The exhibits in the hall, perhaps, were not quite so numerous in some classes as last year, but the quality was excellent. 8TH LINE, ARTEMESIA

Vote! Vote for the O.T.A.
It will bring peace and joy;
Do not vote for government control
For if you do — Oh, boy!
For if it beat the O.T.A.
There'll be many a sad, sad day.
Temptation before our boys will stand
And rob them of their hopes so grand
Many a man will go down and out
And for the O.T.A. again will shout.
Many and many a home will be saddened,
When husband and son with drink are maddened;
Many and many a woman in perfect content
Into a stage of worry will be sent.
Many ap rison cell again will be filled
Many and many a heart will be stilled
Many and many an improvement made
Will commence at once to degrade.
Manufacturers want men steady and sober,
Make 'em so on the 23rd of October.
Many and many a man will be sacked
If the government control beats the Temperance Act.
Do not favor the liquor trade
Nothing but evil, it has ever made.
Premier Ferguson, he has said
To help all he could if Temperance led
The O.T.A. has helped humanity,
Government control will cause insanity.
Hurrah! Hurrah for the O.T.A.
On October the 23rd day.
All honor to her name
That stands for peace, joy and fame.
Out! Out with the Liquor Traffic
That means evil, strife and shame.
Help! Help the O.T.A. in her great race
And keep our Ontario from horror and disgrace.
The voting day will soon be here,
Condemn not the O.T.A. for the bootlegging shame;
