Flesherton.

Master Fred Hargrave of Rock Mills informs The Advance that he has trapped 85 groundhogs on his father's farm during the past three years. He secured 35 this summer. These were fed to black foxes at 10c. per, and netted a nice little penny of spending money. It will also save a lot of grain which these animals are prone to destroy.

Mrs. Will Moore received on Saturday a letter from her brother, Will Irwin, of Seattle, giving the sad intelligence that Mr. Irwin's son and only child, Kenneth, aged 15 years, had died in the Seattle hospital of meningitis. Mr. Irwin is a Flesherton boy. He lived in Vancouver for a number of years until recently when the firm with which he is engaged moved him to Seattle. His many friends here extend sympathy.

CATTLE STAMPEDE

Twenty-three wild cattle are roaming the farms between Orangeville and Mono Mills. Fred Speers of Caledon, and Thomas Bell of Cataract, purchased the cattle from Thos. Craig, of Mono, and undertook to drive them to Caledon on Saturday afternoon. As soon as the animals left Craig's farm they stampeded and rushed the drivers. Thos. Bell sustained several cuts about the head and face, and had his shoulder bone fractured, Harold Stubbs and Leslie McArthur, two Caledon boys, received minor injuries. The cattle are scattered over several farms and attempts to round them up have been unsuccessful.—Grand Valley Star.

HERB NEIL, SINGHAMPTON GOING SOUTH FOR WINTER

The Advance regrets to learn that the health of Mr. H. J. Neil of Singhampton is such that he is compelled to give up farming for a time and is selling his live stock and has some good heavy horses for sale. See his "liner" elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Neil will go to one of the southern States for the winter, and has promised to let the readers of The Advance know what conditions are like down in "Dixie," the land of cotton.

Bee Got Into Car Upset Into Ditch

One day last week when Miss Aleda Mitchell was driving a party of ladies out to Feversham she met with an accident that was rather nerve-wracking to the occupants of the car. When out about six miles from town a bumblebee entered the car unbidden and proceeded to make himself disagreeable. Miss Mitchell practically stopped the car in her efforts to "shoo" the unwelcome guest, but the wheels went off the road and the sedan turned over on its side. The only damage done was a broken window glass and dinged fenders. Nobody was seriously hurt. It was a remarkable escape from what might have been a serious accident.

PORTLAW

Fall wheat threshing has been going on and big yields of good grain is the general report.

Farmers are now in the harvest of spring grain. In the early part of the season clouds were more plentiful than sunshine and prospects appeared gloomy and it seemed hard to realize that the copious rains was just what was needed, and now in fulfilment of the old promise that "springtime and harvest shall not fail," we are rejoicing in a bountiful crop of all kinds.

It was a happy company that assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor on Tuesday evening of last week, the occasion being Mt. Zion church annual garden party. The spacious and shady grounds was an ideal location for the event. An abundance of tasty viands was provided and after their disposal the pastor, Rev. Mr. Duffield, took the chair and introduced a choice and chaste program which was pronounced as one of the best ever enjoyed in this part. Among those who took part were Mrs. McCallum and Miss Henderson, duets; Dr. Murray and Mr. Cross of Flesherton, each solos; Dr. Guy and Mrs. McCallum, duet; Mrs. G. Lawlor, solo; Miss Emily Acheson, two readings; the Maple Leaf orchestra gave a number of instrumental selestions which were well received and a generous supply of delightful music by the Dundalk band.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hannah visited with friends at Orillia.

Mr. H. Holman of Toronto visited with friends around his old home on the 4th line last week.

Mr. Beamish of Dundalk is engaged with his well-drilling outfit at Mr. Thomas Brown's.

Our school started on Tuesday with Miss Risk as teacher.

Miss Lizzie Blakey of Dundalk was home over Sunday.

Miss Hazel Shunk of Toronto visited lately with her friend, Mrs H. Fisher.

Misses Gladys and Eva Hannah of Markdale visited last week with her aunt, Mrs. R. Hannah.

DISTURBED THE MEETING

Four Euphrasia township young men received a lesson in etiquette last week if not in morals, that will probably be remembered. They were found guilty of having disturbed public worship in the Methodist church at Epping, and Magistrate Creasor permitted them to pay for their fun to the extent of $10.86 each.

The young "bloods" had enjoyed a "wonderful" time, making sport of the preachers and those who attended the meetings, and even damaged the church property, it appears.

Magistrate Creasor intimated that the boys would be privileged to pay a heavy fine if they ever appeared before him again on a similar charge. —Meaford Mirror.

BROUGHT OIL TRUCK UP

Mr. Harmon Hales went to Toronto Monday morning and returned the same night with the new British-American oil truck which he will use in delivering gasoline from the tanks at the station.

Better Than Teaching

There is no longer any comparison. A lady stenographic graduate of Lucknow, a year ago started in Detroit at thirty dollars a week; now she is drawing sixty dollars per week. If in doubt, ask for phone number or address of parents. This may be only exceptional, but thousands of our lady graduates with one or more years experience, have reached thirty dollars per week, and no good graduate of today need start at less than twenty-five per week. Over one thousand testimonials from Dufferin and Wellington. Enter any day. A position for every graduate. Home study for those who cannot attend. Fall term from September 2.

RE-UNION OF HURD FAMILY AT VERNON

The Vernon, B. C., News of August 21st, contains the following regarding a family well known in this district. The family moved West from Kimberley over 35 years ago:

A very pleasant family re-union has been held during the past few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hurlburt, Mara Avenue, in honor of Mrs. Hurlburt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hurd, who were pioneer settlers of the County of Grey, Ontario, and came to reside in Vernon some three years ago.

This year their daughter, Miss Helen Hurd, has been home on furlough from mission work in Japan and a reunion of the members of the family was arranged. Besides Miss Hurd, Mrs. Hurlburt has had as her guests, her sisters, Mrs. L. Banks, of Hazenmore, Sask., Mrs. J. A. Stewart, of Regina, Sask., and Mrs. S. C. Wilson, of Kobe, Japan, where her husband is engaged in journalistic work. The only other member of the family, Mrs. Weber, of Sintaluta, was unfortunately unable to be present.

Mrs. Banks and Wilson are leaving to-day and Mrs. Stewart will accompany Miss Hurd to-morrow to Vancouver and remain with her and Mrs. Wilson until they sail on the 28th inst., by the S. S. Empress of Russia for Japan, where Miss Hurd will resume her work in Tokio under the Woman's Mission Board of the Canadian Methodist Church.

FLESHERTON WON GAME

Flesherton baseball boys journeyed to the Orange garden Party at Inistioge on Wednesday of last week, when they met the Corbetton team in a game of baseball and emerged victorious 5-4 after a close and exciting struggle. No runs were scored until the 5th inning when each got a run. Then Corbetton got two in the seventh and were leading 3-1 when Wauchope singled, McLeod fanned and Akins doubled scoring Wauchope, Muir walked and Dow doubled scoring Akns and Muir and Dow scoring on a hit by Boyd, winning the game. Thompson, a southpaw, worked the first seven innings and pitched great ball. He was relieved in the eighth by Hutton who shut Corbetton out, preventing further scoring., The line-up for Flesherton was: McLeod, Akins, McDonald, Muir, Dow, Hutton, Boyd, Thompson and Wauchope.
