Car Was Struck By Train At Markdale

A. C. Rae Of Harkaway Was Accident Victim On Thursday

A. C. Rae, a well known resident of Harkaway district, was killed at Markdale on Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. Rae, accompanied by his son, was driving west on Main street going into Glenelg township on business. Owing to a rather heavy snowfall at the time neither occupant of the car saw the approaching train or heard the whistle and the electric bell which is installed at the crossing until they were so close that it was impossible to stop the car because of the slippery condition of the road. Knowing that an impact was imminent, Mr. Rae with a wonderful presence of mind swung the car to the left, turning thereby a broadside of his car parallel with the train. Unfortunately, the hind end skidded too far, resulting in the last coach of the train catching the back of the car, driving it against the fence and platform, crumbling it like matchwood, throwing the driver and his son out. Both were hurt, although it was not thought seriously. They were taken to Mr. Jos. Dennison's, where, about 7 o'clock, Mr. Rae died from shock or brain injury.

Dr. Bibby, coroner, of Flesherton, was notified, who empanneled a jury and, after viewing the body, an adjournment was made until Friday afternoon of this week.

"HOLDFAST" U.F.W.O. CLUB HELD MEETING ON THURS.

In spite of wintry weather 27 members of the Holdfast U.F.W.O. club attended the monthly meeting at Mrs. John K. MacLeod's on the fourth line on December 11th. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Archie Stewart, Mrs. Allie Muir presided very acceptably. After the opening exercises considerable business was attended to. Mrs. Alex. Carson was chosen delegate to the Provincial Convention this week, to replace Mrs. Arcihe Stewart, who is ill.

It was decided that at each meeting a gift of five cents should be made to a fund to remember the sick, by flowers, fruit, letters or as seemed best to the committee of four appointed. Both the president and acting secretary acknowledged with thanks gifts of fruit received during illness. Questions on citizenship were read and answered by five members. Mrs. Dan Campbell read an excellent paper on Woman and the School, and it was followed by discussion. The women expressed themselves as eager to help the schools to make it a comfortable and happy place for teacher and pupils. Many promised to attend the school meeting this year. Mrs. Dick Wihttaker gave a humorous recitation, which was much enjoyed. The National Anthem was sung and an abundant lunch served. The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Cairns on January 8th.

TRAPERS ROYAL FLUSH

Mr. Fred Robinson, who takes a great deal of enjoyment out of trapping furs during the winter months, had a run of luck last week that was not only pleasurable but profitable. He became aware on Wednesday, when making a round of the traps, that there was game on the beat he had chosen and coming home to town for supplies went off again and did not come in till Saturday evening, when he brought with him one fox pelt and ten 'coon skins. Nine of the 'coon pelts were prime and large enough to be classed as number one fur; the tenth was a little small. The fox pelt was a beauty and Mr. Robson was valuing them when a buyer came along and at once evinced a burning desire to possess the skins. He took them away with him, but the young man who had the fun—and the exercise of securing them—was paid a little bit under $60 for the lot.—Alliston Herald.

PASTOR STAYS WITH CHARGE.

Meaford, Dec. 15.—Rev. J. Wallace Stewart, for four years pastor of the Meaford Methodist Church, to-night accepted a unanimous invitation to continue his pastorate for a fifth term, subject to the Stationing Committee of the Methodist Church. Rev. Mr. Stewart is in the fifty-first year of his ministry and had looked forward to superannuation next summer, when he and his wife would make their home with their daughter, Dr. Elizabeth Stewart, in Toronto These plans were foregone, however, on the church board undertaking to lift a mortgage of $6,000 this coming year, which has been a burden to the church for many years. In the hope of realizing this goal the pastor consented to continue his ministry for another year.
