On Thursday of last week, October 16th, the Youn People's Parliament of the Owen Sound district Young People's Societies of the Methodist church was held in Westside church in Owen Sound. It was the second annual affair, the first one being held in Flesherton a year ago.

A large number of young people from this district attended it, among them being:—Roy Best, Earl Best, Orrel Fisher, Emerson Thompson, Emily Acheson, Mabel Parslow, Louise Cargoe, Jenette Cargoe, Allie Norris, George Akins. Those from Inistioge—Ivan Lockhart, Ren. Acheson, Vera Moore, Roberta Acheson, Marion Acheson, Sylvia Acheson, R. Patterson, J. Duncan. Those from Vandeleur — Miss Lililan Buchanan, Howard Graham.

The following is the report from the Owen Sound Sun-Times of the afternoon and evening sesison:—

The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises by Massie League, followed by a report by the Minister of Christian Fellowship, Hon. Wm. Garbutt. This led to an interesting discussion on how we can improve the devotional part of our League. The next item of business was the report of the Minister of Missions, Hon. Chas. Waite, of Owen Sound. He outlined the rules governing the contest for the Missionary Shield for 1924-25, this shield having been won by the Massie League. The contest for the present year began on July 1st and closes on April 30th, 1925. He reported a slight increase in the missionary givings for the year and announced a Get-Together Convention, for the purpose of the exchange of ideas. It was also announced that the objective for the year would be seven cents per week per member, which will raise a sum equal to in the neighborhood of $1,500. This amount was not quite reached last year.

The Officers

At this juncture the nominating committee presented their report, naming the following offcers for the coming year:—

Hon. Pres.—Rev. John Locke, Owen Sound; President, Rev. H. H. Eaton, Flesherton; 1st Vice-Pres., Miss M. McLaughry, Markdale; 2nd Vice-Pres. Mr. Chas. Waite, Owen Sound; 3rd Vice-Pres., Mr. Geo. Mr. Bushell, Holland Centre. The report of the committee was adopted.

Hon. R. J. Patterson, Inistioge, presented the report of the committee on Christian Citizenship which dealt with a number of interesting topics, and contained some helpful suggestions. Special reference was made in this report to the question of Prohibition, and all were urged to do their best in the present plebiscite campaign.

H. Howard Graham of Vandeleur presented the report of the department of Literature and Education. It recommended that the debates be continued in conjunction with the national contest and that the picnic be made an annual affair and that the question of an oratorical contest be discussed.

Mr. Clifford Bunt presented a report as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Summer School, announcing an increase in the membership and a surplus og $107.27 on operating expenses against a deficit of last year.

Rev. R. E. Spencer of Dundalk, Minister of Religious Education, presented a splendid report, making a number of valuable suggestions with regard to this work among the young people.

Mrs. Spencer of Dundalk gave a report of the Junior League work, which proved to be very interesting and helpful.

The matter of whether there would be a convention next year or a parliament, and the place of meeting was left with the incoming executive.

The Evening

The church was well filled for the evening session. There was a song service, conducted by Mr. Bowes of Markdale, following which the officers were introduced and installed by Rev. M. S. Elliott, who delivered a short address in doing so.

Miss Emily Acheson, Inistioge, delivered a fine address on "Citizenship" making special reference to the duty of the citizens with respect to the O.T.A. and pointing out that it was just as much their duty to respect this law as any other.
