Nine Cows Killed

During a thunder storm which passed over Singhampton recently Alex. Sheard, whose farm is on the Townline three miles south of Singhampton, lost nine head of cattle, the animals being struck by lightning. All were milch cows and were standing near the barn, which was undamaged.

William Reed, over six feet, weighing 305 lbs., has been made an inmate of Walkerton House of Refuge. His avoirdupois will now probably decrease. The case is a pathetic one.

Marking Old Forts Of Huron Indians

Active steps are being taken by the Canadian National Park Branch of the Department of the Interior to put in a state of preservation the ruins of the old Jesuit fort on Christian Island, at the southeast corner of Georgian Bay. These ruins represent the second fortified Jesuit Mission of St Marie (1649-1650), and, besides being a relic of one of the two oldest stone fortifications in North America, are silent witnesses to one of the most tragic episodes in early Canadian history.

In 1869 the Jesuit missionaries to the Hurons built their first stone fort on the mainland, two miles east of the present town of Midland on the river Wye, as a protection from the Iroquois. This fort served as headquarters for the score of missions which they had founded in that district for the benefit of the Hurons. Owing to the persecution of the Iroquois the Jesuits themselves burned this fort in 1649, and migrated with the Huron community to Christian Island, where, with the assistance of the Indians, they built another stone fort which was known as Fort Ste. Marie II. The Huron village which grew up around the military fort was protected with redoubts that served to cover and shield it from attack.

In the autumn of 1649 some 8,000 Hurons and about 50 priests and assistants faced the winter with such scant provisions that before spring arrived most of the Huron people had perished from starvation and disease. They had stored quantities of Indian corn and smoked fish for winter use but the supply was pitifully insufficient. With the arrival of spring only 300 of the Hurons were able to join the Jesuits in their journey to Quebec.

It is the intention of the Canadian National Parks Branch to clear, drain and fence the ruins, and to place a suitable memorial on the site recording the fact that here the Huron nation made its last futile stand against the Iroquois.

"Home Brew" In A Newspaper Office

Someone had sent the editor of a Western weekly paper a few bottles of home brew. While he was showing his appreciation by suitably celebrating, he received for publication a wedding announcement and a notice of an auction sale. The printed result is as follows:

"Wm. Smith and Miss Lucy Anderson were disposed of at public auction at my farm one mile east of a beautiful bouquet of roses on her breast and two white calves, before a background of farm implements too numerous to mention in the presence of about seventy guests including two milch cows, six mules and one bobsled. Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial knot with about 200 feet of hay rope and the bridal party left on one good John Deere gang plow for an extended trip with terms to suit purchasers. They will be at home to their friends with one good baby carriage and few a kitchen utensils after ten months from date of sale to respectable parties and some chickens."

Car Struck Buggy Injuries the Result

Portlaw Correspondence

An unfortunate accident occurred one night last week by which Mrs J Hopps was severely injured. She, with her husband and little boy, were returning home from their brother-in-law's threshing on the third line, and while they were halted on account of a threshing tank being on the road, Mr Nelson Tempest approached them from the rear with his automobile, striking the buggy in which the Hopps family were riding. Mrs Hopps was pitched violently a considerable distance. She is suffering from badly torn ligaments of a foot and other injuries which will lay her up for some time, but she is thankful that the result is not more serious.

The cheering news comes from Fergus hospital that Mr J J Little, whose life was despaired of, from blood poisoning, is now considered to be out of danger and making satisfactory progress towards recovery.

Congratulations to Mr Frank Shiers, who brought home his bride last Wednesday in the person of Miss Grummett of Osprey. A hearty welcome is extended to Mrs Shiers.

Preparations are being made for the Sunday school convention to be held on Thursday at Mount Zion church. A successful meeting is anticipated.

Anniversary services will be conducted at Mt Zion on Sunday, Oct. 8th, and arrangements are being made for the same.

Dundalk Champions?

The first of the final games for the play off in the Centre Grey Baseball League was played in Markdale on Mon. afternoon between the Vandeleur and Dundalk clubs, and resulted in Dundalk going home as winners with a score of 14-9 to their credit, after only six and a half innings of play. Vandeleur began right off in a whirlwind and ran over eight runs in the first four inning—two in the 1st, one in the 2nd, three in the 3rd and two in the 4th—while Dundalk opened up with two, one run the result of Armstrong getting hit by a ball and stealing each bag to third base, finally coming home on a hit. It was in this inning, the fourth, that the Vans made a double play that retired the side before Dundalk could get any more runs. Here is where the sad part comes in for Vandeleur when the whole team practically handed the game to Dundalk on a silver platter when they blew up and allowed Dundalk to slam around nine runs, the record for runs scored in one inning in a game this year. Ater having two men down and two runs scored, the Vans simply couldn't hold the ball or else would throw wild and the nine runs was the consequence. D Graham relieved 'Buck' when things got too hot, but couldn't stop the runaway so "Buck" went back into the box. Vandeleur got an extra run in the 7th when Dave Graham got around to third base on a steal and a wild throw and then walked home on Armstrong's balk. The game was nearly two hours late in starting and was called in the 7th on account of darkness. Wilson of Owen Sound umpired.

Score by innings—

Vandeleur—2 1 3 2 0 0 1— 9
Dundalk —0 1 9 1 9 3 x—14
