WARDEN McTAVISH IN TORONTO THIS WEEK

The Wardens of the Province will meet the Government on Thursday of this week to discuss the good roads question as affecting the different counties, designating roads, etc.

Warden D. McTavish of this County motored down to the city to-day in company with Mr. Fred Rutherford, County Clerk. Mrs. McTavish and Mrs. Rutherford accompanied their husbands.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS HAVE BEEN PLAYING BALL

The high school girls and boys have been playing quite a bit of baseball lately, taking on the Durham and Markdale teams during the past few days. The girls play softball while the boys revel in the game of baseball and quite succesfully too. On Friday afternoon the Durham high school paid a visit to the students here and their girls won from Flesherton 7-2 in a five inning game of softball. Then the boys played baseball and the local squad were victorious in this affair 6-2. Monday afternoon the school went to Markdale and both teams won, the girls by a score of 11-7, and the boys 3-1 in real hotly contested games.

Christ and Church Attendance Or "As His Custom Was"

It is instructive to know that it was the custom of our Lord, during His earthly ministry, to attend the Sabbath services in the Synagogue. We read "and, as his custom was, he went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day." Lk. 4.16., again, "and straightway on the Sabbath day He entered into the Synagogue and taught," Mk. 1.21, further, "I ever taught in the Synagogue, and in the Temple;" Jn. 18.20.

It is unreasonable to suppose that He was entirely in harmony with the thought and practice of these places of worship. As a matter of fact we know assuredly that He was not. Was He not driven from the Synagogue at Narzareth on two different occasions? Lk. 4.16., and Mt. 13. 53-58., Mk. 6.1-6. Did He not twice purify the Temple? Jn. 2.13-17., and Mt. 21.12-17., Mk. 11.15-18 Lk. 19. 45-47. Yet we do not find Him absenting himself from these places. I verily believe He was the most regular attendant. He was there, to reform if necessary, on every possible occassion.

The attendance of our Lord at the Synagogue services was a beautiful example to the people of that time. He did not allow His non-attendance at church to be a stumbling-block to the weaker brethren. That He believed there were certain places where the spirit of God was willing to meet with his people in a peculiar manner we cannot fail to see. He did not feel the home in Nazareth, holy though it may have been and undoubtedly was, to be quite as sanctified as the Synagogue of the same place, He practiced what He preached. He taught the real presence of God in the church. "Where two or three are gathered together in my name," etc Mt. 18.20. The Synagogue was the church of that day. Jesus went there to meet God and to commune with him, and, though he found the surroundings not altogether congenial, we believe he found the Father there in comforting presence. That He was much blessed, by having drawn aside from the cares of this life to the place set apart to the worship of God, we cannot doubt.

We read, "As His custom was." We, who have named the name of Jesus as Saviour,—are we going to expect that we can do better than our Lord? Are we right in supposing, because we see certain things with which we are not entirely in harmony in our churches, (and what church ever claimed perfection) that we are justified in absenting ourselves from God's House? Will our actions, if we do so absent ourselves, tend to lead others to the Christ we profess to serve? or, will not the absenting of ourselves prove to be a stumbling-block to them?

Depend upon it, we who profess to be out and out Christians are more in the public eye than we ever dream. What we say and do is noticed. We can either lead others to a nobler, purer, more holy life by mingling with them and, by example, showing them that the life we possess is a practical one—possible to all; or we can, by keeping aloof, convince them that our religion is nothing more than so much froth, impractical and impossible to the man of average intelligence. We must lead if others are to follow, as the officer must lead his men to the attack. This we do by example and not by precept. Jesus does not say, "Thou shalt not." He does say, "Follow thou me." Jn. 21-22. In another place he says, "my sheep hear my voice—and they follow me." John 10.27. Jesus leads us then, on the Sabbath day, to the Synagogue (Church) Shall we not make it our duty, and blessed privilege, to follow Him there on next Lord's day.

Oh, enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, Loud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

A. J. PRESTON,
Flesherton.

The farmer and the banker

THOUSANDS of farmers throughout Canada have proved for themselves the value of a connection with The Bank of Toronto.

The opening of a small deposit account has, in hundreds of cases, been the means of establishing friendship and confidence, and the loans obtained from the Bank from time to time for farm operations have been of great assistance in helping many a farmer towards success.

Farmers' business is as important to The Bank of Toronto as any other business. We welcome the Farmer at any of our Branches.

Booze Must Not Come Back!

Only By Voting Can Ontario Citizens Defeat the Desperate Liquor Interests

THE lawless liquor traffic dies hard. But good citizenship is a patient executioner in Ontario. Again and again Ontario citizens have registered their determination that the moral and economic waste caused by booze must cease. ¶ On October 23rd the men and women of this Province must tell the self-seeking liquor interests still more emphatically that booze shall not come back. A half-million majority for continuance of The Ontario Temperance Act is language that brewer, distiller and bootlegger will understand.

O.T.A. is Hated for Its Good Work

Desperate because the O.T.A. has cut down drinking by 90%, the liquor trade seeks the death of the finest temperance measure Ontario has ever had. Distiller, brewer and bootlegger are arrayed against the forces of reform. The issue itself is sharply drawn, but John Barleycorn is using a new disguise. Only his desperation can explain his reckless effrontery and his astonishingly low estimate of the common sense of the people.

No good citizen, familiar with the miserable conditions before The Ontario Temperance Act brought sobriety to the homes and happiness to the women and children, would deliberately vote for a return to the bar-room. Yet today Ontario faces, as the only alternative to the O.T.A., a step that will lead to conditions in some respects even worse than the open bar produced.

Rally to Its Defence!

The same sordid story comes from every province where so-called government "control" has been blindly adopted. More drinking, more drunkenness, more crime, more accidents, more misery, more waste—and, above all, infinitely more of the curse of bootlegging. This prospect should send every earnest man and woman in Ontario to the polls on October 23rd to vote for the continuance, strengthening and vigorous enforcement of The Ontario Temperance Act.

To legalize the sale of booze for beverage purposes, though in sealed packages, is to re-establish the liquor shop without the former restrictions of the licensed bar-room, and bring back the treating system, the hip-pocket flask, and the drinking club. To vote for government sale is to bring back to old Ontario the free dispensing of that bottled misery which will blight and destroy the hopes, the character, the life of young and old in every community where liquor shops are permitted to exist.

Your Ballot is Your Weapon

You know that, but you must VOTE. Your weapon, the ballot, must be used. Vote yourself, and use your influence to have every qualified elector within your home and your place of work do likewise. The only votes counted will be those placed in the ballot box on October 23rd, 1924.

Apathy and over-confidence have lost many a good fight. The liquor trinity—bootlegger, brewer and distiller—are at work, night and day. Foil their efforts by polling an overwhelming majority for The Ontario Temperance Act. Mark your ballot thus:

1 Are you in favour of the continuance of The Ontario Temperance Act? X

2 Are you in favour of the sale as a beverage of beer and spirituous liquor in sealed packages under Government control?
