LARGE ENTRY LIST FOR FLESHERTON FAIR

Friday of this week is the day of the big fair at Flesherton and prospects are good for the best fair in the existence of the fair. Already the entries have been pouring in and Secretary Hawkin has been kept busy the past few days writing entries, of which about one thousand have already been received. More members are in the fair this year than for years past and enthusiasm is great. Everybody is going to be at the fair that day to enjoy the afternoon if the weather is right. Markdale band will supply music during the afternoon and this will surely be a treat.

There will be two horse races on the track and it is expected that there will be ten fast horses to compete in both classes. Messrs. W. W. Trimble and T. J. Fisher are racing their horses in the 2.30 and 2.20 classes respectively and these entries are creating a lot of interest and many will be there just to see these fast horses perform. The hall and live stock judging will be well worth seeing as some winning horses, cattle and sheep will be on exhibition and competing for the prizes. Bring your friends to Flesherton fair and enjoy yourself.

The concert at night is being put on by the old favorite, Jimmy Fax, with a good company and he will be seen in an entire change of program Get your reserve seats early from Richardson's drug store.

Coming to Canada as a lad of 16 and starting as a farm laborer, Michael Farrell, tailor, who died lately in St. John, N.B., left $225,600.

PUBLIC MEETING

A joint public meeting of the citizens of the Township of Artemesia and Village of Flesherton on the coming plebiscite vote will be held in the town hall, Flesherton, on Tuesday evening of next week, September 30th at 8 p.m. sharp. Everybody is invited to attend and pastors are requested to make announcements from the pulpits and to urge attendance.
