"Don't Davy! You're All I Got Left!"

When you're just longin' to be a man and folk say your "jes tol'able"—
When you've seen your Dad and big brother killed in a feud—
When you grab your gun to go-gettem—
And your mountain mother, who still thinks you're her baby — and wants to keep you for herself, throws herself at your feet—

—then don't a feller need a friend?

That's Richard Barthelmess. He sweeps to stardom in a drama of boy-love and mother-love. One of the three finest of the year — honestly!
