Wonderful Ford Exhibit Of Farm Machinery

The Ford Caravan Touring This Country Visited By A Thousand or More People—Picture Show With It

The Ford caravan which has been touring Eastern Ontario since the end of August reached Flesherton on Saturday evening and Monday morning in tow sections. It came over from Meaford by the 9th line, and took possession of Mr. Wm. Stewart's farm in the suburbs, where, during the afternoon, hundreds of farmers visited the scene and went home feeling that the time was well spent. The Ford people have shown the way in advertising and liberally utilize the the public press in that way. The present demonstration was a side issue, a costly plan of advertising, but an experiment that is likely to bear fruit.

The caravan left Toronto the latter part of August and the itineracy was by the north shore of Lake Ontario to Gananoqua, taking in all towns on the way, then north to Tweed, Madoc, Campbellford, and by way of Peterborough to Lindsay, Port Perry, Orillia, Midland and Collingwood to Meaford.

The caravan consists of 36 pieces on wheels, embracing different types of trucks for various purposes, Standard Express, Standard Stake, fire engine, oil tank, speed canopy delivery, closed passenger bus, black maria, etc. The tractors were all equipped with rubber tires for hauling, including different types of trailers There was a complete line of farm machinery including disc plows, cultivators, harrows, cutting boxes, potato digger and Moody threshing machine.

A plowing exhibition was also given with an Oliver plow and tractor, which attracted a great deal of attention from the farmers. The plow was run by an expert plowman and the work was pronounced perfect.

The moving picture part of the program was probably the most fascinating part, and of this the actual sprouting and growth of a kernel of corn was one of the most interesting things shown. To produce this film ten pictures of the growth were taken on a foot of film every ten minutes for eighteen days, and then all combind in one single long film which took as many minutes to run it off, showing the actual growth. Many other pictures were shown, all of an educative value, and very interesting as well as instructive. This exhibit included a fine film of the Hamilton Plowing Match and a comparative picture showing results from a poorly prepared seed bed and from the properly prepared bed. The hundreds who viewed these things felt themselves well repaid for the time spent.

The caravan, which is captained by Mr. Wallace Murdock (who, by the way, is a son of Mr. D. Murdock of Egremont, who represented his township in the County Council away back in the 70's) left on Tuesday morning for Shelburne.

Barn Burned With Entire Season's Crop

Mr. D. Mcdonald of tht 8th lint a couple of miles from Eugenia, lost his barn by fire on Monday. Two weeks ago Mr. McDonald threshed his sweet cover. On Monday while sitting at dinner he heard a roaring sound and on looking out the window found the straw stack outside the barn a mass of roaring flames. The barn was totaly consumed, together with all the season's grain and implements. There was, we understand, an insurance of $1,000 on the barn and $500 on contents—less than half tht value. The loss is a very serious one for Mr. McDonald and much sympathy for him is expressed The cause is laid to spontaneous combustion.

His Car Was Dizzy

A Teeswater citizen who has been frequenting this town a good deal since Race Day when he became chummy with some West Ward folks, had an unfortunate experience on his last visit. It is reported that he found his friend away from home so he went into the woodshed for a sleep. Rousing up a few hours later he started for home. While backing his car out of the yard he banged into a tree but escaped without disabling his car. Near D. K. Smith's farm on the South Line west his car took to the ditch and turned turtle. Further on he agan took to the ditch and lost a piece of windshield. The rest of the distance was navigated without further mishap. On Sunday he returned to the scene of his adventurous journey, looking for a twenty-five dollar set of false teeth and a piece of windshield which he had left behind in his unfortunate spills —Walkerton Telescope.
