Tragic Death In Amaranth

"In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye," we are told the grim message is quite likely to come, and is forcibly reminded in the death of John Robert Durkin. only son of the late Francis Durkin of Amaranth. He was last seen about the place on Monday of last week, by Messrs Harry Whaley and Wm. Menary, who noticed him at work with his team. No person missed him until Thursday, when the noise of his cattle attracted the attention of W. Menary, who went over see what was the trouble. Not finding Mr. Durkin in the house, Mr. Menary went to the stable and was likewise unable to get any trace of his neighbor, and thus continued his search further. After awhile he found the body partly beneath a wire fence which he had been working at. Death must have come instantly, for the shovel was at one side, just where he had apparently been using them in the work. The body showed no marks of injury although his overalls were badly torn, fuite likely by some of the stock.

Mr. Menarey immediately called help and notified the authorities, an inquest being held on Friday. Dr. Baker performed an autopsy which revealed death to be caused by a clot of blood in the brain, a verdict of death from natural causes being returned.

The late Mr. Durkin was the only son of the late Mr. Francis Durkin, who died last November, and had been living alone. He was 57 years of age, unmarried and of quiet disposition; a good neighbor and friend. The only son in the family, he remained at home giving his best to the advantage and comfort of his parents, whose welfare seemed his one idea. He is survived by six sisters Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Irvine of Orangeville, Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Olson of Toronto, Mrs. Harvey of Regina and Mrs. Beamer of Woodstock.

His father and Milton Bannon accompanied him, also Dr. Turnbull of Flesherton.

Mr. Harold Acheson is staying with his sister, Mrs. Newton Bannon.

Sacrament was solemnized at Inistioge on Sunday.

Not Guilty At Dundalk

Tried before His Honor Judge Sutherland on Monday afternoon at the County Court House, Oliver Bell.23, a resident of Melancthon Township, Dufferin County, on a very serious criminal charge under the criminal code, in which a fifteen year old girl a resident of Dundalk, was concerned, was found not guilty on the evidence, and the case was dismissed. The evidence presented by the Crown and by the defence was very conflicting, witnesses for the Crown swearing that Bell was in Dundalk on the night of November 3rd last, the date which was mentioned in the charge, while witnesses for the defense, and Bell himself gave evidence that he had but driven through Dundalk on that date, and had not stopped at all.

A very interesting piece of evidence was turned in when Cown Attorney Dyre was cross-questioning Bell. It came out that Bell was to have been married early in April. In fact his marriage was set for the day just after he was arrested.

"Your marriage was postponed, of course?" Mr. Dyre asked.

"Yes," replied Bell, "until this matter was cleared up."

"'Cleared up'"? queried Mr. Dyre.

"What do you mean?"

"Until I was either found guilty or sentenced."

"You mean she would marry you in either case"?

"Yes."

There were quite a large number of witnesses, and the case occupied practically the entire afternoon. Mr. R. G. Agnew, of Toronto appeared for Bell, and Crown Attorney Dyre had charge of the prosecution.
