Experience points the way

RECENTLY a man left his son a portion of his estate on condition that he save $500 out of his own earnings within five years.

Why? Because he knew from experience that one must first learn to save before he is capable of handling other money matters successfully. Systematic saving develops responsibility and careful judgment, and gives that confidence which leads to success.

Mower Cuts Legs Off

Unaware Of Lad's Danger Until Too Late

Owen Sound, July 21. — Osborne Stephens, a little lad between three and four years of age, son of John Stephens, who resides between Kilsyth and Tara, is at the Owen Sound General and Marine hospital with both feet severed as the result of having been caught by the blade of a mowing machine on his father's farm shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

The little chap was with an older brother, and the two went out into the hay field to play together, and in some unaccountable manner the child wandered away from the other boy and got into the standing hay. The driver of the mowing machine did not see him until he heard him scream. It was too late then, as both feet had been cut off cleanly just below the ankle.

First aid was rendered and the arteries tied, and as quickly as possible, the child was brought to the hospital, where his condition this afternoon was very serious.

Sale of Household Effects

Dies From Operation

Mrs. Alex. Reid, Formerly of Flesherton Dies At Guelph

Mrs. Alex. Reid passed away at her home in Guelph on Monday afternoon at the age of 51 years. She underwent an operation in March and never recovered.

Mrs. Reid was born here, the daughter of the late Wm. Akins. She leaves behind her, sorrowing husband andt hree children—Margaret (Mrs. Turner) Toronto; May (Mrs. Dr. Stanley; and one son, Wm., at home. Her death came as a shock to her many friends here, who deeply deplore her death, and sympathize with the bereaved family. She was a sister of Mr. Claude Akins of Flesherton, who, together with Mrs. Akins, W. Moore and R. Bentham will attend the funeral at Guelph tomorrow.

LOCAL ITEMS

Miss Annie Gilchrist is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Mabel Thibaudeau, at Markdale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Howard McAuley of Dundalk are on a two weeks' vacation at Marmora, Ont.

Mrs. John Jackson and grandson, Donald Tansley. of Milton visited last week with the former's brother, Mr. R. Waller.

Vandeleur is preparing for an opening of their Memorial Park on Aug. 4th, Civic Hoilday. Afternoon sports at 1.30, baseball consists of four teams; football. Band in attendance.

Mrs. G. Fraser, Misses Kathleen McKinley and Katie Rowe, and Mr. Lauder McKinley of Toronto motored up Saturday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson, returning Sunday evening.

Thursday evening of last week a number of members of the family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Down to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Down's mother, Mrs. Will Stewart, who was——years young on that date. A jolly evening was spent with music, games, etc.

The wild strawberry crop around here has attracted scores of pickers this year and all report the crop abundant and the berries of good size. To prove the latter statement The Advance man secured a fine speciman on Saturday that measured two and one-eighth inches in circumference, the largest wild strawberry that we had ever seen. It certainly is a good year for small fruits and a bumper crop in other lines.

Funeral of The Late C. Hales Held On Friday

The funeral of the late Charles Hales, whose death we chronicled last week, was held on Friday afternoon last from the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Sinclair, Ceylon, to Flesherton cemetery, and was largely attended. Rev. A. J. Preston, pastor of the Baptist church conducted the service at the house and grave. Charley was a great sufferer from rheumatism for many years, but death came very sudden and unexpectedly. He arose in his usual state of health and was joking with the nurses, when his heart suddenly gave out and in twenty minutes he had passed away. Mrs. P. Norris, a sister, of Drummer, Sask. came down to attend the funeral, and his brother, Will, of Toronto was also present.. James Hales of town is a brother. We extend sympathy to the family.

The pallbearers were W. J. and Nat Caswell, A. S. Muir, W. H. Hales, Roy Gibson and Lachlan McArthur. The floral tributes from friends and relatives were many and covered the casket.

MORE STRICT ENFORCEMENT

Premier Ferguson has announced that a plebiscite will be taken in Ontario on October 23rd for the purpose of finding out where the electors of the province stand on the O.T.A. question, While there might be parts of the O. T. Act that need changing and a fairer way of enforcing we don't see that any change should be necessary. We are sure that the country has never prospered the way it has under the Act of the past few years and it is to be hoped that a big majority will be given for the continuance of the Act as it stands and for a more strict enforcement, especially in the cities where, it is said, the Act is broken by everybody.

ICE CREAM GARDEN PARTY

The Presbyterian manse lawn was the scene of an enjoyable ice cream social on Tuesday evening when a fine crowd was present who appreciated the ice cream and cake, and listened to a very fine program. This included three of the old Scotch favorites rendered by Miss Mary Neil of Toronto, who has a well trained and sweet voice. Misses Nora and Doris Bowler of Toronto also assisted with a piano duet. There were also a number of other excellent selections and altogether the program was a very fine one.
