EUGENIA

Extensive preparations are being made for the big picnic here on Thursday of this week, and although the memorial committee and those interested in the work wlil not cater to the crowd, he association will no doubt see to it that everyone is satisfied with the day and a big time is expected. Good hot meals will be served at the Eugenia House from 11 to 2, and also from 6 to 7. The committee have in hand the decorations for the day and we hope a goodly number will turn out Wednesday to assist in the work of decorating for the occasion of the visit of Hon. Arthur Meighen.

The young people of the community will put on a good dance in the pavillion on Thursday for the entertainment of the young people in the evening.

Those who took interest enoughi in the work turned out on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and worked very hard and we are sure that every one who visits this spot of interest will be unanimous in saying that we have a memorial to be proud of with the plot as nice as any you would see in the larger towns or city. We feel especially grateful to the two or three farmers who left their own interests aside of rteh day and gave their much appreciated assistance in helping the ladies turn the plot into a spot of beauty. Mr. Douglas Watson of Toronto also turned in and gave very able assistance, a guest in town and a returned man, of course. The care taker has put considerable work on the entrance to the park by fixing up the roadway and beautifying he gateway with a coat of paint, which was badly needed.

Mr. Clifford Williams, Mr. Clifford Hedford and Mrs. Truskit and friend of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. acob Williams over the week end.

Mr. Stanley Campbell was unfortunate enough to have one finger taken and another finger badly cut in the mower one day last week, but the fingers are doing nicely. We believe several stitches had to be put into the injurd digit. At this busy time of the year it makes it very inconvenient to Stanley, but he is fortunate in having a good man to help out in the harvesting of his crops.
