A fire was discovered burning merrily in some leaves in a lane near the Methodist church on Friday last by W. Moore. Evidently some careless individual had dropped a match, and the dry weather of last week did the rest.

Mr. Roy Best of the O.D R. captured a fox alive and unhurt on Monday. As he was plowing his dog ran the fox out of the bush and coralled it in a fence corner, when Roy succeeded in capturing it without injury. It is alive and doing well.

Mr. Wesley Smith, who learned the printing trade in this office, and for the past 16 years has been half owner of a Battleford paper, has sold out his interest and has purchased a newspaper at Silver Creek, N Y. Wes was a steady, level-headed boy, and we wish him continued success.

Services in the Methodist church next Sunday will be taken by Rev. Eagle of Holland Centre in the morning and Rev. Wakefield, superannuated, in the evening. Rev. Oke will take the anniversary services at Harkaway afternoon and evening Rev Eagle will preach at Vandeleur in the afternoon.

Miss Mabel Clark has been appointed editor of the Cfinton News-Record. Miss Clark is a daughter of the late Wm. Clark of Flesherton and sister of Mr. Joe Clark of the Toronto Star staff. Miss Clark has been local reporter on the News-Record for some years. She did her first newspaper work on The Advance and we are proud of her.

A Flesherton gentleman while motoring to Toronto caught up to and passed a motor funeral this side of Brampton. He later received a summons to appear in the Brampton police court for a breach of the motor law. The case was dismissed. There is a difference been meeting and passing a funeral. The law says when meeting a funeral a car must stop and wait until it passes, but there is no law against passing an overtaken funeral if you do not go too fast.

CAMERON—LEGARD—In Toronto on Thurs., Sept. 21st, 1922 by the Rev. Dr. Patterson, pastor of Cook,s church, Almeda LeGard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H LeGard of Toronto, formerly of Flesherton, to Allan Cameron, also of Toronto. Flesherton High School went to Markdale on Friday last for a ball game with the Markdale High School and came home with the short end of a 5-3 score.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mathewson and daughter, Freda, accompanied by Miss Vera and Wilfred Lever, visited relatives in Palmerston on Sunday.

J. Patton of town knows how to grow potatoes. He chose at random five potatoes that weighed 8 lbs. 8 oz. One tuber weighed two pounds eight ounces.

Mr. John Boyce, thresher, got a fully grown scare one day last week. He had backed his separator into Ed. Fisher's barn on the Collingwood gravel when smoke was observed issuing from its interior. The fire was easily extinguished but it was a narrow escape. A spark from the engine while travelling on the road had set fire to its "innards" and it was not noticed until the separator was placed in the barn.

Osprey fall fair was well attended on Wednesday of last week, and the show in most departments was on a par with other years. One exception, that of horses, was a matter of general comment, there being no competition in any of the classes. This is hard to understand, too, as Osprey has always been noted for its excellent horses. The day was an ideal fall day and many motors were in evidence. Perhaps the motor has something to do with the scarcity of equine motors.

A Near Disaster

Mr. T. Mercer's barn and buildings, east back line, near Markdale, had an extremely narrow escape from destruction by fire on Wednesday of last week, Mr. Mercer was away from home at Rocklyn fair. On his return he found the entire top of a manure pile outside his stable and surrounding dry stuff burned up. His daughters, who were at home had noticed the fire and had extinguished it with water before it caught in the barn. Without doubt it was a case of spontaneous combustion in the manure pile. Had no person been at home the fine building and live stock therein would probably all have gone up in smoke and the catastrophe would have been charged to incendiarism.

An Inhuman Act

Mr Fred Mathewson of town informs us that some person administered a dose of ground glass to his collie dog last week, with the result that it lingered in great pain for several days and finally died. We did not think Flesherton contained any individual so friendishly inclined, and we are yet loth to believe it· Any person who would thus treat a dumb animal is beyond the pale. If Marshal Saunders is correct in her claim that there is a dog heaven. the perpetrator of such a crime need not be afraid of meeting his victim there.

Memorial Opening

The Markdale mortuary chapel was dedicated on Sunday last in the presence of a large gathering, A procession of soldiers, school children and cadets marched to the cemetery, headed by the band. After the unveiling of the the three tablets by Hon. D. Carmichael, M. P.P., an an adjournment was made to the armouries where Col. McFarlend and Capt. Elliott, and Rev. Richardson gave the scriptural reading. Themortuary chapel is a credit to the sister town and brought into being largely through the efforts of Mr. C. W Rutledge, who worked indefatigably to that end.

Was it a Quibble ? The Public to Judge

Early in September The Advance made a charge that the Department of Game and Fisheries had issued permits to some of its friends to fish in the closed hydro pond at Eugenia. All the Toronto dailies took the matter up and interviewed the Deputy Minister, who denied that snch permits had been issued by his Department. The Globe said that "contradictory explanations had been made at the Parliament buildings yesterday, one being that the Premier had negotiated a permit for the party, and the other that no permit had been granted and that the party of Guelph men were poaching."

Before going into this matter The Advance made sure of its ground and we cannot rest under the imputation of having supplied false information. After quoting the following letters we will leave the public to judge whether our charges are borne out by the facts. Silence is sometimes more eloquent than words ;

Toronto, September 21st, 1922

Dear Sir,—The Department's attention has been drawn to an article appearing in your paper on the 13th inst. headed "Fishing on a permit."

As it is the Department's intention to strictly enforce the provisions of the Order-in-Council setting aside certain properties at Eugenia as a Crown Game and Fish Preserve, I would appreciate having you furnish the names of the parties whom it is alleged have been fishing recently at the Eugenia preserve.

Upon receipt of this information immediate action will be taken.

Yours Truly,
D. McDONALD,
Deputy Minister of Game and Fisheries.

The Editor Flesherton Advance,
Flesherton, Ont.

Our reply :

D. McDonald, Esq.,
Dep. Minister Game and Fisheries :

Dear Sir,—Replying to your favor of Sept. 21st I would say that before giving the information you desire it will be necessary for me to have Mr. Mills' denial that he issued such a permit. When that is forthcoming and I am satisfied that forgery has been committed you may count on my assistance. At present I cannot believe that it was a case of forgery, as the gentleman who held the permit was a paid servant of the Government and would scarcely be one who would indulge in such a dangerous pastime. My informant's word is also good and the facts were given us in great detail. I understand from the Globe that you sent a man to Guelph to make inquiry and the party interrogated denied having been here "on that date." Would you mind telling me who the gentleman was that was interviewed ? You have officers on the ground to look after these things, and as apparently the fishermen made no secret of having the permit, issued by Mr. Mills, surely these officers would know who they were, Awaiting Mr. Mills' statement I am Yours sincerely,
—W. H. THURSTON.

This last letter was written on Sept. 25, and up to the present no reply has been forthcoming. We are therefore justified in assuming that the denials from the Department are something in the nature of a quibble. But how could the head of a department issue such a permit without the Department itself becoming responsible for his act ?

Failed to Pay Fine Jailed for Six Mos.

Constable Cook of Ceylon, assisted by Inspector Beckett and Provincial Officer Blood, arrested William Bennet of the Township of Euphrasia and took him to Owen Sound the first of the week, where he will spend the next six months with hard labor for a breach of the Inland Revenue Act and failure to pay his fine.

Wood—Lever

On Thursday, October 5th., at 2 30 p m. an autumn wedding took place at the parsonage, Flesherton, when Gladys Maude, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. R. Lever, Toronto Line North, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Roy Stanley Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wood, East Back Line. Rev. J. H. Oke was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Raymond Wood of Wodehouse, nephew of the groom, and Miss Gertrude Lever, sister of the bride, assisted the young couple. The bride looked charming, attired in a becoming costume of "new blue" silk daintily trimmed with silver beads. After the ceremony the young couple left on the afternoon train amid showers of confetti, and congratulations, to spend their honeymoon with friends in Toronto. They will reside on the 9th line, Euphrasia, and be at home to their friends after Nov. 1 We wish them a happy journey through life.

A Chesley moonshiner named Louis Neamo was fined $300 for manufacturing illicit booze, or three months in jail. He is now resting from his labors in the county rest house, and will not take part in any Christmas festivities this year.

About three weeks ago Robt Wyville, a young man living near Markdale, fell overboard from a sailing vessel while on his way from Parry Sound to Thornbury and was drowned.

DIED—In Flesherton, on Sunday, October 10th Martha Wright, relict of the late Wm. Wright, in her 61st year.

Mr. John Hudson had a phenoneral growth of wheat recently· On Sept. 14, three and a half weeks after being sown, the wheat averaged twelve inches over the whole field.

Osprey and Priceville fall fairs were held last week. Good crowds were at both shows. The former's gate receipts amounted to $80.

Al. Chislett, now of Cleveland, was held up by footpads one night last week. He made a break for liberty and got away, but not until a couple of pistol balls had come uncomfortably near.

Miss Annie Richardson of this place has won for herself an enviable reputation, while in England, as an elocutionist. She gave a recital recently at Penrith Co. Cumberland, and the two papers speak in glowing terms of her work.

Forest Fires In the North

One of the worst forest fires in the history of the north occurred last week when sixty lives were lost and property to the value of four or five million dollars was destroyed. The effects of the fire was first felt here on Thursday, the light wind brought the smoke from that district and it hung like a pall all over. Robert Bond, his wife, their eight children and his wife's brother sought refuge in a root house at Heaslip and all were suffocated, Mrs Bond was a sister of Mrs John Bellamy of Flesherton.

Relief work was undertaken at once by the Ontario Government and several institutions.

School Grant For Grey

Mr. John Parker, County Treasurer, received a cheque on Monday from the Provincial Government covering the rural public school legislative grant for the year. The cheque is the largest ever received by Grey County for the purpose, amounting to $67,453 03. Last year's grant was only about $46,000, and the year previous about $25,000. The money is distributed to the various school sections, through the township treasurers.

One would not think that summons to police court would be necessary to teach parents not to leave children alone in the home. Yet such a case came before the Oshawa police magistrate recently when parents were charged with leaving their two children, one of them 11 months old, alone in the house until after midnight. They had gone out to a dance. After being severely lectured by the magistrate, the offenders were let go on suspended sentence upon payment of costs and giving recognizance for their future good behavior.
