MARTIN B. PHILLIPS DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Stricken With Heart Failure Died In A Few Minutes

RESPECTED BY ALL

Mr. Martin Phillips, a much respected resident of Flesherton. passed away very suddenly at his home here on Sunday morning about o'clock from heart failure. During the winter he had been confined to the house through rheumatic trouble, but was up town on Monday of last week and expressed himself as feeling fairly well. Sunday morning he sat up in bed and complained of pain around the heart and in a few minutes after had passed away.

The deceased gentleman was born in Mariposa township near Lindsay, 72 years ago, and came to Artemesia with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Phillips, about 68 years ago. He married a Miss Martha Clark, who survives him, and began life on a farm on the Collingwood gravel at the town-line between Artemesia and Osprey, where they lived until five years ago, when they sold the farm and came to Flesherton to reside, after an arduous life of toil on the farm. He leaves three sons and three daughters to mourn the loss of a kind an indulgent father. These are Robert and Frank of Toronto, Oscar of Flesherton, Effie (Mrs. Buntz) and Jessie (Mrs. Tracey) of Detroit, and Vera (Mrs. W. Gibson) of Ceylon. One son, Harley, lies in France. There are three brothers and one sister living—Tucker of Osprey, Joseph and Edward of Toronto, and Annie (Mrs. Manders) of Toronto

A few years ago Mr. Phillips was converted under the ministration of Rev. L. F. Kipp and joined the Baptist church, of which he has since been a faithful member. Rev. L. F. Kipp, now of Toronto, conducted the funeral service in the Baptist chapel on Tuesday afternoon. The floral offerings were very beautiful. Many members of the family were present from Detroit. Toronto and elsewhere.

The funeral on Tuesday afternoon was attended by a large congregation which more than filled the church, to pay their last respects to a man who was respected by all. The lesson was read by the new pastor, Rev. A. J. Preston. Rev. H. H. Eaton sang "When the roll is called up yonder," and Rev. L. F. Kipp preached a most eulogistic sermon from the text, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course." The remains were laid to rest in Flesherton cemetery, the pall-bearers being Joseph and Edward, brothers, Roy, George. Will and Charles, nephews.

W.M.S. Thank-offering

The Thankoffering meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was held on Thursday last. As the day was so fine the shcool room was well filled. One encouraging phase of the attendance was the number of small children present, which showed the interest of the mothers. Mrs. Thurston, the retiring president, occupied the chair for the last time in her official capacity. After the devotional exercises by Mrs. J. Heard, Mrs. H. Down and Mrs. W. Armstrong, greetings were brought by Mrs. J. J. Thompson, President of the Presbyterian Auxiliary. Mrs. W. I. Henry and Mrs. W. Carroll rendered a duet. as did also Mrs. C. N. Richardson and Mrs. Jos. Blackburn, both being very much appreciated. Mrs. W. Moore read "What education is doing for our Chinese girls," and Mrs. H. Down gave "A previous Engagement." The pastor, Rev. H. H. Eaton gave an address on Easter.

The ladies of the Auxiliary served lunch at the close, when a social half hour was spent with the visitors, the ladies of the Presbyterian W. M. S. The thankoffering receipts amounted to over fifty dollars.

OLD FLESHERTON GIRL DIES AT PORTLAND, Ore.

Dr. J. E. Strain sends The Advance a clipping from the Portland Oregonian conveying the news that Mrs. Mark Skinner had passed away in that city. The deceased lady was born in Flesherton, a daughter of the late Wm. Strain. Her maiden name was Elizabeth. As "Lizzie" she was well known here and was one of the most popular young women of her day. Friends here exceedingly regret her early death. The Oregonian says :—

"Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Skinner, wife of Mark Skiner, vice-peresident of the Northwestern National bank, will be held to-morrow afternoon from the Finley chapel. Interment will be in Riverview cemetery.

"Mrs. Skinner died Saturday night at the family home, 119 East Forty-first street North, after an illness of about a week. Mrs. Skinner was born in Flesherton, Ontario, October 7th. 1874, and with members of her family moved to Montana where she and Mr. Skinner were married at Great Falls in 1896. They moved to Portland in February of 1921.

"Mrs. Skinner is survived by her husband, two daughters, Florence and Mary Skinner; two sons, Harry and John Skinner. all of Portland; four brothers, J. H. Strain, Anaconda. Mont.; Dr. Earl Strain, Great Falls, Mont.; W. J. Strain, Palo Alto, Cal.; Dr. J. E. Strain, Vancouver, and three sisters, Mrs. H. B. Lind, Los Angeles; Mrs. J. F. Trunbo, Minneapolis, and Miss Clara Strain, Berkeley Cal."

DIES NEAR DULUTH

Mr. David Dow of town got a wire Monday morning announcing the death death of a sister, Mrs. John Price, at Proctor, Mnn., near Duluth. Death occurred after an operation. Mrs. Price was about 52 years of age and was born in Proton township She leaves no family but was bringing up three children of her sister's, children whose father had been killed in a railway accident and whose mother is in a hospital with nervous disorder from which she is not expected to recover. Mr. Price is an engineer on the railway.

Miss Margaret Dow of the Durham Road, a sister, and Mr. John Dow of town, a nephew, left Tuesday afternoon for the scene of trouble.

Gone To Owen Sound

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Woods, accompanied by Mrs. M. L. Morrison, who were tenant near Maxwell in Edmund Pallister's dwelling, have taken up their abode in Owen Sound. where Mr. Woods has secured a position.

The people of Maxwell and district regret the departure of Mrs. Morrison who was one of the most highly respected residents of that place for over forty years.

Canadian Bacon Gaining

Because of the results of hog grading Ontario's Agent General in Great Britain has this to say re Canadian bacon :—"The market for bacon is better than it has been, and prices have remained fairly steady the past week or two after a long period of depression, caused by very large supplies which were in excess of public demand. Canadian bacon, particularly leanest, is in good request, and appears to be growing in popularity with the public. The only thing against any very marked improvement in bacon prices is the fact that heavy supplies are still coming in. However. the outlook for bacon generally speaking, is good. One of the remarkable features about bacon prices just now is the comparative strength of Canadian."

REV. KIPP GAVE US A CALL

We were pleased to have Rev. L. F. Kipp, a former Baptist pastor here. give us a call on Tuesday while in town. Mr. Kipp is editor of the Canadian Baptist in Toronto and is making a sucess at the work. His many friends wish him continued prosperity.
