DEMONSTRATED THE WATER SYSTEMS

The Demonstration of practical methods of providing running water and installing modern conveniences for farme homes held in Flesherton on Friday, August 3rd, proved of special interest to large unmbers from the village and surrounding which is equipped by the Institutes Branch of the Department of Agriculture was in charge of Mr. Edwin Newsome of Toronto and had a very complete display of the equipment and fixtures necessary for providing a home with a contiuous supply of hot and cold water under pressure for fitting a modern bathroom and for installing a satisfactory and sanitary system of sewage disposal. Mr. Newsome, who is an engineer with a wide practical experience, outlined the methods of installing the different systems and gave specific advice to those intending to install a modern system.

This demonstration was of particular value in showing that such conveniences are possible and can be installed without undue cost or expensive labor. There are systems applicable to every condition of power for pumping and water supply. These were all fully explained and any further information desired may be readily obtained upon application to the Ontario Agricultural College, Physics Department, Guelph.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL FOR LATE J.HEMPHILL

Methodist Church Was Filled In Respect To Victim of Drowning Accident

The funeral of Mr. John Hemphill, whose life was ended so tragically by drowning last week, was held on Thursday afternoon. The remains were taken to Flesherton Methodist church, where the pastor, Rev. H. H. Eaton, preached a most appropriate sermon from the text: "It shall be proven in stone," Job 14-14. The pastor said that the young man left behind him the respect of his fellow men, and we felt honored in honoring him. In the words of David, "He has gone from me and he will not come back again, but I can go to him."

During the service Messrs. Murray and Holland, Mrs. Jos. Blackburn and Miss Agnes Henderson sang a very sweet quartette, "That will be heaven for me." The bier was covered with flowers. Afterwards the remains were interred in Flesherton cemetery.

It is a long time since the church was so filled to do honor to the departed friend as it was on this occasion. The seating capacity was taxed to its utmost.

The pallbearers were: Alfred and Robert Down, Earl Best, W. Gibson Jas. McMullen and Chas. Chislett.

John Hemphill was the elder son of Mr. S. Hemphill and was born in Ceylon Sept. 18, 1895, and lived all his life here. The young man was of a very kindly disposition and highly respected by everyone, a member of Flesherton Methodist church and was also usher here. He was very faithful in his duty. He served in the GreatWar overseas in 1918, and was wounded in France shortly before the armistice was signed. A short service was held at the house before conveyance to Flesherton Methodist church. The casket was more than covered with beautiful flowers—a wreath from the family ; W. H. Hemphill and sisters of Flesherton, wreath ; Mary Seeley, Della White, Viola McDonald, Oben McLachlan, Ceylon, wreath ; C. Irish, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hemphill, designer, and girls of dress department of John Northway & Son, all of Toronto, wreaths ; from friends in vicinity of Ceylon, wreath; Methodist church, Methodist choir, wreath ; Earl Best, Robt. and Alfred Down, ushers, spray ; Wesley Plantt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Watkins and Andrew Morrow of Toronto, wreath ; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Collinson, Mrs. Geo. Collinson, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cairns and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns, a spray ; Mrs. Ed. Purdy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sinclair and family and Miss M. Ferguson, each a spray.

The remains were laid to rest beside those of his mother, who preceeded him three years ago. He leaves to mourn his loss ,his father, who was a daily companion to his son ; three sisters, Maud, and Rita at home, Myrtle in Toronto; and one brother, Percy. The deepest sympathy of the whole community go out to them in their hour of sorrow. Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Graham of Welland; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hemphill and three children, Miss L. Johnston, Mr. C. Irish of Toronto ; T. and G. Hemphill and Miss A. Hemphill, of Kleinburg ; Mr. G. and Miss M. Brownlee, Woodbridge ; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowes, Thornhill ; Mr. and Mrs. J. Watson and son, Duley, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Joe Watson of Laskey ; Mr. Joe Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hemphill and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Harrison, son and daughter, Mrs. A. Morrow, Mr. S. Todd, all of Dundalk ; Mr. D. and Miss K. McKenzie, Miss Campbell, Mr. Ed. Mullin, Mr. J. Paul, Misses Maggie and Mary Spears, Mr. Jas. Spears and daughter of Feversham ; Mr. J. and Miss S. McFarlane, Miss Dorothy Wright, Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, McIntyre ; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Henderson, Maxwell ; Mr. and Mrs. Will Timmins, Ebordale ; Mr. and Mrs. Albert McNalley, Durham ; Mrs. F. Irish and Miss Gertrude, of Wareham.

HOW IT HAPPENED

John and Percy Hemphill, Oben McLachlan, Mary Seeley, Viola McDonald and Dell White went to bathe and learn to swim. A short time after being in the water John thought his brother, Percy, and Mary Seeley were drowning and went to assist them and got beyond his dephth. He could not swim himself, and in fact none of the party could, very much. Being in the water about two hours the body was recovered in about 10 feet of water by willing hands. The body was then conveyed to his home.

Mr. Herb Dyson of Hillsburg is on a holiday visiting friends in this part.

Quite a number from here took in the races at Owen Sound on Monday and report them fair.

Mr. Wm. Irwin, editor of the Durham Chronicle, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irwin and Miss Vera Mountain, paid The Advance a visit one evening last week.

N. L. McLeod Appointed General Manager of Standard Bank of Canada

N.C. STEPHENS AND G.N. BROWN BECOME ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGERS

W. Francis President of The Standard Bank of Canada, announces the appointment of N. L. McLeod to the position of General Manager of the Bank, succeeding C. H. Easson, Chief Executive, who had requested permission to retire. Announcement is also made that Norman C. Stephens and G. N. Brown have been appointed Assistant General Managers.

The new General Manager has been in the service of the Standard Bank for many years, during which time he has occupied several positions of importance, including that of Western Superintendant and latterly as an Exceutive officer at the head office.

Mr. Stephens has had a long career with the Bank, during which he served as Assistant Manager of Toronto office, Manager of Foreign Exchange Department and for the past few years as Acting Assistant General Manager.

Mr. Brown has been in the employ of the Bank for fifteen years and for the past few years has served as Superintendant of Eastern Branches.

Mr. Francis, in announcing the appointments, states that it is gratifying to the Directors to be able to find among the Bank's own offiecrs those who have been tried in its service, who know its history and who by their previous efficiency and record have proven themselves well equipped to fill the responsible positions to which they have been appointed.

OLD RESIDENT VISITS HERE

The Advance had a short call from Col. A. G. Campbell of Toronto, who was on his way home from the West. Col. Campbell's father was a pioneer of this district, living a mile and a quarter south of town. The Col. was identified with the early military history of Artemesia, and commanded the 31st Regiment at one time, and also sailed the lakes on the old Frances Smith, City of Winnipeg and Northern Belle. He has some interesting reminiscences but had not time to "spin" them, as he had to take train for Toronto the same day.

THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA · ESTD 1873

Fifty Years of Commercial Banking

THE year 1923 marks the entry of the Standard Bank upon its fiftieth year of service to the Dominion.

Since its inception the policy of this Bank has been to give the maximum of banking service while constantly exercising the utmost vigilance for the safety of its patrons' interests. This policy has been adhered to through periods of prosperity and depression. As a consequence the Bank has enjoyed steady, sound and substantial growth, today having 161 branches throughout the whole Dominion. These are supplemented by affiliations with strong financial institutions in foreign countries, enabling it to render comprehensive banking service for the promotion of Canadian enterprise both at home and abroad.
