LONDON LADY FINDS RELIEF

Mrs. Crabb Finds in Dreco, the Famous herbal remedy, corrective properties that overcome sufferings of years."

The story of Mrs. A. Crabb, of 22 Rayham Street, London, Ont., is an object lesson to every man and woman who is troubled with digestion ailments. It shows the extent of the suffering bad digestion causes if allowed to pursue its way, unchequed. Check your digestive complaints now, with Dreco and avoid the misery that Mrs. Crabb describes. Here is her statement:

"Since August 17th, 1922, I have been in terrible pain, through my left side and also around through my back. The pains were so accute that night after night I would walk the floor, unable to sleep. I was unable to do my housework, as it was in misery from morning to night. Gastric trouble caused my stomach to bloat, and my sufferings from indigestion were awful.

"I began taking Dreco on Jan. 15th and to-day I feel like a new woman. the pains have entirely gone and I am now able to do my housework and cooking. My appetite is good and I have no gastric troubles, while before taking Dreco, everything would turn in my stomach.

"I had tried every kind of pills and remedies and had almost given up hope when I heard of Dreco. I am so happy over the benefits Dreco has given me, that I tell everyone about it. It was a godsend and I am continuing to use it."

Dreco is a natural remedy, prepared from herbs, roots, barks and leaves known for ages for their medicinal properties.

Dreco contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs and is a safe and certain spring tonic and regulator.

Dreco is being specially introduced in Flesherton by C. N. Richardson, and is sold by a good druggist everywhere.

Died In Church

Thomas Broughton, a farmer living near Dundalk died suddenly in the Methodist church there on Sunday last while delivering a report on Sunday school work. Mr. Broughton was 59 years of age and was, we understand, Superintendent of the Sunday School.

Drury Govt. Defeated

The Province of Ontario has seen another political landslide, the greatest it has ever known. The Drury government has been utterly routed and the Conservatives will again enter office with an overwhelming majority, something like 70 members out of a possible 111.

Centre Grey and North Grey both returned U.F.O. candidates, but South Grey was redeemed for the Conservatives by Dr. Jamieson with a majority of about 500 over Mr. Leeson.

The Globe's summary is as follows, but is likely to be slightly changed :

Mrs. Robt. Waller

Mrs. Robt. Waller of town passed away to her long rest Wednesday last, June 20th, after an illness of about seven years duration, from cancer of the stomache. Her long and painful illness was bora with great fortitude and uncomplainingly, and death came to her as a friend.

Mrs. Waller was born in the township of Darlington, near Bowmanville, and came to Artemesia with her parents, the late Thomas Osborne and wife, when only one year of age, which makes her one of the few very old pioneers left, in fact we know of no one now living who preceeded her to this district, where she arrived in 1853. Her parents settled on the east back line on the farm later purchased by Mr. Johnson Cullen. In later years they moved to Flesherton. Her father died here about thirty years ago. In 1878 the deceased lady married Mr. Robt. Waller, who mourns her departure in common with two daughters and one son—Lizzie (Mrs. J. A. McFadden) who has cared for her mother here during her long illness ; Annie (Mrs. R. McFadden) of Mono Centre, and Geo., who lives on the homestead, west back line.

Mrs. Waller was a woman of deep religious convictions, her father being a local preacher in the early days of Methodism here, and she was closely identified with all the church organizations, including the women's Missionary Society, until illness prevented. She was a woman of many sterling qualities and her departure is sincerely mourned.

The funeral took place Friday afternoon to Flesherton cemetery, when Rev. Bowes of Markdale conducted the service in the church. The pallbearers were John Wright, Joseph field, Thomas Clayton, John Heard, Mark Stewart and John Stewart, all of whom had known her since girlhood.

Gordon Hanlon, who is in the enlarged picture business, was given 60 days in jail at Walkerton for issuing a cheque when there were no funds.
