Obituary

EDMUND R. MILLAR.

Edmund R. Millar, a well-known East Toronto resident, was found dead in bed early Saturday morning March 30th, at his residence, 76 Main street. His housekeeper, Miss Gladstone, entered his room about 7.40 a.m., and as she detected gas fumes lit a match, but no explosion followed. A slight leak in the gaspipe was later discovered. Dr. Demary of 2 Lyall avenue was summoned and pronounced death from asphyxiation. Deceased was in his 68th year and had suffered from a partial stroke some weeks ago, never fully recovering. He was born in London England, but came to Canada at an early age, and up until 18 years ago had been in the employ of the G.T.R. In 1900 he was badly injured in a railroad wreck losing one ear and the use of an arm, and was obliged to resign this for less strenuous employment. He was a member of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, and also of the Masonic Order and Oddfellows. He is survived by three daughters. Mrs. A. D. McInnis, Mrs J. McLuckie, and Miss Olive Millar.

Military Service Act

Important Announcement to All

EXEMPTED MEN

and to the Public Generally

IN dealing with the very large number of claims for exemption brought forward for consideration in connection with Class 1 under the Military Service Act, it has occurred, as was inevitable, that as a result of false statements and difficulties put in the way of investigation, some individuals have secured exemption whose proper place is in the Army.

It is not the intention of the Government to allow these men to evade permanently their obligation to bear their part in the military defence of the Country and of the ideals for which we are fighting. To do so would defeat the purpose of the Act, and cause grave injustice to men in the second class necessarily called out to fill their places.

Exemptions Granted on False Grounds

It is, therefore, proposed to scrutinize carefully all exemptions granted to date in order to separate those which have been granted on false or insufficient grounds from those that are well founded.

With this object in view the various Registrars under the Military Service Act have been instructed to issue a series of questionnaires to exempted men. These questionnaires must be filled up correctly and returned promptly under penalty of forfeiture of exemption for failure to do so.

Exempted Men Who Have Changed Address

It is therefore important in their own interest that all exempted men who have changed their address since their exemption was granted and who have not already notified the Registrar of such change should notify him at once. Under the Regulations it is the duty of exempted men to keep the Registrar advised of any change of address, and failure to receive the questionnaire by reason of neglect of this duty must be treated as equivalent to failure to return the questionnaire after receipt.

Citizens Urged to Assist

In many instances information has been furnished by members of the public which has led to the cancellation of exemptions obtained by false or misleading statements. Further co-operation of this character is invited. The Government [illegible]. Duty of all loyal citizens, not only to the Country, but to the [illegible] front, to assist in this way in securing [illegible] on a just and [illegible]. Correspondence of this character will be treated as strictly confidential and will receive the fullest investigation.

CHARLES J. DOHERTY,
Minister of Justice.

Correspondence should be directed to C. Leslie Wilson, Registrar under the Military Service Act, Toronto, Ont.
