We notice cars still driving around carrying last year's markers. It is a good thing that County Constable Jones is not a more frequent visitor here. Like the spring the owners of these cars are somewhat backward.

Trout fishermen were not very successful on Thursday last. Nine little six and seven inch trout is the best catch we have heard of. Think of wasting a whole day to capture that number of little fish! Ye gods:

There must be good money in the fruit trucking business. Some five different outside trucks are busy this spring supplying outlying towns and villages from the big centres. Competition insures reasonable prices, so we welcome 'em.

The first big rain storm this spring arrived on Saturday afternoon—a real soaker that lasted for hours. Sunday morning the ground was covered with snow. The moisture was very welcome as the ground was getting difficult to work. Owing to cold, backward weather, work on the farms is progressing slowly.

Inistioge Against Owen Sound North In Debating

The next debate in the Owen Sound district of the Methodist church will be held on Wednesday evening, May 28th, at Markdale Methodist church. Assistant Postmaster

Mr. Daniel Hawman, caretaker in Collingwood post office, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Crossley on Sunday. Mr. Hawman informs us that Mr. Fred Bellamy, an old Flesherton boy, who has been in Collingwood post office as a clerk for the past four years, is getting ahead with rapid strides, and is now assistant postmaster. We congratulate Fred, who has always been considered rather a good sample of what Flesherton has produced in the way of successful busness men.

A Dog Found The Steer

Mr. Wm. Blackburn of Saugeen Jct. advertised a lost steer recently. He has now recovered it through the instrumentality of a dog owned by Mr. T. Watson of the Durham Road. The dog in question went into a piece of poplar bush and ran the steer out of it. The animal was taken in by Mr. John Meads and the owner notified, Mr. Meads having seen the advertisement. The dog, also, must have heard about the advertisement. In any event he assisted very materially in recovering the animal, which had been in hiding for a month or more.

All Should Have Same Half Holiday

There are few towns that do not observe a half holiday for a few months of the year. In some the half holiday is observed from May until the end of October, in some from June until September, while a few towns and cities have the half holiday during the whole year with the exception of the month of December. A great difficulty in connection with these half holidays is that all places do not close on the same day. In Arthur the half holiday is on Wednesday, and in Mount Forest it is on Thursday. Possibly in the next town it is on Friday. Thus, through the summer months a traveller never knows when he is going to find a town closed up and the blinds drawn.

For the holiday, Saturday afternoon would undoubtedy be the proper time. This, however, does not seem feasible at present, although there is no good reason why it could not be adopted. In any event the day in which the early closing takes place should be uniform all over the province. The united Boaards of Trade, with perhaps the co-operation of the Ontario Legislature. should be able to effect this.—Arthur Enterprise.

The Bankrupt Way

I had a fine and gaudy car, quite fit for dukes and peers; "In it," I said "I'll travel far—it's good for twenty years. It is as good a bus, I ween, as any guy should need; it gives me. for my gasoline, all kinds of power and speed." Thus I reasoned Monday night, but on the Tuesday morn, I was a sad and heartsick wight; I viewed my van with scorn. My next door neighbors, the O'Fakes, had bought a wagon new; it was equipped with four wheel brakes, and mine had only two. I put a mortgage on my shack, and one upon my shed, and from the dealer soon brought back an auto painted red. It had a brake on every wheel and cantilever springs, and it was built of costly steel — a tumbril fit for kings., "This car," I said, "I shall propel until I'm old and grey, until I hear the passing bell that summons me away." On Thursday night I reasoned thus, as I sat by my door; on Friday morn I saw a bus that made me sick and sore. It has the fat and mushy tires that people call baloons; and I went forth to seek my tires and sell my forks and spoons "I'll have to have such tires," I said, "to train with other guys;" and on my shack and on my shed another mortgage lies. How happy is the man who tools a flivver old but true, and doesn't join the frantic fools who look for something new.—Walt Mason
