VANDELEUR

Maple syrup making is the order of the day. Quite a number are taking advantage of the good season.

This community have been fortunate this year in having two returned missionaries, who had both taught for a number of years in the school here. Miss L. C. Hawken, who has been engaged in missionary work in Alberta occoupied the pulpit in the church here a week ago. Mrs. Krieger visited us from South America and also gave a report of her work. Their many friends wish them every success in their work.

The Vandeleur Ladies' Aid held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Pritchard a short ime ago. A good program was given and a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

A large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Gilbert on Wednesday evening. April 2nd and spent a very enjoyable social evening. During the evening an address was read by Mrs. Harry Baker, while Misses Nellie Boland and Gertie Smith presented Mrs. Gilbert with a beautiful tea set, a linen table cloth and a cut glass dream pitcher and sugar bowl. Mrs. Gilbert, though taken by surprise, made a brief reply and in a few well-chosen words thanked the people for their kindness. The remainder of the evening was very enjoyably spent in games, music, etc.

PRESENTATION

A large number of friends and neighobrs of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thistlethwaite met at their home at Springhill the evening before they left the farm and presented them with a mantle clock as a token of good-will.

The folowing is the address as read: To Mr. and Mrs. Thistlethwaite:

We, your friends and neighbors, are assembled here this evening to spend one more night with you, before you take your departure from us.

You have been here amongst us all since your childhood, and we have yet to learn of one unhonorable action on your part, and so we appreciate your kind and cheerful disposition and honorable and upright principal. We regret very much that you are going to leave us, but such is the way of life. And as you go from us we want you to know that best wishes and prayers of the neighborhood will follow you wherever duty leads you. We feel that we cannot allow the present opportunity to pass without an expression of our appreciation of you and your family, so we wish you to accept this little token, not for its value, but for the best wishes that accompany it.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighobrs

—Jas. Harrison and A. Best.

A Mother To Her Son

This is a message which a boy carried in his pocket until he became a man.

1. Get up when called in the morning.
2. Wash before dressing.
3. Wash your teeth. A clean mouth belongs to a clean heart.
4. Be obedient. Remember the world would be crushed into pieces if it did not obey the law of God. and you must suffer if you do not obey.
5. Be truthful. Only cowards lie. You are not a coward.
6. Be kind. It is the greatest gift in the world.
7. Don't forget that you have promised to do some kind act every day.
8. Wash your face and hands before going to the table.
9. Remember that your father is a gentleman. In his absence it is up to you to prove it. A gentleman is kind and truthful and clean and quiet.
10. Be interested in everything. Have a good time.
11. Remember that I love you with all my heart.
12. Say your prayers. Ask God to keep your heart clean and brave and true, and your body well, for —YOUR MOTHER.

WON A FORD CAR

Congratulations are extended to Miss Grace Welton, who captured a $599 Ford touring car as a result of her salesmanship in the London Free Press subscription competition. Everyboly is happy over it, as Miss Welton is one of our most popular young ladies. In response to an invitation on Friday, and accompanied by her brother, Mr. Byron Welton, of Flesherton, Miss Welton was in London on Saturday and received the prize at the hands of the mayor of the city. There was also a procession which they did not arrive in time to join but which they saw, and a banquet in the evening for which they did not wait—Mt. Forest Confederate.

The barn on the farm of Charles Kopas in West Luther, was completely destroyed by fire. An overturned lantern is reported to have originated the conflagration.

LADY BANK

Sugar-making is the order of the day.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at Mr. Frank Short's on Tuesday night, March 25th. Providence Sunday School held a necktie social, the proceeds of which are to be used in securing supplies for Sunday school work.

Mr. George Short has again returned to our line, where he is making maple syrup.

We are glad to see Manny Dobson out again after a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Several dances were held in the neighborhood lately and from all reports seem to have been enjoyed.

Several young gentlemen, while on their way to an evening party, in their endeavour to find sleighing collided with Mr. Galloway's stone fence. This caused much excitement to at least one of the boys, who then took his lantern, and, walking bravely ahead of the team, lighted the way for those following behind him. Good boy!

VICTORIA CORNERS

Mr. Will Martin moved his family to Owen Sound last week. Mrs. Martin and Melburn spent the week end with Mrs. Laidlaw.

Mr. Will Laidlaw of Primrose visited his brother, Mr. Jas. Laidlaw, for a week.

Mrs. Geo. Moore, who has been on the sick list, is improving nicely.

Roads like we are having, part sleighing and part wheeling, just helped to prove the metal of which some of our young men are composed. Eh, girls? However they got through whether on foot or on horse back.

The W.M.S. held their April meeting at Mr. Milton Bannon's on Thursday.

Rev. Mr. Eaton braved the roads on Sunday and held the regular afternoon service at Inistioge. Only a few of the congregation were so brave

A three-legged calf was born on the farm of J W Stewart, near Farquhar, and is lively and able to get about with the herd.

TORONTO LINE, NORTH

Mr. Edgar Bowles, who has been engaged with Mr. R. Swanton for the past few monhs, left last week for Toronto.

Miss Stella Alcox returned home on Friday evening after spending a few days with her brother, Ross, in his new home south of Flesherton.

Miss Ida Lever returned to Toronto on Monday after spending the past two months at her home here. On Friday evening she gave a party to a number of friends.

Mr. William Teeter has been assisting Mr. W. Burnett the past week.

Mr. Delbert Alcox has moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. Ross Alcox. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Alcox to our vicinity.

Mr. Will and Mel. Guy of Toronto were recent visitors with the Alcox family.

MR. THOS. WISE

On Sunday, March 30th, 1924, there passed away to his Eternal Home, the spirit of Mr. Thos. Wise. Mr. Wise was a respected man of 83 years or more (age not definitely known). He has made his home with his niece, Mrs. James Leppard, and husband during the past 13 years. He was abl to work up to and during last fall. Through this cold stormy winter his health seemed somewhat impaired and two weeks previous to his death he took to bed and his strength decreased until death claimed him for its own. On Tuesday, April 1, the remains were taken to Salem church where a fine sermon was delivered by Rev. Jos. Harrower of Flesherton, who took as his text that beautiful but definite statement in the Book of John, where Christ speaks, saying, "In my Father's house are many mansions if it were not so, I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." Interment took place in Salem cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Wm. Magee, Donald McDonald, Jos. Sherwood, F. Pedlar, C. Martin, R. Park. We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Leppard.

Free from all worry, strife and pain,
Gone to his home on high.
Christ came to save this sinful world
By suffering and to die.

Miss Martha Fenwick, who assisted Mrs. McPhail of Ceylon during the winter months, has returned to her parental home here.

Miss Clarabel Fenwick of Kimberley is visiting at home.

Mr. Fred Young, Singhampton, is visiting with his aunt, Mrs. Luther Duckett.

A number of the farmers are busily engaged at the maple syrup-making industry.

Something's astir in the northland,
Winds are sweet with the rain,
High in the red-tipped maples
A robin is singnig again.
Over the wakening valleys
Mists like an incense rise,
Gold and opal and amethyst,
Losing themselves in the skies.

KIMBERLEY

Born—On Wednesday, April 2nd, 1924, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stafford, a daughter, Phylis May.

Mrs. D. A. Graham and family of Vandeleur spent a few days last week at Mr. S. S. Burritt's.

Mrs. Andrews left on Saturday to join her husband in Toronto.

Miss Petch of Epping is with hed cousin, Mrs. Stafford.

Saturday was "Leek Festival" day.

Now that the snow has gone we wonder if anyone has found the gold wrist watch Blanche lost between the bridge at the blacksmith shop and R. H. Stafford's. It was lost last winter and could not be located.

Mr Arthur Stafford had the misfortune to get his hand badly bruised while oiling the cement mixer on the Hydro construction works. The doctor was summoned and has laid him off work for at least three weeks.

Miss Clarabel Fenwick has returned home after being three months with Mrs. Saul Fawcett.

We are sorry to report the following sick with colds :—Mrs. Geo. Proctor, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. J. Cornfield.

Mrs. Clifford Risk is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward.

CEYLON

Bad roads and very lttle traffic, hence a small budget this week.

Mrs. F. D. Cairns spent a couple of days in Owen Sound last week.

Mr. McNarey of Toronto visited at Mr. Wm. Mathewson's last week.

R. Cook was at Dundalk Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ashdown went to Shelburne on Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Ben Tansley, whose remains were brought from Toronto on the noon train. Mr. Tansley was for years road master on this division and was highly respected.

Mrs. Jas. Knox is visiting friends in Proton.

Mr. J. C. McLachlan has returned to Toronto.

Mr. B. Middaugh and men of Proton, who have been loading logs here for a week, finished the work on Monday.

Mr. H. Piper had a wood sawing bee on Tuesday.

PROTON STATION

Owing to the almost impassable condition of the roads the ministers did not come to Proton last Sunday. Mr. Neil McCannell took charge of the service in the Presbyterian church and gave an instructive talk on the Sunday school lesson.

Mr. J. C. Wright of Hamilton spent the week end at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. Geo. Binnie.

Miss Gertrude Lyons of Toronto, who has been in ill health for some time, has returned to the parental home here to recuperate. Her sister, Miss Maggie, came with her.

Mrs. Geo. Blakely has returned home after spending the winter in Toronto.

During the hockey game between the Flesherton and Proton teams at Flesherton last week the puck from the stick of a Proton player struck Roy Patton, the Flesherton goal keeper, in the face hurting him severely. The accident is exceedingly regretted by the Proton team, and also by the Proton people. We hope the injured young man has fully recovered.

Little Eileen McNalty visited last week with her grandmother here.
