SOME REMINISCENCE

The Dundalk Herald has been published for 42 years. The first paper in Dundalk was started by the late Joseph Townsend in 1877, and was called the Guide. He only ran it for a year and five months, when the plant was taken to Durham and became the Durham Review. It was rally not for lack of support that the Guide quit in Dundalk, but the Reform party in Durham wanted an organ and offered inducements to Mr. Townsend to move his plant over there. The late George Jackson of Durham was a political power in South Grey at that time and conducted the editorial columns of the Chronicle. He was a powerful writer and the Grits wanted an organ to counteract or combat his "evil" influence. They got the Review and presumably were quite successful, as Dr. Landerkin came on the scene with his successful political career shortly afterward.

Forty-seven years of newspaper activity is a long time to look back upon. For the short period that the old Guide was published the staff was composed of Joseph Townsend, editor when he was not geologist! W. Jackman, now publishing the Chiliwack, B. C. Progress, and the writer of this. The Guide was published in a small building just north of the present station. It came out each Wednesday, Thursday or Friday, according to the amount of fossil hunting indulged in by the editor. Mr. Townsend was a man to be respected, although his fad of collecting fossils caused him to be decidedly irritating to the workmen under him.

To-day the Herald has an up-to-date modern plant and is a source of pride to the villagers. And here is a little secret: Years ago the writer came up from Toronto to purchase the Herald, but was just one day too late as the late J. B. Spurr got in ahead. Perhaps it was just as well for Dundalk! Who knows?

TRAFFIC COPS REASONABLE

A friend of ours was taking a 300-mile trip the other day, and in order to make the distance had to break the traffic laws, more or less. After travelling two hundred miles or so he noticed in his mirror a speed cop following him. Slowing down the speed cop hailed him and informed him that he was travelling at too fast a gait. He informed the cop that he had come two hundred miles and had to go another hundred, and in order to do this was obliged to travel a little bit on the fast side. Mr. cop said "well, you will have to go slower." The reply was, "I will, until I get out of your sight." The guardian of the road smiled and said, "If you have to make Flesherton you had better be going on. "Is that all there is to it?" asked the traveller. On being informed that it was our friend stepped on the juice and made his destination in the stipulated time. Which all goes to prove that some officers are reasonable.

Gigantic Historical Pageant At The Owen Sound Fair

The outstanding feature of Owen Sound Fair, which annual event is reputed to be the most ambitious of many miles around, will be the Historical Pageant of Grey County, which is guaranteed to be the most colossal feature that has ever been presented outdoors in this section of the Province. Sept. 9 to 12 are the dates of the Fair and the Mammouth Pageant will be the big night attraction the first three evenings. Plans are being laid to make this celebration a mighty one and a considerable sum of money is being expended to put it over in a big way.

The John B. Rogers Producing Company, the largest producers of pageantry in the world, have been secured to direct and equip the production. There will be stupendous electrical and scenic effects and gorgeous costuming for the 1000 participants now being trained by the professional director for this gigantic enterprise.

The pageant is composed of a series of episodes and interludes depicting the history of this section of the county. Many beautiful interpretive dance numbers, the first Indian settlement (with real Native Indians) the arrival of the first pioneers, the founding of our country, the old time dances and scores of other historical data go into making up the entertainment. The finale alone in worth the small price of admission. Five hundred people in appropiate costuming will dance the dances of all nations and this huge ensemble will form the Masque of Canada. One hour and a half of thrills and thorough enjoyment is guaranteed the spectator. Remember the dates, Sept. 9, 10, 11. Come to the Fair and remain over for the Big Night Attraction.

Anderson—Laidlaw

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at Knox College chapel, when Miss Ina V. Laidlaw, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Laidlaw of Lions Head, Ont., was united in marriage to Rev. J. E. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.W. Anderson, of Forest, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Gandier, principal of Knox College. The bride looked charming in a French gown of russet brown satincrepe, richly studded with gold beads and hat and shoes to match, and carried a shower bouquet of sunset roses and lilies of the valley. She wore a necklacee of pearls, the gift of the groom. The bride's only attendant was little Miss Dorothy Slade, as flower girl, who looked very pretty in white organdie and lace. She carried a shower bouquet of pink larkspur and baby's breath and wore a wreath of the same flowers in her hair. Her gift from the groom was a gold signet ring. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on a motor trip to Ottawa and other eastern points. On their return Rev. and Mrs. Anderson will reside at the Presbyterian manse, Kemble, Ont., where Rev. Mr. Anderson will take charge of the United church.

Big Crowd At Feversham Football Tournament

Strathaven Won Tournament When They Won From Feversham 1-0

Some real good football was played at the football tournament at Feversham on Saturday afternoon last, in which Strathaven, Collingwood Scottish, Swinton Park and Feversham participated. The day was ideal for the sport and a large crowd was present to enjoy the three games which were closely contested. Swinton Park and Strathaven commenced the first game at 3 o'clock and resulted in a 1-0 score in the latre's favor Strathaven had the best of play the first half but were unable to score, their only goal being counted in the last period. Swinton Park played a real good game, but it was the good work of the Strathaven backs that left them without a counter. In the second game Feversham proved themselves superior in every way to the Collingwood Scottish when they won 2-0, both of their goals being scored in the first period. As two of Feversham's regular players were unable to be present two juniors substituted and they were certainly a credit to their team. and to themselves. These were Gordon Henderson and Jack Brackenbury, both boys being around seventeen years of age. Feversham's first goal was scored by L. Cox in the first three minutes of play, being followed fifteen minutes later by a goal, the result of a beautiful combination work of Brackenbury to Henderson, the latter tallying, the goaler having no chance to save. The last period was closer as no goals were scored by either side, although they never let up trying. Hon. Dougald Carmichael, M.P.P. for East Grey was one of the players on the Collingwood Scottish team.

It was in the first period that Jas. Davidson received the injury that resulted so seriously. However, he finished this game and also commenced the next one, with Feversham against their old rivals, Strathaven, but wtih Davidson off altogether and C. Alexander with an injured foot were unable to put a win across and Strathaven won the game and tournament 1-0.

The referee for the games was Mr. M. Doyle of Collingwood.

The players from the goal out on each team were:—

Swinton Park—J. Anderson, W. Knox, W. Heard, P. Harrison, Jas. Hooper, Geo. Black, R. McLean, O. Milner, W. J. McLeod, R. Williams and W. Lane.

Strathaven—J. Ramage, L. Mustard, W. Henry, M. Mustard, J. Mustard, Roy Morrison, I. Torry, C. McKissock (who scored both their goals) C. McKibbon, N. Dixon, A. Mustard.

Collingwood — French, Ferguson, Hollinshead, Hicks, Kerr, Blackburn, Connally, Mathie, Burnett, Carmichael and Lindy.

Feversham — A. Malcolm, Geo. Wright, J. Davidson, C. Alexander, C. Kerton, J. Fawcett, E. Davidson, G. Henderson, J. Brackenbury, L. Cox, J. Wright.

The day was a fine success in every way, $150 being taken in at the gate besides the proceeds from the big concert at night by the Miller Minstrel troupe from Port McNichol. Besdes being a big success the day was somewhat saddened by the serious injury to Mr. Davidson.

Soft drink and refreshment booths were on the grounds and catered to the demands of the crowd.

The horseshoe pitching contests were real close and resulted in Laurie Betts and W. Akitt capturing the honors in the 54-foot rink and John Brown and Josiah Crawford the 45-foot rink.

HIGH SCHOOL OPENS NEXT TUESDAY A.M.

Tuesday of next week will be opening day in the high school, when work will be commenced for the fall term. A student will be able to take right up to senior matriculation for entrance into the university, this being posisble by the addition of a fourth teacher, which was found to be advisable this year. Already quite a number have signified their intention of coming back to the fourth form and no doubt others will be theere on opening day. The Flesherton high school is one of the best in the county in which there are only five high schools that have four or more teachers. The school is now equipped to take up all classes of work which will fit the student for a teacher's course. A good staff of teachers has been secured and another successful year is anticipated.

Get ready to show at the Flesherton Fall Fair, September 25-26.

Managing Director John G. Kent predicts an attendance at the Canadion National Exhibition of 1,000,000.
