We have decided to try it, it cannot be carried out. Other places will do it and we don't see why it cannot be carried out here also. Our aim is to keep every article in the

DRY GOODS TRADE

so that anyone can depend upon getting what they want in that line.

Our leading departments are the following:

IRON IN THE BLOOD

DYSPEPSIA — DEBILITY — PERUVIAN AN IRON TONIC SYRUP — DROPSY — HUMORS

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL — PURELY — DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA — EUREKA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

BEAUTIFUL ONE

Beautiful one! beautiful one!
With modest grace yet queenly air,
And dark blue eyes and golden hair
With sylph-like form and beaming smile
Pal soul all truth where dwells no guile
Beautiful one! beautiful one!
My homage deep I worship thee.

Beautiful one! my peerless one!
With ruby lips and cheek of down,
And voice that breathe's e'en music's tone
If heart so warm with passion's glow
Yet bosom pure as unstained snow.
Beautiful one! my peerless one!
Ah, say, hast thou no smile for me

Beautiful one! my noble one!
If high resolve and thought's own throne
There genius burns with loving glow
And beams the light of cultured mind
Or virtue crowned, by truth refined
Beautiful one! my noble one!
To thee on bended knee I bow.

Beautiful one! my gentle one!
So sweetly pure in hallowed thought
And soul so kind with feeling fraught
I'm sorrow flies thy soothing care.
And hope beams bright where lour'd the
Beautiful one! my gentle one!
Thy heart, thy love, on me bestow.

Beautiful one! earth's fairest one!
In youth's first bloom like blushing flower
All gemmed with dew at morning hour
Here low I kneel at thy fair shrine,
And breathe the prayer, "Wilt thou
mine?"
Beautiful one! earth's fairest one
Wilt thou be mine—for ay be mine?

Beautiful one! my plighted one
With fond caress and murmur low
Thy lips on mine have sealed the vow
And spoke the words of bliss divine
That blends my soul for ay with thine
Beautiful one! my plighted one
With thine for ay—for ay with thine

TRUST AND FAITH

BY TAMAR ANNE KEEMOND

If we trust as we ought,
In the Heavenly Father's care,
Looked to him in tranquil thought
For an answer to each prayer,
Then sweet peace would come and dwell
In our hearts and every duty
Would seem light beneath its spell
Touched with calm and simple

If we trusted we would know
Words of promise often spoken
Like a river's onward flow,
Gifts of God—may not be broken.
We would see through mist and gloom
Would forget our doubt and blindness
Faith's sweet flowers for us would bloom
We would rest in loving kindness

If we trusted we would feel
All the joy content can give
In humility would kneel,
Grateful for each day we live.
We would meekly bear our cross
Though, perchance, 'twould bring us
Thinking little of our loss.
We would find eternal gain.

TO A DRUNKARD.

BY THE LATE SIR JOHN BOWRING

Drink! drink! What are you drinking?
But for a moment hold your breath
But for a moment just be thinking
That you are drinking, drinking to

Drink! drink! your wife is sighing
See her in rags and tatters go!
Drink! but hear your children crying
What are you drinking? Woe! woe!

Take the pledge—it may save you whole
Save you from wretchedness and sin
And, from the depths of pain and folly
Bring you PEACE AND PEACE within

THE DETECTIVE.

BY JOSEPH C. CANNING

Why the Mississippi should be styled the "Father of Waters" I never well conceived, unless the appellation arose from its length, and even in this the Missouri might fairly claim her "stolen thunder. The river is indeed broad, and it would be a difficult matter to name one more treacherous. No boat passes up or down that has not constantly a deck-hand sounding for safety.

Before the rebellion the passage of this river developed customs peculiarly sectional, exclusively characteristic of the old South. The favorite amusement was gambling, and the knife and pistol were familiar features of the hazard. I was, as an innocent spectator of a game, once led to an acquaintance of a very eccentric personage. He was more than plainly dressed in home-made clothes, heavy boots of an extravagant spread, a hat of sufficient age to enjoy a pension, an angular body, with a noticeable expressionless face, excepting a quick sharp glance when he supposed himself unobserved. He puzzled me. When called upon to make up a "hand," he quaintly remarked: "I reckon, I don't know the game; but I'll try to play into it. I won't bet though." One of the party was a doctor, who staked his money but played honestly. The remaining two, I had decided, were "professionals." I soon detected their cheating, but to expose the fraud was worth just my life. It was some time before the doctor discovered into what hands he had fallen, but when he did he threw down his cards, paid his losses, and retired, after announcing his reason for so doing. He returned soon, however, and approaching me, inquired if I knew the parties against whom he had played? Instinctively surmising his intent, I answered in a decided negative. His hard gaze changed, and drawing his pistol hand from behind his back he added, "If I did not believe you I should shoot. I came back for that purpose!"

I have had a pistol placed at my heart with much more reason for suspicion, and yet the leveller was fearfully wrong; but why the doctor fancied me a particeps criminis I could not then imagine, and do not know now. I was alone upon the boat, and had been entirely silent. It was a moment when words of explanation were not only useless but dangerous; and I bit my lip from pure vexation.

At an Old Catholic meeting in Munich recently, it was stated in accounts were already being made of Rome of miracles performed by Pius IX., and among those of the Cocsalchi being raised
