BURDEN BEARERS A HEAVENLY HELP.

In humble job in Goshen land,
A Hebrew mother plies
Her busy fingers while she stills
Its (our her infant's cries.

Of raising from the river's brink
The wave-tossed wondrous barque,
As much divine and planned of God
As Noah's earlier Ark.

Within, earth's highest statesman lies,
A smiling, winsome boy;
God's royal canopy of love
Protects from all annoy.

Another pair of willing hands
But works God's bidding, too,
As Pharoh's daughter stoops to lift
The boy to nearer view.

He must be saved from Egypt's wrath
And taught in Egypt's lore;
He must be trained in ways of men,
And yet his God adore.

So Miriam's eager waiting hands
Are messengers of grace
To guide the pious mother-nurse
To heaven's appointed place.

Three hands, that later swept the shores
And woke triumphant praise,
Were instruments attuned to move
In high or lowly ways.

Lord, take our hands and make them meet
To do thy holy will.
Their weakness linked with power divine
Thy purpose can fulfil.

KATE ALLEYN.

It was Mr. Emerson who said "the first wealth is health," and it was a wiser than the modern philosopher who said that" the blood is the life." The system, like the clock, runs down. It needs winding up. The blood gets poor and scores of diseases result. It needs a tonic to enrich it.

A certain wise doctor, after years of patient study, discovered a medicine which purified the blood, gave tone to the system, and made men—tired, nervous, brain-wasting men—feel like new. He called it the "Golden Medical Discovery." It has been sold for years, sold by the million of bottles, and people found such satisfaction in it that Dr. Pierce, who discovered it, now feels warranted in selling it under a positive guarantee of it doing good in all cases.

Perhaps it is the medicine for you. You've wouldn't be the first case of scrofula or salt rheum, skin disease, or liver disease, it has cured when nothing else would. The trial's worth making, and costs nothing. Money refunded if it don't do you good.

A FEMALE LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER.

Ida Hewitt is a young woman who runs a locomotive on the Cairo short-line in West Virginia, which is a narrow-gauge connection of the Baltimore and Ohio. She is 24 years old, and is said to be very prepossessing in appearance. Miss Hewitt is the daughter of one of the chief owners of the Cairo shortline. The machine-shop of the road stands near Mr. Hewitt's house and Ida when a child played around the shops and formed about too much a worm of locomotives. It became a passion with her to ride on them. She even learned the use of the tools that are used on a locomotive. A few months ago the single engineer of the road fell ill and Ida volunteered to do his work at the lever. The man died and Miss Hewitt, having run the engine up and down the line to everybody's satisfaction, was made the regular engineer. She is blonde, and wears a cap over her hair, a suit of blue cotton goods, heavy shoes and gloves. Her locomotive is much neater than when a man was the engineer and she has been behind time only once. Mrs. W. Newton Lynch, West Virginia's representative on the Board of Lady Managers at the World's Fair, discovered this fair phenomenon. Miss Hewitt will be invited to take a train-loaded with West Virginia's mine and forest products to Chicago.

"August Flower"

Dyspepsia. There is a gentleman at Malden-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., named Captain A. G. Parcis, who has written us a letter in which it is evident that he has made up his mind concerning some things, and this is what he says:

"I have used your preparation called August Flower in my family for seven or eight years. It is constantly in my house, and we consider it the best remedy for Indigestion, and Constipation we have ever used or known. My wife is troubled with Dyspepsia, and at times suffers very much after eating. The August Flower, however, relieves the difficulty. My wife frequently says to me when I am going to town, 'We are out of August Flower, and I think you had better get another bottle.' I am also troubled with Indigestion, and whenever I am, I take one or two teaspoonfuls before eating, for a day or two, and all trouble is removed."

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

MRS. WAYNE.

A happy New Year, brothers and sisters! We do not need to be in church, or on our knees when the New Year comes, though that is one of the dear old customs, but suppose we stop just where we are, and say it to everybody within reach, giving them a send off in our hearts that shall project into their future like the mind cure with healing power. And if I have an enemy in the world, or there is one whom I have harmed, I hope he will wish me as hearty a Happy New Year as I do him or her. And my friends, who read these words, I shall feel your wish, and it will thrill me with a new hope and prove better than charms or incantations or lucky horseshoes, to carry me safely through the mystic portal from the threshold of which I stretch out loving hands, wishing you all a Happy New Year,

"The year that for us awaits
Beyond to-morrow's mystic gates."
