PROTON STATION

Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly in this village and everyone has much to be thankful for.

Most of the young men spent the holiday on a hunting expedition, and we understand that they returned with some small game.

Mr. Jack Hanley and his mother of Hamilton are visiting at Mrs. A. Sherson's.

Misses Mabel, Clara and Mildred Binnie of Toronto spent the week end and the holiday under the parental roof. Miss Mildred, who is a soloist in one of the city churches, favored the congregations here with a beautifully rendered solo.

The Misses Ada, Marjorie and Maud Acheson spent the holiday at their home here.

Miss Lizzie Neilson of Toronto and Mrs. A. Neilson and little daughter are visiting at the home of Mr. Jas. Neilson.

Miss Ivy Donkin of Riverview spent the week end with her friend, Roberta Acheson.

An impressive Thanksgiving service was held in Trinity church on Sunday by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Pogson. The choir of St. James church, Dundalk, rendered special music.

The Knox church W.M.S. held their annual Thankoffering service on Thursday afternoon of last week. Mrs. (Rev.) McVicar of Keady was present and gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the history of the W.M.S. from its beginning. As this is jubilee year the subject was very appropriate and her talk was much appreciated. The Inistioge Methodist W.M.S. and the Anglican Auxiliary, also the Presbyterian W. M.S. of Flesherton, were represented. Refreshments were served at the close of the service.

Mrs. (Rev.) Armstrong of Guelph is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cade.

Mrs. Campbell of Owen Sound is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Batchelor.

Mr. S. Batchelor's chopping mill is in operation.

Evangelist Jackson and his helpers are holding services every evening this week, except Saturday, in the chapel of the Bible School.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hergott are attending the funeral of Mr Hergott's father at Kitchener.

Experience points the way

RECENTLY a man left his son a portion of his estate on condition that he save $500 out of his own earnings within five years.

Why? Because he knew from experience that one must first learn to save before he is capable of handling other money matters successfully. Systematic saving develops responsibility and careful judgment, and gives that confidence which leads to success.

We invite you to make your start now with

Mr. Robertson of Coldwater, Ont., motored over here on Saturday last and Mr. C. P. Robinson, teller in the Bank of Toronto, returned home with him for the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McKechnie of Collingwood were visitors in our village last week.

Miss Violette Davidson of Toronto is holidaying with friends in this locality.

Miss M. E. Heron has returned to her home in Toronto after a few weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. Colquette, and other friends.

Major and Mrs. McCray and Capt. Jones of Toronto, held a meeting in the Salvation Army Barracks here on Sunday evening last. The Major though having spent thirty nine years in Salvation Army work, and is now retiring from active service, still has his old time earnestness and vim, and a nice gathering greeted the Officers who had been here several years ago.

Mrs. G. A. Dand of Toronto, Mrs. Alex. McIntyre and daughter, Jessie, of McIntyre, Mrs. Winters and Mrs. McRae of Toronto, were callers at Colquetts on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Mills have moved to Clarksburg and Rev. Mr. Simpson has taken up Mr. Mills work here.

Messrs Geo. and Rex Holroyd and Mr. Moir, of Collingwood, spent the holiday with the former's parents at Lady Bank.

Mr. Carrol Hanley and wife, Mr. Will Hanley of Orangeville, were callers in our village on the holiday. Hanley Bros. were born in Osprey and are now keeping store in Orangeville, and say business is good in their line.

Miss Dot Robinson has gone to the city with her cousin, Violetta Davidson, for a holiday

Mr. Chas. Hornby of Collingwood visited with his brother-in-law R. J. Whiteoak on Sunday.

Mrs R. J. Whiteoak has received word that her father, Geo. Julian is seriously ill in Collingwood with Typhoid fever. Mr. Julian was ill when he arrived home from the West two weeks ago. We hope for his complete recovery soon.

Crowd At Shooting Match

Shooting matches have not been as numerous so far this year as they were last year, but the third annual match at Harmon Radley's on Thanksgiving Day was just as good as any former one held. There was a large crowd on hand, which entered into the game with enthusiasm. Forty ducks, 35 geese, 20 turkeys and numerous chickens were disposed of. The day was fully enjoyed by everyone.

KIMBERLEY

Thanksgiving brought its usual number of visitors and friends:—Mr. Carl Carruthers and Mr. J. E. Hammond of Meaford, Miss Dell Abercrbmbie of Allandale, Mr. and Mrs. B. Graham of Orillia and Miss M. McMullen of Toronto.

Miss Peters spent the week end and Thanksgiving at her home at Weston.

Weddings are also in order. On Wednesday last Mr. Will Weber and Miss Mina Shepherd were married in Collingwood. This week the hills are ringing on the mountainside. We all wish the happy couples a pleasant journey through life.

Mrs. Bowerman of Toronto, who has been visiting for a couple of weeks with her nieces, Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. J. A. Stuart, has returned to her home.

Mr. Allen Ferguson has returned from the west where he went for the harvest. The other boys are with Mr. W. T. Ellis and Mr. E. Donnelly at the camp in the north.

Mr. and Mrs. Risbon and children of Orangeville spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. O. Irwin.

Mr. J. E. Hammond delivered two loads of flour to Mr. Bishop this week. The old reliable Ideal, also some Five Lily and pastry flour, the first delivery here from the new firm.

The service in the church Sunday evening was taken by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Ellison, and was very beautiful throughout. Remembering the boys who made it possible for us to have a real thanksgiving, also reminding us that as a Methodist church it will be our last, as by another year it will be union. Miss Carson sang and the Lord's Supper was partaken of.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill have gone to spend the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Haynes visited on Saturday with Mrs. Allen at Eugenia.

We are pleased to report that Mr. Proctor is very much improved in the Collingwood G. and M. hospital.
