HORSE'S KICK FATAL

Lloyd, the two-year-old son of Mr. Fred Clayton of East Garafraxa, died in Fergus Hospital on Tuesday evening, from a kick by a horse on the head the previous Sunday afternoon. It seems that the little chap was in the lane for just a moment when a couple of horses came along. They possibly took fright at the child and kicked out. The little chap's head was badly injured and from the first but faint hopes were held out for recovery. Needless to say the young parents are grief-stricken over the tragedy, and have the heart-felt sympathy of a wide circle of acquaintances in their sorrow.—Grand Valley Star.

FEVERSHAM

Talking about the yield of fall wheat in the different localities we think that Mr. J. A. Kernahan takes the cake. We understand that Mr. Kernahan harvested 28 loads off 11 acres and was threshed by Walter Kerton's outfit on Tuesday last, and the wonderful yield of about 600 bushels, or over 50 bushels per acre, was recorded.

Rev. Captain and Mrs. M. E. Conron and two sons, Wesley and Brandon, and twin daughters, Margaret and Marion, motored over from Milton and visited with the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Conron. Captain Conron spent two and a half years overseas in the world war, leaving his pastoral charge in N. B. as chaplain to a battalion. On getting overseas he reduced to private and came through many perilous engagements in the front lines and by his good judgment and bravery was promoted to Captain. He is now serving under the King of Kings, ministering to Methodist people in Milton, Ont.

Fire In Proton

On Friday evening last great excitement was caused at the close of the garden party at Cedarville by the fire which consumed the large barn and several small buildings of Mr. Jacob Francis, four miles to the eastward. Most of the people made for the fire and helped to save the house. Mr. Francis and family were at the garden party, and the origin of the fire is a mystery. The loss is heavy and we extend sympathy. We understand that there was a fair amount of insurance.—Mt.Forest Confederate.
