EAST GREY COUNTY L.O.L. MEETING

Thos. Conron Is W.M.

The annual meeting of East Grey County Orange Lodge was held in Dundalk on Tuesday, having been postponed a week on account of the storm. The election of officers was held and the following were elected, and installed by Past County Master Abbott of Proton :—

W.M.—Thos. Conron.
D.M.—O. Cornett.
Chaplain—Rev. Spencer.
D. of C.—Alfred Down.
Rec. Sec.—G. Littlejohns.
Fin. Sec.—A. D. Harrison.
Treas.—Wm. Goodfellow.
1st Lect.—Harold Russell.
2nd Lect.—A. D. Jamieson.
Com.—County and District Masters, C. J. Bellamy, Thos. Conron, A. Francis.

Those who attended from Flesherton L.O.L. No. 2855 were Wor. Master F. W. Duncan and A. Down, W. A. Hawken, C. J. Bellamy and H. Down.

The gathering did not decide to celebrate the 12th of July, 1924, in Owen Sound, but as two of the districts had already decided to do so, it was left to the discression of Osprey whether they did or not. About fifty of the brethren of the county were present.

EUGENIA WON GAME FROM FLESERTON 3-2

(From the Eugenia Corr.)

The Eugenia Bear Cats (as dubbed by the Fleshertonians) drove to Flesherton on Thursday evening of last week to play a game of, what the Flesherton boys called "shinny," with the Flesherton Wild Cat hockeyists and which resulted in a score of 3-2 in favor of the Bear Cats. Though our boys were unable to play a good combination (owing to no practice, whatever) they kept the Wild Cats right after them, but the Bear Cats were hard to follow. A good clean, speedy game was played by the boys of both tetams, and there isn't a doubt but that if the Eugenia Bear Cats had a few good chances to practice they would in time learn how to play HOCKEY. Mr. Frank Thurston refereed the game in his usual capable manner and gave good decisions, satisfactory to both teams. The line-up was Goal, Ken Large; Defence Herb Betts and F. Betts; Centre G. Large; Left Wing Rae Genoe; Right Wng, Chas. Park; subs., Russ McMullen and Russ. Park. Flesherton's line-up was Goal, Akins; Defence, S. McTavish and J. Dow; Centre, K. Boyd; Left Wing, Wes Armstrong; Right Wing R. Patton.

PORTLAW

The severe storms have piled the beautiful high on the roads, and prevented church service being held for some weeks. The doctors and mail carriers have experienced great difficulty in making their rounds. The new snow plow has been doing good work in keeping the roads open.

We are all glad to hear that Miss May Cornfield is recovering from a serious illness, under the doctor's care

Miss Violet Taylor has almost recovered from her recent illness, which her friends are glad to hear.

Mr. and Mrs. David Blakey who held a successful sale recently are removing with their family this week to Toronto.

Mr. Roy Lyons, who has been in Toronto for some time arrived home last Friday.

Another little girl arrived on Monday at the home of Mr and Mrs. Thos. Black.

M. Fisher, who is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyons, is ill with pneumonia.

A deer was seen twice during the past week by some of our citizens.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy during the recent illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Wm. Hopper.

—THE FAMILY.
