

Beneath the shadow of Ottawa's Peace Tower, Agricultural Minister James G. Gardiner welcomes three of a score of champion plowmen from nine European countries who arrived in Canada last week-end. They will compete, along with Canadian and U.S. plowmen, for the first world plowing championship and the Esso Golden Plow, the world trophy, at Cobourg, Ontario, October 8 and 9. Left to right are Ronald G. Sheane of County Wicklow, Republic of Ireland, Erik Bie of Horsens, Denmark, Mr. Gardiner and Ejfild Anderson of Soro, Denmark.