"Lumbeg" Drums

The following from the Erin Advocate will be of interest to Orangemen wherever they are, and others as well :

"A special feature of the parade was the presence of two real "Belfast Lumbeg drums," which were in charge of four Ulster Volunteers, Ireland at the time of the rebellion The approach of the big drums brought the hands of the people to ther ears, as they were pronounced ear-splitters. These drums stand out prominently in the history of the struggle for civil and religious liberty in Ireland. In the early days of faction fighting when modes of signaling were not as common as they are now, it was thought to invent something that would be heard by the brethren as a "call to arms," hence the "Lumbeg drum" came into being. Certain beats were instituted as a "protestant signal," and these drums can be distinctly heard from eight to ten miles away. Space does not permit to go into detail of the innumerable occasions upon which the "old Lumbegs" saved our brethren from persecution and even death. However, as they headed the Orangeville lodge in the parade here, it was something new, and now that we know something of their history it fills us with pride that the parade was favored this year by one of the "old time Lumbegs." Every Ulster Orangeman knows and loves theh sound of the "old Lumbegs."

OWEN SOUND BIT THE DUST IN 9TH INNING

Bunched Hits For Three Runs and Won First of Two Games To Decide Winner

Flesherton demonstrated their superiority over the Owen Sound North Wellington seniors in the first game of the play-off to decide the winners, when they bunched hits in the ninth inning, driving in three runs and winning the game 4 to 3. There have been numbers of real good games here this year, but we beileve Monday's affair was the best we have seen, and both pitchers were in the best of form. Zack, the Owen Sound Indian pitcher, twirled a faultless game up to the seventh inning, never allowing a hit, and only two men reaching second base. Zack had 12 men who faced him lay down their bat in disgust, and Goldsmith had 14 Owen Sounders waving at the air in their anxiety to connect. Three times was Hec. in a hole when a hit meant the game, and each time he retired the side, generally with a s.o. A big crowd was inattendance to see the Scenic City go under, but their hopes wer not very bright until the ninth when Zack seemed to weaken.

Owen Sound's first run came in the initial inning when McDonald secured a hit and Miller brought him home. Three men struck out. In the third they scored again when Zack hit a grounder to third, which Dow threw high to first and Airth missed, Zack going to second. Vasey hit for two bases, scoring the former. But in the fourth was one time Goldsmith distinguished himself, when with none down Hilliar flied to Howard in centre field and Matchett struck out. Zack walked and the bases were loaded with two down. Weiland was too anxious to secure a hit and his swings blended perfectly with Hec.'s bends and he fanned. Owen Sound's next run came in the sixth when Keeling hit for two bases and came home on a blockball. In the eighth Hec. got into trouble again with two on and one down and again his grooves proved too much for the next two and they, too, fanned. The ninth inning saw them easy outs.

Flesherton's first run came in the lucky seventh when Goldsmith hit for two bases to left field and scored on Gibson's grounder and he was safe at first when Vasey failed to hold the throw which was low.

THE BIG INNING

The ninth inning opened with Flesherton two down and hopes of victory very slim indeed. Goldsmith opened up his war club and hit for two bags, and scored when Gibson connected for the same, after McLeod had fanned. Zack retired here in favor of Debassige, another Indian, who didn't fare any better than his mate. Airth was the second out, having hit a grounder and advancing Gibson to third. Dillon came up with fire in his eyes and a heavy bat that knocked the ball for two bases, scoring Gibson, and tieing the game. E. Muir drew a walk and each advanced a base on a pass ball. Dillon used his head here and bothered the players, getting repeated throws to catch him off the bag. With one strike on Goldsmith he took a big lead off third and drew the catcher's throw, which went wild, and Dillon romped home with the winning run. It was a beautiful victory, after Owen Sound's declaration at the commencement of the season that the games would amount to only practic games, victory would be so easy for Owen Sound.

Vandeleur	0	1	.000

Dundalk 6, Vandeleur 5

DUNDALK 6, VANDELEUR 5

Vandeleur lost their first game in the second section of the Centre Grey League at Dundalk on Thursday last by very loose playing, allowing Dundalk three of their six runs. Vandeleur out-hit Dundalk 2 to 1. The visitors were over an hour late in arriving, but played real ball when they got going. 'Buck" had nine strikeouts to his credit and Douglass two, but it was errors in the pinches that cost Vandeleur the game. Dundalk had protested the game before it commenced on account of Harold Beard of Markdale playing for the Vans, as he wasn't passed by the League. However, an Executive meeting was held on Friday evening last and Beard and Gordon Beaton of Markdale were given permission to finish out the season with Vandeleur.

GOING OUT FOR PLAYERS

Several teams in the Owen Sound City Baseball League have gone quite a distance outside their city to sign up some real ball players, having signed up "Lefty" Goldsmith, Elmer Muir and Harold Mountain of the Flesherton ball team. There must be a dearth of good ball players in the Scenic City.

Caught In Mower Blade

An accident occurred to Roy, the little three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Semple, on the outskirts of town that will cause much pain. While a blade was being adjusted in the mower, after being sharpened, in some manner the little fellow had two fingers of the right hand caught in the knife, which severed the ends. Medical assistance was required and Roy is doing nicely now.
