Big Banquet Held By Local Orange Lodges

On Friday evening of last week the L.O.B.A. and Orange Lodges of town held their annual social evening in Clayton's Hall, the event this year taking the form of a fowl supper. About sixty members and friends of both lodges sat down to a table spread with an abundance of good things. to eat and justice was accordingly served. Speeches were made at the close of the banquet to the King, the L.O.B.A. and the L.O.L., being replied to very fittingly by several of the numbers. An interesting part of the program was an impromptu debate, resolved, "that a dirty, good-natured wife is easier to live with than a clean, ill-tempered one." Mrs. H. Down was leader of the affirmative and Mr. H. Down the negative, the former winning after a heated debate that was full of laughter. Mrs. W. A. Hawken gave a fine exhibition of club swinging. Another amusing number was the singing competition by couples that provoked much fun, the winner of this being Mrs. O. W. Phillips and Rev. Mr. Harrower. The evening was very much enjoyed by the large company, and was successful in every way.

Mr. Jas. White has returned to Aylmer.

Mr. Harry Meldrum of Toronto visited at his home over the week end.

The monthly meeting of the Baptist Ladies' Mission Circle was held at the Baptist parsonage on Tuesday afternoon. A very interesting program was enjoyed by all present.

Rev. H. H. Eaton and Mr. Earl Best attended the meeting of the United Young People of Canada in Toronto this week. The meeting took place in Massey Hall and the Convention voted unanimously for Union.

The Sunday school is busy practicing for their annual Christmas tree on Dec. 23rd.

The League had a hard times social evening on Friday evening. Most all the young people did what they could to live up to the name. Many of the costumes were very amusing.

Mr. Plewes has returned from making repairs to his mill. He has left Mr. Leslie Plewes in charge.

Mrs. J. A. Stewart and Miss Shirley are visiting friends in Toronto.

At the last meeting of the W. I. they donated $25 towards purchasing new books for the library. We hope to have them by Christmas. Also collectors were appointed to get more funds towards new books. The collectors are Miss Leona Weber, Valley Road south; Miss V. Fawcett, Valley Road west; Miss R. Myles, 4th line north; Miss M. Stafford, 4th south; Misses D. Stuart and J. Ellis, for the village.

The W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid held their joint monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. T. Ellis, when 15 members were present. The devotional part was taken by theW. M. S., taking the Christmas meeting. A number of beautiful Christmas selections were given. Both societies joined in deciding to send greeting cards and letters to absent and shut-ins.

Mr. H. Lawrence is improving his time by the addition of a new kitchen, also Mr. D. L. Weber by a new woodshed.

We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Myles' sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Cameron of Orillia. Mrs. Cameron passed away Sunday, Dec. 7, at her home after suffering from the effects of a stroke.

MORRISON—STEVENSON

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, December 3rd at 12 o'clock noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Stevenson, McIntyre, when their eldest daughter, Verna Maud, became the bride of Robert John Morison of Maxwell, the ceremony being conducted by the Rev. H. Shannon of McIntyre.

The rooms were beautiful with ffowers and evergreens, offset by a blue and white color scheme. The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly gowned in orchard georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations and was unattended. The wedding march was played by Miss Lena Miller of Badgeros, cousin of the bride. During the signing of the register Mrs. H. Shannon sang.

After the ceremony the guests, who numbered forty-four, proceeded to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served by four of her girl friends. The numerous gifts which the bride received shows the high esteem in which she is held. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque, and to the pianist a gold bar pin.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Morrison left, amid showers of confetti and good wishes, for a honeymoon trip to London and Toronto.

The bride travelled in a dress of powder blue wool crepe, gray velvet hat and reindeer velour coat with fur trimmings. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Maxwell.
