Banking by Mail

MANY and varied are the types of men who conduct their banking with The Standard through the post. Busy men who live far away from any bank find that our plan of banking by mail saves them making special trips to town, and is satisfactory in every way and quite simple. We pay interest at current rates on such accounts.

Write or call for full particulars.

Rev. Fowler attended Presbytery in Orangeville last week.

Mr. H. LeGard of Toronto visited his daughter, Mr. Ed. Best, during the past week.

Mr. Austin Shackleford has been laid up for the past two weeks but was out on Sunday for the first.

Miss Rose Mallart of England is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Pinder, and will remain indefinitely.

A snowplough off the track near Chatsworth caused the morning train from Owen Sound to be three hours late on Monday.

Miss Lottie Stuart of Burks Falls, a former popular student of Flesherton high school, called on friends here this week and renewed old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Boyd and family were visitors in town last week prior to starting for their new home in North Battleford, Sask.

Now that the hockey season is practically over the married and single men should lock horns. Married men; trot out your crew!

Mr. George Chapman has sold his farm on the east back line to Mr Fred Russell and is holding an auction sale on Tuesday of next week, March 20th. See large bills.

The Young People's Society of the Methodist church held a St. Patrick's social Monday evening when a delightful time was spent playing games. A regular Irish tea was served at the close.

Mr. D. Hincks informs The Advance that a deer passed his house on Friday last which was being chased by dogs. Dogs have been chasing a number of deer in this vicinity during the past winter.

Mr. Edgar Sprott gave a report of the boys conference held at Orangeville recently, at the Methodist service on Sunday evening. His report was listened to with keen interest. We believe Edgar would make a good newspaper reporter.

The Advance has pleasure in congratulating Dr. E. F. Armstrong on his election by acclamation to the Mayor's chair at Cobalt, as noted in a despatch copied elsewhere. The Dr. has made good in every way in the northern mining town.

The weather has been stormy the past week, but still the air has a smell of spring. Old Sol is beginning to get a strangling hold. He understands jujitsu in the spring but seems to forget it in the fall.

A report was circulated Tuesday morning to the effect that our genial auctioneer, Mr. D. McPhail, had passed to the Great Beyond, but we are glad to know it was only a rumour. Although Mr. McPhail has been ill he is steadily improving.

Mr. John Johnston of Dundalk died of cancer in the head at his home there on Saturday last. The deceased gentleman was a brother-in-law of Mr. Wm. Henderson of Flesherton. He leaves a widow but no family. Mr. Johnston was 71 years of age. Interment on Tuesday in Mount Zion cemetery.

Miss Aleda Mitchell returned last week after spending the past ten weeks with her sister, Mrs. G. Goldsborough, of Iroquois Falls. She was accompanied home by her sister for an extended visit at the parental home, Mrs. Goldsborough sustained an injury a short time ago while skiing and has been suffering with torn ligaments in one limb.

The Carnival

The postponed carnival held in the rink here Friday evening last was not as well attended as it deserved, but this is generally the case with postponed events. The second event is never as satisfactory as the first. In this case there was a good lot of maskers and as a scenic event it may be classed as quite a success. The judges were Messrs. Batty and Stevenson, managers of the Standard and Montreal banks. Following is a list of prize winners:

Historical or National Costume—Lady, Mabel Gilchrist, Helen Welton; gent, W. A. Hawken, W. Harrison; boy, Emory Fisher, Harold Best.

Fancy Costume—Lady, Miss Holmes, Mrs. Hawken; gent, W. Miller, H. Betts; girl or boy, Marie Patton.

Comic Costume—Fat couple, Mrs. Munshaw and Mr. Miller, Mrs. deCudmore and W. A. Hawken; Clown, Wes Armstrong, Wm Miller; U.F.O., Harry Down, Dave Colgan; hobo, Bert Sparks, M. McDonald; negro, Gertie Smith, Gordon McLean.

Races—Gent, Herb Betts, Ray Genoe; lady's, Mrs. Blakeley, Mabel Gilchrist; boy's, Jack Nuhn, Ken Mckee; girl's, Marie Patton, Edna McCallum.

Best Dressed Couple—Mr. and Mrs. Hawken.

Rabbits Are Numerous

It is only a few years ago since the first cotton tail rabbit imigrated to this distrsct. But the word he sent back home was that this was a goodly land, because today the country is infested with the little grey wretches to such an extent that they are becoming a serious menace, and if it keeps on there will have to be a wholesale extermination in some way. The animals have even invaded villages and any morning their tracks may be seen around back yards, where they have been skirmishing during the night. Flesherton seems to be overrun with them, and we hate to think what is likely to become of our gardens during the coming summer, as they are extremely fond of tender garden truck.

Retrenchment Necessary

At the last meeting of Orangeville presbytery a not very encouraging report was given by Rev. James Lindsay of Erin on the financial condition of the church. He said the church, owing to overdrafts, requires retrenchment, Rev. James Lindsay of Erin gave a most concise report on the financial condition of the church, which owing to overdrafts requires retrenchment. Present indications are that 70 churches will be without ministerial supply, over 30 mission stations withdrawn from usual preaching services, while the foreign missionaries will be compelled to forego the usual respite from work during the hot spell. Departments at head office have been consolidated, effecting great savings. The matter will be brought directly before the congregation in a short time.

Ex-Warden J. Boyd Leaves Grey County

Grey County loses one of its most prominent citizens in the removal of John Boyd, ex-Warden of Grey County, from his home in Markdale to North Batleford, Sask. An informal gathering was held in Markdale on Monday evening of last week when a handsome club bag was presented to Mr. Boyd, along with other tokens of esteem to the members of the family. Before moving to Markdale a few years ago Mr. Boyd was a valued resident of Flesherton and conducted a general store under the firm name J. & W. Boyd. It was largely through Mr. Boyd's efforts that Flesherton was incorporated into a village and he was its first Reeve, holding that office until he moved his business to Markdale. While residing here Mr. Boyd was always striving to advance the interests of the village, and it is with keen regret that the people of this district say an revoir to Mr. Boyd and family. The Advance, along with his host of friends, wish him continued prosperity and success in the new home in the West.

W. I. Meeting

The Women's Institute held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Oke on Wednesday of last week, when the Ceylon branch of Centre Grey W I met with Flesherton branch. After the business meeting the Ceylon ladies provided the program, which was of unusual interest. Mesdames Archie Stewart, Archie Sinclair and D D McLaughlin gave very interesting papers, after which little Miss Nancy Jane Fowler gave two readings in her usual pleasing manner. A duet by Mrs. Fowler and Mrs. Henry was followed by community singing. Lunch was served and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the visiting ladies for the splendid program. The meeting closed with the singing of God Save the King.

INMEMORIAM

In memory of my dear comrade, Pte. John Sharp, who was killed March 14th, 1918, in Petite Vimy, while in discharge of his duties.

Somewhere out in Flanders there is a lonely spot
That will linger in my memory, for it cannot be forgot;
A soldier boy is lying, for that is where he died,
When the battle raged in fury, at the turning of the tide.

—H. J. LeGard.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Walter Thompson, who departed this life March 15th, 1923.

In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear husband,
That we do not think of you.

No one knows the silent heart ache;
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that is borne in silence
For the one we loved so well.

A Flesherton Boy Mayor Of Cobalt

Cobalt, March 9.—Dr. E. F. Armstrong, prominent local dentist, who took the 159 Battalion of the C. E. F. overseas, was today elected Mayor of Cobalt by acclamation. He fills the chair vacated by Taylor Pipe, who was recently unseated by a decision of District Judge Hartman, who held that Mr. Pipe could not qualify as a resident of the town. Little interest was taken in today's proceedings, Dr. Armstrong's election having been regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Thomas Atkinson

Mr. Thomas Atkinson, a respected resident of this district, passed away on Saturday last after a brief illness of heart trouble, at the age of 62 years, at his home on the Collingwood gravel. The deceased gentleman was born near Toronto. About 40 years ago he married a daughter of the late Leonard Betts who survives him, but who for some years has been an invalid from rheumatism. Besides the widow he leaves a family of one daughter and two sons—Ada at home, Carl living near Proton Station and Lorne at home. There are three brothers and one sister—Mrs. John Davis of Gore Bay, Joseph at Durham and James and Wm. John at Toronto.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Salem cemetery.

Mr. Atkinson was a frugal, hard-working man all his life and was respected by his neighbors. Much sympathy is extended the bereaved family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Walter J. Thompson, who departed this life March 15th, 1922.

In the graveyard softly sleeping where flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly, in his lonely, silent grave.
Days of sadness still come o'er us, tears in silence often flow,
Memory keeps him ever near us, as it did one year ago.
In the silent grave we laid him 'til the morn when Christ appears,
There with joy we hope to greet him, far beyond this vale of tears.
