MR. AND MRS. W. J. KAITTING

Mr. and Mrs. Kaitting Celebrate Golden Wedding

A very enjoyable afternoon and evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kaitting of Feversham on Monday, Feb. 11th, last, when the family and relatives gathered to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage. The house was suitably decorated for the occasion in gold and white, the flowers being golden daffodils and yellow narcissus.

At three o'clock numerous pictures were taken of the bride and groom, with their children and grandchildren, also a group picture of all the guests, after which a wedding dinner was served to about thirty guests.

Baskets of daffodils and golden shaded candles decorated the table, the centre attraction being the bride's wedding cake adorned with orange blossoms and golden tulle, and a becomingly dressed kewpie bride and groom. From a white wedding bell which hung over the cake gold and white streamers were draped to each corner of the table and were held in place by Cupids.

After the repast the bride cut the cake and a toast to the bride was proposed by the groom. During the reading of an address by the eldest son, Will, a purse of gold was presented by three of the grandchildren—Bernice McKeown, Delsie Kaitting and Billie Burke. This was also responded to by the groom in a few well chosen words.

We might just mention here that Mrs. George Mitchell of Flesherton and Mr. Wm. Davidson, Sr., of Feversham were the only guests who were present at the wedding fifty years ago. A solo, "All Mine Alone," was very beautifully rendered by Miss Aleda Mitchell. The remainder of the evening was spent with music and dancing. The groom, although 70 years of age, gave an excellent exhibition of step dancing.

Both bride and groom are enjoying the best of health and have every expectation of celebrating their Diamond Wedding. It is quite remarkable to note that the only break in the family occurred when their daughter, Sarah Alberta, beloved wife of Mr. J. J. McKeown, was called away on Jan. 23rd, 1923. The remaining children, Will and Guy, Mrs. G. H. Burk and Miss Queenie, were present, together with the nine grand children.

KIMBERLEY

The meetings of the Institute speakers were held in the hall both afternoon and evening of Monday, February 25th. All were well attended, particularily the men's meeting in the afternoon.

Married—In Flesherton on Wednesday, February 20th, Charlotte (Lottie) Ward, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ward, to Mr. Hadden Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hutchinson, both of this place. The bride's dress was of blue satin and hat to match. The happy couple spent their honeymoon in Toronto. We wish them every success in their life together.

Married—In Kimberley on Wednesday, February 20th, Miss Annie Caswell to Mr. John Lush, both of Rocklyn.

Mr. Hugh Knott of Markdale, visited his sister Mrs. Hammond this week.

A shower was held on Friday night for Miss Hazel Wallace, a bride of this week.

Miss Abercrombie, of Vandeleur, has been visiting Mrs. Thos. Abercrombie.

Mrs. Frank Davis, of Vandeleur, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Plewis.

We were glad to see a change for warmer weather this week. If the storms of last week had continued the people on the hill would have had the job of digging us out down here. It was surely a case of "Keep the Home fires burning." Although our two mail men did better than the trains for going through the drifts.

The Stuart and the Hammond girls snow-shoed to Eugenia and back on Sunday. Mervyn, Ruth and Natalie also went with the pony.

Mrs. Latimer of Eugenia is visiting Mrs. Geo Procter.

The first meeting of the league was held on Wednesday night.

VICTORIA CORNERS

There has actually been three nice days in succession, but there is more snow than we have had for years.

Don't forget the L. O. L. 244 box social next Friday night at Proton Orange Hall.

Mr. Jas Laidlaw has been called to the sick bed of his brother-in-law, Mr. Will Gracey, of Shelburne.

No Mother ever nurses a baby with more care than a man nurses the last dozen hairs on his dome when he finds he is amost bald.

ROCK MILLS

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held in the church on Wednesday afternoon, February 20th, when the election of new officers took place as follows. Pres., Mrs. Thos. Fisher; Vice-Pres., Mrs. D. Clark; Sec., Mrs. Levi Betts; Asst., Mrs. Ned Croft; Treas., Mrs. J. Dargavel; Asst., Della Pedlar; Work Com., Mrs. I. Smith, Mrs. W. Akith, Mrs. W. T. Pedlar and Mrs. J. Porteous. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Dick Clark on Wednesday, March 19th.

Chas. Newell and wife, visited over Sunday with friends at Eugenia.

Don't forget the box social in the school on Friday night, February 29. Everybody welcome.

Ed. Howard spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. Bob Croft.

Frank Betts visited over Sunday with his brother Edgar, of Osprey.

Joe Sewell and wife visited at Levi Betts' recently.

SNIDER—CASWELL.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Caswell, Flesherton, at 1 o'clock on Tuesday, Feb. 17th, when Miss Myrtle Elizabeth Caswell was united in marriage to Mr. Vernon W. Snider, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snider of Waterloo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. H. Eaton of Flesherton. The young couple were unattended. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Wm. Caswell and she looked charming in a gown of silk canton with tea shade roses to match. Miss Mildred Caswell, sister of the bride, played the Wedding March, after which the bridal party, accompanied by about twenty guests, entered the dining room where all partook of a well prepared dinner. The bride's going away suit was navy blue with hat to match. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for Niagara, Buffalo and Detroit. The Advance staff and their many friends wish them a happy journey through life.

This year Orillia anticipates being the scene of the largest Twelfth of July celebration ever held north of Toronto. It is expected that there will be 100 lodges and at least 15,000 people.

IN MEMORIAM

OSBORNE—In loving memory of my dear sister, Reta, who passed away February 27th, 1919, aged 26 years.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance
Just a memory fond and true,
Just a token of affection,
Just to show I think of you.

My thoughts were of you in the past,
They still are yours to-day.
Love is rooted firm and fast
Time cannot take away.

Friends may think I have forgotten,
When at times they see me smile;
But they little know the heartache
That the smiles hide all the time.

Death comes to let us know
We love more dearly than we show
But love in death doth let us see
What love in life should always be.
—Emerson.

PROTON STATION

All the men and boys who were not otherwise employed, in fact all who could be spared, have enlisted in the snow shovelling force on the railroad.

Miss Eloise Williams of Holland Centre, visited last week at the home of R. G. Acheson. At present she is the guest of Mrs. Elmo Stevens.

Mr. Sam Batchelor has several teams employed loading brick these days. Two car loads were shipped to Hanover and there are several more to go as soon as cars are available, also some is being taken to Swinton Park.

Mrs. Alfred Cook of Collingwood died unexpectedly after being operated on for gall stones at Collingwood hospital.

PORTLAW

Mr. W. A. Morton has been very seriously ill, but we are glad to hear that he is now a great deal better and on the way to complete recovery.

Mr. James Cornfield who has been on an extended visit with his sister in Kansas, arrived home last week. Although he had not been in the best of health while away, he is now looking so well that his friends hardly know him.
