A. E. Bellamy was in Toronto last week.

Mrs. (Dr.) Coleridge of Windsor is visiting her mother, Mrs. D. McTavish.

Jack Karstedt is home from Owen Sound recuperating.

Mr. Jack Latimer of Toronto spent the week end with his wife here.

Mr. Geo. Mitchell attended a meeting of the Ontario Game and Fisheries Association held in Toronto last week.

The sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. (Dr) Turnbull on Friday evening last.

Sickness has played havoc with our schools here this week. Both public and high schools have been closed this week.

A wedding of two popular Flesherton young people is taking place in Toronto today.

Flesherton L.O.L. will give a box social in the Town Hall Thursday evening of this week. A good program is assured. See bills. Admission 25c.

Mrs. Geo. Myers, who has been an invald for a long time, is not improving in health. Another operation was performed on her knee on Sunday last.

Owing to the wild storms last week the carnival, which was advertised for Thursday evening of last week, had to be postponed indefinitely.

On Monday a wild duck alighted in Mr. Alf. Harrison's barnyard south of town. An attempt was made to capture the bird, but this it resisted and flew off, probably in search of open water.

Mr. H. Down has moved out, and Mr. W. Stewart has taken possession of the residence next to his grocery. The former has been unable to secure a house and is living temporarily with his son, Robert.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland are both laid up with the prevailing epidemic. Others who have been laid aside for a few days are around again. Don't get anxious, wait for your turn. And don't boast that you are immune.

Rev. Oke was unable to take his services in the Methodist church on Sunday, owing to the prevailing epidemic. The morning service was taken by Mr. Thos. Bentham and the evening service was withdrawn.

According to Mr. D. McKillop, who held the stop watch, Geo. Brackenbury and he came from Markdale one evening recently with the autosnowbile in exactly thirteen minutes. Six miles over the snow in thirteen minutes is what you might call a fair gait.

The ladies of Vandeleur had purposed putting on a sale of cooking in Clayton's hall Saturday of this week, but owing to the great amount of sickness have been unable to proceed with it, and it is therefore postponed indefinitely.

An eiderdown comforter was last week given by the people of Flesherton to Mr. and Mrs. John Latimer (nee Josie Richardson), recently married, as a token of esteem and good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Latimer wish to thank their many friends for the beautiful and useful gift.

The Maxwell U.F.Y.P.O. postponed their last meeting on account of sickness so the next one will be held in the Methodist Hall on Friday, Feb. 28, 1923, at 8 p.m. The program is to consist of a mock trial breach of promise case between Mary Pickford and Charlie Chaplin. All are welcome.

The junior hockey team was in Markdale on Tuesday evening and suffice to say were trimmed by a considerable margin. Owing to the illness of some of the members the team was not at full strength, while the Markdale was considerably strengthened by the addition of two new players.

Suicide At Elmwood

The village was shocked early on Monday morning when it was learned that Mr. Wm. Evers had committed suicide by cutting his throat and severing the wind pipe.

The first person in the scene was Thos. Henderson, who was coming from the railway station when attracted by a ten-year-old girl screaming on the street, and when told what had happened he went into the kitchen where he found Evers on his hands and knees, bleeding profusely, but still living. This was about 7.20 a.m. Evers did not speak but looked at him and reached out his hand as though wanting help. Dr. Stevens was there in a short time, but said there was no hope, and he died about 8 o'clock. Mr. Henderson telephoned at once to Hanover and Durham for the coroner, and at 4 p.m. a message came advising Dr. Stevens to proceed with usual proceedings.

At time of writing this, Mrs. Evers is very low with pneumonia, as is one child. Mr. Evers was also sick all last week. What caused the man to commit the rash act is not known, but it is surmised he was worrying. He was about 40 years of age.

Later—Mrs. Evers passed away on Monday evening at 9.30. This is a very sad affair indeed. There are 6 children, the oldest 10 years of age.

Took Carbolic Acid

The coroner's jury which investigated the death of Dr. J. W. Mahan at Vancouver brought in a verdict that death was due to carbolic acid administered by Dr. Mahan himself while in a dazed condition, due to chronic affliction. The evidence of the doctor who performed the autopsy was that death was due to carbolic acid, but that the organs of the dead man showed he had been suffering very severely from diabetes and uraemic poisoning.

Arrested as Insane

Clark Mason, a young man about 20 years of age, who came with his parents from Spry about a year ago and settled in Keppel, was arrested and taken to the Owen Sound jail for safe keeping.

The young man has shown signs of insanity, it would seem, since October, but last Sunday evening there was enough to make the whole district sit up and shudder. Armed with a shotgun, and with a box of shells, he took possession of the 10th con. near Wolseley, fired off the gun and gave evidence that he was mentally unbalanced. The neighbors were somewhat apprehensive. The Presbyterian minister and the Wolseley school teacher were both advised not to travel on the road and they were held up for a time. In due time the young man went home and he had not been there long until Prov. Constable Blood and officers from Owen Sound appeared on the scene, arrested him and took him to Owen Sound—Wiarton Echo.

Fred Sproule Dead

A telegram was received here Monday morning which conveyed the sad news that Fred Sproule had died at Winnipeg on Saturday, but gave no particulars as to the cause of his death. Fred was born and brought up in Flesherton, receiving his early education here. Years ago he went to Winnipeg, where he studied law and for some years has been practicing there. He married a Miss Scott of Winnipeg who survives, but there are no children. When the war broke out Fred went overseas, and while not wounded he accidentally broke his ankle a day or so before starting for home. For some time he has been troubled with rheumatism and when down here a few weeks ago, at the time of his father's death, he said he intended to undergo an operation for the removal of his tonsils, for which he blamed his ailing condition. Besides his widow he leaves one sister, Mrs. Geo. Higginbotham of Winnipeg. Many friends here were shocked to hear of his death and extend their sympathy in the sorrowing wife and sister.

Mrs. Jas. Reid

Matilda Jane, beloved wife of James Reid of Collingwood, died in Toronto on Thursday, February 8th, from heart failure. Deceased lady was 50 years of age and was of a kind and loving disposition, which made many warm friends for her through life. In religion Mrs. Reid was a Baptist and was a member of Collingwood Baptist church.

Mrs. Reid spent her girlhood at Eugenia, her maiden name being Matilda Jane Armstrong. Besides a sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss, two daughters and one son, namely: Harriet (Mrs. Geo. Tynegate) of Collingwood; Margaret (Mrs. Frank Broderick) of Toronto and Wm. at Singhampton. Four sisters and one brother survive her, namely; Mrs. Elijah Paul, Mrs. Wm. Wilson, Mrs. Wm. Walker, Eugenia; Mrs. Geo. McWatters, Elmvale, and Jas Armstrong of Kimberley. One sister, Mrs. George Gordon, and one brother, John Armstrong, predeceased her some years ago. The funeral took place on Monday, Feb. 12 h, from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Tynegate, to Collingwood Baptist cemetery. The floral offerings were a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Paul and family, and a wreath from the nephews and nieces attending the funeral—Mrs. Bert French of Waverley, Dan Rountree, Elmvale; and W. A. Gordon and W. Walker, Eugenia.

Musical Eckardts coming

The Musical Eckards, bell ringers and variety entertainers, are billed to appear at the Town Hall on Friday evening, Feb. 23rd, with T. Eckardt, daddy of the organization, personally in charge of the company. Since their last visit to Flesherton, two years ago, the Eckards engaged some new performers, including Miss Elpha De Buhl, juvenile comedienne, late of the Winnipeg Kiddies Co., who will be seen with the company here in an entire change of program.

Bad Storm Last Week

The storms of last week were the worst we have seen here for many years, and as a consequence five trains were cancelled on this line of railway. No mails were received from Toronto from Wednesday until Friday noon. The Feversham stage missed three days and Kimberley one, the latter coming via the valley road until Saturday when the route through Eugenia was resumed.

Mrs. Wm. Beatty

Mrs. Wm. Beatty died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Moore, at Sturgeon Falls, on Saturday, and the remains were brought to Flesherton by the noon train on Tuesday, from whence they were taken to the Meaford Road cemetery for interment. The deceased lady came from Ireland with her parents when a young woman and married Wm. Beatty. They lived in Colorado until the latter's death when she with two children came to Artemesia, where she resided on Stone's Line with a sister, Mrs. Geo. Patterson. One daughter, Lizzie, is married and living in Colorado. The other daughter, Mamie (Mrs. J. B. Moore) lives at Sturgeon Falls. One son died here some years ago. Mrs. Beatty's maiden name was Clark, and she is the last member of her family.
