Baking Com—Cake, Mesdames Moore, Armstrong and T. Eisher; Sandwich, Mesdames M. Wilson, Thurston and Geo. McTavish. All cordially invited.

Some time ago two men were arrested in New York and charged with the big bank robbery at Mt. Forest. One of these men got off on an alibi and the U. S. federal authorities have now stepped in and refused to allow the extradition of the second man, although there is little doubt of his guilt. Canadian justice appears to have made a name for itself abroad.

Boys' Conference

Mr. Taylor Statten, who will speak at the Boys' Conference in Orangeville on March 2, 3 and 4, is one of the most outstanding Boys' Work specialists on the North America continent. He is the author of the Canadian Standard Efficiency Programme and more than any other person deserves credit for the production of Canada's National Fourfold Programme for boys. He is the Secretary of the National Boys' Work Board, and as such is giving leadership through the Provincial Boards to Church Work for boys throughout the length and breadth of Canada. Mr. Statten has few equals as a speaker and is much sought after for Boys' Work Conferences and Rotary Club gatherings of an educational nature. The Orangeville Conference is fortunate in securing a man of his attainments and wide reputation.

Down—Stewart

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ross, Keele street, Toronto, on Wednesday, Feb 21, when Mr. Alfred Down, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Down, Flesherton, was united in marriage to Miss Amanda Stewart, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, also of Flesherton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. G. Fowler of Flesherton. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel Swift of Toronto, and the groom by Mr. Jim Stewart of Flesherton. The wedding march was played by Miss Ina Smith of Markdale. The young couple, who are very highly esteemed, have taken up their residence here. A large circle of friends wish them long life, happiness and prosperity.

Golden Anniversary

The Advance received a neat card on Monday from Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Moore of Monntain View, California, who will celebrate their golden wedding on March 4th next. Mr. Moore and family left Flesherton nearly thirty years ago. He was a carpenter and undertaker here previous to his removal to California. This kind remembrance brought back old memories of pleasant business relations in the long past. We tender our congratulations to this estimable couple. May they live to celebrate many more anniversaries.

Presented With Book

On the occasion of his departure for Ottawa, where he is covering the sessions of Parliament at Ottawa for the Toronto Globe, Hector B. McKinnon, formerly of Priceville, was presented by members of the staff with a handsome edition of the Life and Letters of Sir Wilfred Laurier. Mr. McKinnon had been city editor of the Globe for a year, and the gift was a token of appreciation on the part of the reporters and deskmen.

Horse Speeded Away

A horse belonging to Mr. George Clark of the east back line decided Tuesday evening that it was time for him to get away from town and he went—minus a driver. He evidently had a good supply of gas in his tank and he opened the valve to its fullest extent, as he whisked out of town at a rate of forty miles an hour. It took him about two minutes to get as far as the little mill where he was caught. The cutter travelled so fast that it was badly smashed. Cutters are not built to withstand such an air pressure.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. deCudmore on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. P. Hart, who is leaving this week for his home at Prescott.

Gave Good Concert

It is always with delight that a Flesherton audience welcomes the Musical Eckhardts Co. of fine Swiss Bell Ringers to town and the show put on Friday evening in the town hall proved to be one of the most skillful held here yet. The numbers on the bells were very sweet and a revelation to many of those present. One of the young men of the company is a real artist with tricks on the violin, playing it in six different positions and rendering good music. Other numbers were a trombone solo, saxophone solo, trio of two saxophone and cornet, cornet solo and a duet on the xylophone. There was a fairlp good crowd present and all enjoyed the concert immensely. The Eckardt Company is one of the oldest troops travelling in Ontario and they made their first appearance in Flesherton about 25 years ago, led by T. Eckardt, who took active part here on Friday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Irwin

At her home on sligo Road on Thursday last after an illness of four years, patiently borne, the death took place of Mrs. J. W. Irwin. Deceased was held in high esteem by those who knew her. She was born in the United States. Her former husband was Mr. Middaugh, son of the founder and proprietor of the Middaugh House in Durham, of which, after her husband's death she was proprietress. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin came to Mount Forest about fourteen years ago and have lived a retired life. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. MacRae. Among those present from a distance were relatives of Mr. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Bredin, a sister, Toronto, a brother, Mr. Geo. Irwin and Mrs. Irwin, Shelburne; a nephew, Mr. Geo. Irwin, Proton, and a niece, Miss Hyman, graduate nurse, of Toronto, who had been with her aunt for the past couple of months. The remains were conveyed temporarily to the vault in the Mount Forest Cemetery. Later they will be intered in a cemetery near Flesherton, where her first husband is buried.—Confederate

Bell Co. After Delinquents

The Bell Telephone Co. are going after delinquent subscribers on this exchange in a radical manner. Last week some 23 services were suspended for nonpayment. A short time limit was given, when the 'phones will be removed if arrearages are not paid.

IN MEMORIAM

Osborne—In loving memory of my dear sister Reta, who passed away Feb. 27th, 1919.

The month of Feb. again is here
For me the saddest of all the year,
A day of remembrance, so sad to recall
But down in my heart she was loved by all.

How slender is life's silver cord
How soon tis broken here,
Each moment brings a parting word
And many a falling tear.

'Tis swee to know, we'll meet againt
Where sickness is unknown,
And that, the one I loved so dear
Has only gone before.

Major F.R. Sproule, War Veteran, Dies

From the Winnipeg Free Press of Feb. 19.

Major Frederick R. Sproule, 43 years old, of 330 Wayerley street, River Heights, died suddenly in Winnipeg General hospital Sunday night, his death coming as a shock to his many friends. He was a member of the legal firm of McCallum, Sproule and Company, and had been carrying on his office work until about a week ago when he was taken to the hospital.

Born at Flesherton, Ontario, 1880, the son of the late R. J. Sproule, and nephew of the late Hon. Dr. T. S. Sproule, former Speaker of the Dominion house, he was educated at Owen Sound and Toronto university, coming west in 1903. He was called to the bar in 1906 and followed the profession until his death. Major Sproule was on active service overseas with the Canadian Army Service corpse from December, 1915, until the close of the war and on account of injuries received during the war returned only at the end of 1919. He was a member of Northern Light Masonic lodge, the Scotch rite, also of the Winnipeg Golf club and the United Service club. He is survived by his widow and sister, Mrs. George Higginbothom, of Winnipeg.

The funeral will be held at 2.30 p.m. Tuesday from the Thomson funeral home, Broadway, to Elmwood cemetery.

Presbyterian Church Notes

"Vanity it is to wish to live long and to be careless to live well"—Thomas a'Kempis.

On account of so much sickness in the community there will be no prayer meeting this week.

The Young People's Guild will be held next week on Monday night instead of Tuesday. A debate is the chief feature of the program—Resolved, That riches are the cause of more evil in the world than poverty.

The second issue of the Chalmers' Church News will also be read at this meeting.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered on Sunday, March 11th. Anyone wishing to unite with us at this time, either by profession of faith or by certificate, will be cordially received.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles Stewart next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

"Marketing of Farmers' Produce."

A lecture on the above subject will be given in Watson's Hall, Priceville, Friday evening, March 2nd, by Prof. W. T. Chapman, of Toronto University, under the auspices of the Young Men's Club. Admission 25 cents.
