Gives Picture Of Her Experiences At Ottawa

J. J. MORRISON ALSO SPEAKS

A very interesting meeting was held in the town hall on Friday evening last at which Miss McPhail, M. P., and Mr. J. J. Morrison were the speakers, with Mr. Harry Shaw in the chair. The audience was a large one, occupying all the seating capacity of the hall.

Miss McPhail was first speaker. She described her experience at Ottawa last session and decried our present system of government. It was a government controlled by three interests—organized manufacturers, banking and railways. She was evidently not in favor of a strong government and gave instances where a weak government was foreed to bow to the will of the progressives in the matter of estimates more particularly, especially of the military estimates. She stood for a weak government and strong opposition. Miss McPhail's address lasted for about an hour and was the best we have yet heard her deliver.

J. J. Morrison, secretary of the Farmer's Co operative, spoke for an hour and a quarter. He had just arrived from the fire-stricken district of northern Ontario and outlined conditions up there and the manner in which relief is being organized. He spoke for an hour and a quarter and covered considerable gronnd worked over in former speeches. He compared the farmer with organized city interests, declaring that the latter was organized to restrict trade and keep up prices, while the former was desirous of throwing everything open and keeping prices down. He laughed at the idea of bringing in immigrants to put on the land with a view to added production and consequently lowering the prices of farm products, while artisans and mechanics were not allowed to come in because it would have the effect of lowering wages, and this organized labor would not stand for. There were signs of unrest in every civilized country, where many new parties were in evidence, and he did not think that we could ever return to the old two-party system. It was 10.45 when Mr. Morrison ended his address and both he and the member were listened to with deep interest throughout.

An amusing incident occurred at the beginning. When the chairman called on the audience to sing "O Canada" not one person was found who could start it, and after waiting for some time inmortified silence a compromise was made by singing "The Maple Leaf," led by Mrs. Will Henry of town. The former ode has apparently not yet become familiar here as a national anthem, and few people have memorized it.

Osprey township was well represented at the meeting, several car loads of people coming from the central part of that township

Mrs. Andrew Bentham

Mrs. Andrew Bentham, formerly of Flesherton, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Sheapard, West Toronto, on Thursday of last week after a lengthy illness. She leaves one son and one daughter, Will Bentham and Mrs. Fred Sheppard, both of West Toronto. For many years Mrs. Bentham lived here with her husband and was much esteemed. One son, Edward, died a few years ago of the flu. Interment took place on Saturday in the family burial plot at Toronto. Her hurband predeceased her about three years ago. Mrs. Bentham was a daughter of the late Patrick Quigg.

Those who attended the funeral from here were: Mrs. Wilcock, W. P. Crossley and Thos. Bentham.

Mrs. John Bellamy

Mrs. John Bellamy, a resident of this village for over fifty years, passed away at her home here Sunday morning after a very brief illness. Mrs. Bellamy had been visiting her children at Lindsay and Toronto and returned home only a week previous to her death. She was in her usual health at that time and was out of the house Saturday evening. At night she had her bed brought downstairs and complained of a slight headache and feeling hot, and during the night got worse and passed away about 5 a.m. The doctor pronounced it to be pneumonia.

Mrs. Bellamy was born in Mariposa township, her maiden name being Matilda Thompson. She was 77 years of age and leaves a family of four sons and three daughters—George in Winnipeg, Carl in Lindsay, Fred in Collingwood, Percy, address unknown ; Mrs. Charles Phillips and Mrs. Harpell, Toronto ; and Mrs. Tremp, Hanover. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs Brooks, Lindsay, and Mrs. McArthur out West. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. Her aged partner and family have the sympathy of the community.

Five children were able to come home for the funeral, also three grandchildren, Geo Patton of Owen Sound, Delbert Patton of Toronto and Mrs. M. Wilson of Durham.

Arrested For Stealing

Two young men of Brampton, Gamble and Rellinson by name 23 and 18 years respectively, were arrested here on Thursday of last week on a charge of robbery, the crime being committed at Brampton. A store had been entered and some chocolates, club bag and a gold watch stolen. The accused were traced and found working on farms in this locality, Rollinson with W. J. Chard and Gamble with Chas. Hanley. The young men claim they are not guilty, as they were at Primrose that night. The chief of police of Brampton came up on Friday and took the prisoners back with him, but no word has been received on the outcome of the case.
