About Advertising

Rev, Father Brennan of London speaking at a banquet at the Tecumseh House said there is no question that advertising properly conducted results in increased sales. Who pays the cost of advertising, the manufacturer or consumer? We ask. It stands to reason that successful advertising promotes sales, which causes an increase in the volume of production. Then, because production is higher, the cost is reduced and the transportation cost is reduced as well as the selling cost. Therefore, ultimately the consumer gets his article cheaper, and the advertising pays for itself. "The three commonest forms of advertising today are the newspaper, magazine and outdoor advertising. Once you brand a line of goods and send it out to the public it is the object of these three forms of advertising to embed that brand in the public eye and make it stand for something.

The late Mr. Macaulay was in his eighty-seventh year and it was nearly eighty years ago that as a boy he came to Canada from Scotland, his birthplace, to settle with his parents near Dundalk. His parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Norman Macaulay, passed away a number of years ago.

They are John, Daniel and Angus of Owen Sound, John of Osprey, Duncan of Toronto, Mrs James McIntyre of Melancthon, Mrs Perry Gerrard of Toronto, Mrs John Jackson of Toronto, Mrs Walter Harrison of Toronto, and Miss Mary McAulay. There art also two sisters surviving, Mrs Rachel Trudgeon of Dundalk and Mrs Katharine Bonar of Bolton.

Durham Band

The Durham Furniture Company will take over the Citizens' Band, providing, of course, that this is satisfactory to the citizens and to the members of the Band. This was the decision arrived at this week, when the company stated that they would grant the sum of $500.00 annually for a leader, providing the Town Council would start their usual grant to the Band. It is intended that the Band shall be run by a committee of citizens and a committee from the Furniture Company. In donating the annual grant of $500.00, the company will insist that the Band be put on a strictly business basis and run as an institution of this kind should be run.—Chronicle

Hugh Armstrong, of Rosemont, had his barn destroyed by fire, together with part of the season's crop, implements five horses and three thoroughbred bulls. The cause of the fire is unknown. Mr. Hugh Morrison left the barn about 5 o'clock, at which time there was no sign of fire. The fire was first noticed about 6 30 o'tlock, but had too good a start for anything to be done to save the building.

Newell—Betts

November ushered in a very pretty wedding on Wed 29th, when the sun shone forth its golden rays which is a good omen for weddings. At 4 o'clock, the marriage was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Oke, Methodist Minister, Flesherton, of Miss Annie Rosella Betts, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos R. Betts of Sunny Brook Farm, Flesherton, to Mr. Wm. J. Newell formerly of Jarrow, Alta, and second eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Newell, Durham. To the strains of the wedding chorus which was rendered by the bride's sister, Miss Edith Betts, the bridal party entered the parlor which was prettily decorated in pink and white streamers, and took their places beneath an evergreen arch from which suspended a large white bell, with back ground of Autumn flowers. The stately bride looked nice in her gown of flesh colored satin charmeuse with overdress of silk radium lace, with rosebud trimming, and a pretty embroidered tulle veil, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations and maiden hair fern. Miss Mabel Betts, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing pink organdie. After the ceremeny and good wishes, the company numbering 35 entered the dining-room, which wore a festive air for the occasion done in pink and white streamers and flowers. A beautiful three story cake centered the table. When all had partaken of the sumptuous wedding dinner, Rev Mr. Oke proposed a toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom. Mrs. J. Hargrave and Mrs Edgar Betts presided over the tables. During the signing of the register Mrs. Walter Akitt sang very sweetly.

The bride's mother wore reindeer colored satin. Mrs C. Newell, sister of the bride, received the guests wearing ivory duchess satin and silk crepe-de-chine, and Miss Edith a sand colored duchess satin and georgette beaded in amber.

Those present from a distance were: Mrs. Geo Newell, the groom's mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Newell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whitmore and son, Messrs Geo. and Lewis and Margaret Newell, all of Durham. The bride received many beautiful gifts showing the high esteme in which she is held.

The young people of the community gathered at the bride's home on Thursday evening and gave a large kitchen shower. They will be at home to their many friends after Dec. 15th, residing at the Little Mill which the groom recently purchased from Mr. P. Loucks, Flesherton,

The bride's going away dress was of seal brown chiffon velvet beaded in amber shade with hat of brown plush and gold cloth.

A host of friends join together in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Newell a happy and prosperous voyage through life.
