POETRY.

LIVING TEMPLE,*

'The smooth soft air, with pulse-like waves
Flows murmuring through its hidden caves,
Whose streams of brightening purple rush,
Fired with a new and livelier blush;
While all their burden of decay,
The ebbing current steals away,
And red with natures flame they start
From the warm fountain of the heart.

No rest that throbbing slave may ask,
Forever quivering o'er his task;
While far and wide a crimson jet
Leaps forth to fill the woven net,
Which in unnumbered crossing tides
The flood of burning life divides,
Then kindling each decaying part,
Creeps back to find the throbbing heart.

"But warmed with the unchanging flame,
Behold the outward moving frame,
Its living marbles jointed strong
With glistening band and silvery thong,
And linked to reasons guiding rein,
By myriad rings in trembling chains,
Each graven with the threaded zone
Which claims it as the Marter's own.

"O Father! grant thy love divine
To make these mystic temples thine!
When wasting age and wearying strife
Have sapped the leaning walls of life,
Take the poor dust thy mercy warms,
And mould it into heavenly form!"

* A poem by O. W. Holmes, in his "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," entitled the "Anatomist's Hymn, or a Living Temple." We quote four stanzas

The True System of Advertising.

One of our exchanges discusses a question of interest to business men, as to the method of advertising. The merits of circulars, bills, &c., are conceded, but it is held that the "handbill" to be conveyed about by men, or to be sent into the country, is not the best vehicle for advertising for merchants. Let them use the newspapers. The newspaper is circulated without any expense to the advertiser, which is by no means an unimportant item, as every one will testify who has had any experience in distributing advertisements. Not only is the advertisement circulated by the newspapers free of all expense, but it is done more speedily and thoroughly than it can be done by the advertiser. The newspaper is already an established system; a thousand doors are open to welcome it; a thousand messengers are daily, weekly, seeking the Post-office to receive it; a thousand families look for its coming, and a thousand read it when it does come. Again, those who read the newspapers are the very persons the advertiser wishes to reach; they are the intelligent and well to do, therefore the most likely to buy what is worth buying.

The pork butcher's song—„To Greece we give our shining blades."

A man in Indiana wants to know if whiskey was ever seen comin' through the rye.

Why do 'birds in their little nests agree?" Because they'd fall out if they didn't.

When is a flea like a locomotive? When it goes over the sleeper.

When Lord Sidmouth one day said 'My brains are gone to the dogs this morning,' his friend at once ejaculated, 'Poor dogs!'

It often happens, when the husband fails to be home to his dinner, that it is one of his fast days.

We don't know that our young men generally have cataracts in their eyes, but they have a great many waterfalls.

To drive flies out of the house, put your molasses barrel and preserves in the back yard, in the sun.

Which of the apostles was the best cricket player? Paul, who "stood up before the eleven, and was bold."

It is the lot of humanity to err at times, as the drunken man said when he mistook the pig-sty for his bed-room.

The difference between economy and extravagance in a lady's toilet is said to be shown in mere cash and Cashmere.

In the Malay, language, the same word signifies women and flowers. So far so good. But Hunx, the old bachelor, says 'its a delicate way of intimating that each is remarkable for its (s)talk.'

Every man has his price, so said Walpole; but he never said as much of woman. The fact is, Walpole judged ladies only too correctly, for he know that many of those dear creatnres are beyond price!

Moses says he wishes he could hear of some place where people never die; he would go and end his days there. Moses is the same eccentric individual who, attending divine service in a church where the people came very late to meeting, observed that it seemed to be the fashion there for, nobody to go to meeting till everybody got there.'

A TYPO ON FENIANISM.—A typo recently delivered the following essay before a printers' literary society: .The ....., of the puny guns are a queer set of fellows—they are *s which shineth in darkness. Not content with the $s they have plucked from their dupes, they m— every opportunity for sticking their ——s further in their stamps. They pretend to purchase †s and revolvers with this money but they never do. The swindle is not ||d even by basswood hams and wooden nutmegs. Fenianism is 'dead matter' now its vile 'form' is 'locked up,' and will not trouble the Irish § of our citizens any longer; its vitals are —d out' and the whole concern is off its feet.'

STOVE AND PLOUGH STORE!

THE SUBSCRIBER begs to announce to the citizens of Milton and vicinity that he has commenced business in the Store Opposite the English Church, Main Street, Milton,

Where he will keep constantly on hand a heavy stock of

COOKING AND PARLOR STOVES OF THE LATEST AND MOST IMPROVED PATTERNS, STOVE-PIPING, &C.,

Which he will sell at 20 per cent below Hamilton or Toronto Prices. He is enabled to do this by buying for CASH, and thus saving the discount and interest incidental to the Credit system. His many years of practical experience enables him also to purchase to the best advantage. He has also a large stock of

STEEL PLOUGHS,

Which he will sell for 18 dollars! which is considerably less than Cast-from Ploughs are sold in this neighborhood. Farmers would do well to call and examine the stock before commencing their fall work. They are more durable, and easier draught, and are of the best model.

North's Patent Drum Heater,

Constantly on hand. This celebrated Drum, which is used on many of the cars, and in the Western States, where it takes the preference of all others. Acts as a ventilator. Saves half the fuel, and adds greatly to comfort!

Certificates from Engineer G. W. R.; A. McCallum, Principal Central School, Hamilton; John Street and King Street Methodist Churches; P.W. Dayfoo Stov Dealer; Z. Pattison, Confectioner, and many others.

These heaters put in and no charge made, if not satisfactory.

N B.—Cooking apparatus of all kinds sold separately at low rates. Terms—Cash or Farm Produce.

HUGH McKAY

HAS now on hand the Largest and Best Assorted Stock of CHEAP FAMILY GROCERIES ever brought to GEORGETOWN. Our daily increasing list of customers plainly show who has the Best and Cheapest Goods. To say that we sell 10 to 15 per cent cheaper than our neighbors, would only expose a weakness alarmingly prevalent among advertisers. All these cheap advertised impossibilities are just so many flags of distress only hoisted to public view when the ship appears sinking. Our general assortment of goods was never so large and well selected, and never were our prices more favorable to the buyer. We want 300 Kegs of Good Dairy Butter, also some 500 Dressed Hogs, and any amount of Good Shipping Apples, for which the highest market price will be paid.
