistake. It wasn't a quarter, it was only a copper."

SUFFERED TERRIBLY
WITH HEART AND NERVES.
WOULD WAKE UP SMOTHERING.
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills Cured Her.

Mrs. A. M. Powell, Norval, Ont., writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I suffered for five years with my heart and nerves, but the last two years I have suffered terribly. If I went to bed I would wake up as if I was smothering. I did not get one night's sleep out of seven. I got so very weak that the doctor was called in, and he said it was my heart, and that I must take great care of myself. I saw your advertisement in your almanac for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and said I would try them. I have only taken two boxes of them and I feel a new woman. I will recommend them to anyone afflicted with heart trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

For years Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has ranked as the most effective preparation manufactured, and it always maintains its reputation.

The world is full of folk who have breath enough to boast, but not enough to say their prayers.

The trouble with the world is that so many people in it imagine that they are really smarter than they are.

FINAL

A party of tourists in Ireland came across a native whitewashing the front of his house.

"Halloa, Pat," said one; "why aren't you whitewashing the back as well as the front?"

"Well," said Pat; "it's jist for the same reason that you don's put a front on the back of yer shirt."

Many a father on seeing his sporty son home from college can say with Aaron: "I threw my gold in the fire, and there came forth this calf."

Some sermons are born from the inward impulse, some are born from reading and study, some are born from observing the world about us and the needs of the people we minister to; but most sermons are born out of the consciousness on Saturday night that we must preach twice on Sunday.—An honest Preacher.

The ease with which corns and warts can be removed by Holloway's Corn Cure is its strongest recommendation. It seldom fails.

When no suet is at hand, and a little is required for puddings, etc., chop some dripping finely and use. It will answer the purpose quite well.

Suffered with Kidneys
Could Hardly Sleep.

No woman can be strong and well unless the kidneys are well, for when the kidneys are ill the whole body is ill.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by expelling all the poisonous matter from the kidneys, and then heal the delicate membranes and make their action regular and natural.

Miss A. Parks, East Middle La Have, N.S., writes: "For three years I suffered so with kidney troubles I could hardly sleep at night. I used all sorts of kidney medicine; some helped me for a while; others, which I gave a fair trial, did not help me at all. I was very sallow and had puffing under my eyes. I made up my mind I would try Doan's Kidney Pills, and on taking two boxes I found I was getting better, so I kept on using two more, and to-day I don't know I ever had kidney trouble. I owe all the praise to Doan's Kidney Pills."

"Doan's" are put up in an oblong grey box; the trade mark "The Maple Leaf"; price 50c. per box, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mountain Barriers Handicap Italy's Red Cross Workers

Over Italy's far-flung 460-mile battle line where Austria, aided by nature in the ice-bound ramparts of the Alps, has striven to keep free Italy shut out from enslaved Italy, the Italian Red Cross Society is heroically waging its fight for the relief of suffering humanity against odds far greater than those surmounted by the Red Cross bannerbearers on other Allied battle fronts.

On the western front the automobile ambulances quickly speed back the wounded from the front lines. Likewise medical attention and hospitals are near at hand for the Russians on the Eastern battle line, though supplies are scarce.

But the task of caring for the Italian wounded among the unstable snows and mountains of the Alps is almost inconceivable. Often the sufferers must be transported in box-like cars sliding on overhead cables or even lowered by ropes down the mountain sides. On snow sledges or by burrow back are the most common methods of carrying the Italian wounded down the mountain trails. Intense suffering and often death is caused before the hospitals, miles away, are reached.

Treacherous snow, ice and rocks, and the extreme cold, cause many casualties among the Italian soldiers. Thousands of amputations have resulted in the two years of warfare among perpetual snows.

The Italian Red Cross Society and the Royal Italian Government fund for orphans of fallen Italian soldiers ask of their Canadian ally —"Will you help?" In answer to this appeal Southern and Western Ontario have fixed a goal of $100,000 to be raised by popular subscriptions. Campaigns will be conducted during August and September.

Every dollar given to the Italian Red Cross Society will shorten the war against Germany and its horrors. Every fit fighting man in the trenches, be he Canadian, British, Italian, or other ally, makes more efficient fighting forces—thus hastening the war's end.

ELECTRIC PLANTS FOR THE FARM

One of the recognized necessities in connection with our increased agricultural production is better and more attractive conditions on the farm, and among the many suggestions the use of electricity should be considered. Electric power is a great convenience in the farm home, and saves much time to the farm help. The farm or country home situated within the area of an electric system of transmission for distribution is fortunate, but the vast majority must look to the small isolated plant. This alternative, however, is now much more promising than a few years ago. Many factories manufacture this type of equipment, the cost of operation of the plants has been much reduced. These small plants may be advantageously used for many purposes in addition to lighting, such as ironing, washing, toasting, pumping water, etc.; and also for the very important use of charging storage batteries.

DIARRHOEA WAS SO BAD.
Thought She Would Lose Child.

During the hot weather young children are very much subject to diarrhoea, in fact, more so than adults, on account of the more delicate construction of their constitution. It behooves every mother to look after her children on the first sign of any looseness of the bowels, for if they do not some serious bowel trouble such as diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, summer complaint, etc., is liable to follow, and they will perhaps, loose their little one by not taking the precaution to check this looseness of the bowels by using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Mrs. R. J. Hillis, St. Mary's, Ont., writes: "My little girl was so bad with diarrhoea the doctor could not cure her, and we were sure we were going to lose her. A friend of mine told me to use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, so I sent for a bottle right away, and by the time I had given her one bottle she was able to sit up, and before I had the second bottle used she was cured. I tell everybody about this sure cure. The price is 35c. a bottle, but it is well worth it.

It is 11 years since I first tried it, and will always keep it on hand. It is good for old and young alike."

"Dr. Fowler's" has been on the market for the past 72 years, so if you want to be on the safe side be sure and see that you get "Dr. Fowler's" when you ask for it.

The genuine is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Good-bye to Asthma.—Persons suffering from that extremely trying trouble known as asthma know what it is to long with all their hearts for escape as from a tyrant. Never do they know when an attack may come and they know that to struggle unaided is to vain. With Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy at hand, however, they can say good bye to their enemy and enjoy life again. It helps at once.

GIRL COULD NOT WORK
How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."—Miss CLARICE MOHN, 22 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass.

Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs, much suffering might be avoided.
