BORN—In Flesherton on Wed., Oct. 25th, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, a son.

Mr John Bellamy left on Friday to spend the winter with his son, Carlton, at Lindsay.

Geo. McGuire of Shelburne was the recipient of several pickles of shot when his hunting companion fired at a rabbit.

Alf Down and Wes Armstrong motored to Windsor, leaving Saturday evening, and are expected back today.

For Bird's Mackinaws stocking legs and yarn, go to H. Alexander's, merchant tailor, Feversham.

While cranking a car on Sunday Mr. W. Miller experienced a kick of the crank that disabled his arm. It is thought a small bone was broken.

Frank Irwin and wife and the latter's niece, Miss Vera Mountain, Mr. Wm. Irwin and daughter. Mrs. Kearney, of Bolton, called on friends here Sunday.

Partridge shooting season opens on Monday of next week. Still, that don't make much difference to the shooters in this neck of the woods.

The ladies of the Methodist church packed three bales of goods on Friday last destined for the fire sufferers up north.

Eugenia Farmers Club meeting to be held this Sat. evening November 4th, 1932, all members requested to attend, A. Cameron, Pres.

The Advance man while strolling one day last summer discovered a bee tree—a hemlock stub within the village limits. This was cut on Saturday last and fifty pounds of sweets secured.

Owing to circumstances, including the Thanksgiving holiday, it is probable that The Advance will be late next week. Then the following week there will be no issue of the paper, that week being alloted to our annual holiday.

Mr. Andrew Pallister, who recently purchased the Maxwell hotel, is putting in flour and feed in connection with his hotel business. He will give first class accommodation to the traveling public as well.

Mrs H Down accompanied her husband as far as Powassan on his hunting trip. Mrs Down is a good sport but she did not carry a gun and Powassan was as near to the scene of slaughter as she cared to go.

From the Sintaluta Times we learn of the death of Miss Anna J Anderson at Sintaluta, Sask. Thirty years ago Miss Anderson resided in Flesherton with her family. Since 1903 she had been assisting her brother in his store at Sintaluta.

Mrs. W. P. Crossley, who left here a couple of weeks ago to visit with her aged mother at Crystal Springs, Sask., and other relatives in the West, received a shock on arrival at Winnipeg where she learned that her mother had died the day before she left Flesherton. The old lady was 92 years of age. She, with her husband, Isaac Spicer, at one time lived in Euphrasia township, moving from there to the Manitoulin Island and latter to Saskatchewan.

A very delightful little party was held on Monday afternoon last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S E. deCudmore, the occasion being Miss Helen Jeanne's third birthday. The rooms were prettily decorateb with pink and yellow chrysanthemum and Hallowe'en papetierres. About eighteen of Helen's little boy and girl friends attended and provided music for the occasion, and incidentally for their mothers, who helped to make the party very successful.

Advertise in The Advance. It is to your interest.

An overflow of advertising has made it necessary for us to print ten pages this week.

The Presbyterian Guild will hold their Hallowe'en social in the church tonight, (Wednesday,) Everybody is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore and daughter, of Meaford, accompanied by a friend visited with Mrs. Julian on Sunday.

Rev. Jones, a student, took the services on the Baptist circuit here on Sunday.

Chas. Flynn of Toronto spent a few days last week with relatives on the Meaford Road.

Jack Karstedt, who is attending the Owen Sound Collegiate, spent the week end at his home here.

Drilling operations are still in progress at the high school in the attempt to secure the very best of water for school purposes.

Mrs. H. M. Hyland and three children of Toronto are visiting at the former's home here.

A Hallowe'en social was given by the Y. P. S. in the Methodist church on Monday evening. There were scores of masqueraders and together with games and eats made the evening an enjoyable one.

"Dr. Burt, specialist in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, will be at the Munshaw House, Flesherton, Wed. Nov. 8 from 9 to 12 a.m. Eyes tested and glasses supplied."

The Deer Hunters Leaving For North

The deer hunting season opens on Monday of next week and the hunting parties leave for the north this week. The Rock Mills party is composed of J. Dargavel, Wm. Phillips, Isaac Smith, Fred Mathewson, Les Chard, W. Chard, D. Williams, Robert McMullen, all of this district; Wilfred Phillips and Jas. Haverson of Palmerston. This party will hunt on their old ground at Deer Lake. The Flesherton party will not be quite as large as usual this year, several of the old members dropping out. From the village only four of the High Falls Club will venture forth this year—Geo. Mitchell, B. Welton, W. H. Thurston and J. Hales. Others of this party are P. Munshaw, Eugenia; John McKee and S. Pedlar, 4th line; T. Lockhart, Dundalk; Joe Hudson, Brooklyn, and Beth McWilliams, Toronto. Their old destination, High Falls, looks good to them again this year. Both of these parties will leave on Friday of this week although representatives have gone on ahead to prepare camp. Harry Down of town will join the Stuart hunt club which hunts in the vicinity of Algonquin Park, and Rev. Mr. Oke will join a party which hunts just south of the French river on the C.N.R.

Knocked Unconscious

Mr. Pinder, baker, had a narrow escape from serious bodily injury on Thursday of last week. While stepping over a belt connected with a moulding machine the belt caught in his clothing and threw him forcibly against the machine, and on to the cement floor. He was senseless for a short time and on coming to discovered that his arm had been severely burned by the belt and there were a few minor injuries, but no bones were broken, and there was no hiatus in the supply of bread for his customers. In other wards he remained on the job but suffered considerably from the effects of his "catapulsion."

Coal Prices

Durham is selling the best chestnut at $15 per ton, while Hanover dealers are taking orders at $15.50 for two cars of anthracite that are now on the way. A Hanover dealer claims he is laying anthracite down in that town at $12.37 which will leave him a fair profit at $15.50. Southampton is getting coal at $16, and Kincardine and Port Elgin at $16 50, the dealer in the latter town advising his patrons to buy sparingly as he anticipates anthracite will be nearer the $14 figure by New Years. Listowel is the low water mark at $14 40 for the best stove and nut coal.—Bruce Herald and Times.

Found Not Guilty

The two young men, Gamble and Rolleson, mentioned in last week's issue of The Advance, who were arrested on a charge of shop breaking, returned on Wednesday of last week to their former employers, W. J. Chard and C. Hanley, with the following few lines in their possession:

Rex vs. Gamble and Rolleson.

This is to certify that the above named Herbert Gamble and Wm. Rolleson, were this day charged with shop breaking at the town of Brampton in the Co. of Peel, and were honorably discharged or the said charge.

Dated October 24th, 1922.

—R.Crawford, Police Magistrate.

The chief evidence was given by Mr. McAnna of Primrose, near Shelburne, with whom the two boys stayed from seven o'clock the evening of the robbery until 7.30 the next morning.
