THIRTEEN STICHES IN FACE TO CLOSE SEVERE WOUND

What might have resulted in a fatal accidnt ocurred on Friday of last week near Rock Mills when Mr. Lewis Pedlar was so seriously cut on the face with a blade of an axe that thirteen stitches were required to close the wound. Had the cut occurred half an inch higher or lower it would surely have had fatal consequences. It is not known exactly how the accident happened but it is thought that a tree that was being cut down suddnly swung around and rolled a few yards down the hill, and struck Lewis, who had not time to get out of the way, causing the axe to strike him on the cheek someway. He was accompanied in the bush by his brother-in-law, C. D. Meldrum, Dick Clarke and Fred Plewes and no one could account for the accident. Mr. Pedlar is improving nicely but will nto be able to do much work for a few days.

Ernest Russell Died From Appendicits On Monday

Mr. Ernest Russell, a highly respected resident of Rock Mills vicinity, died on Monday afternoon following a serious operation on Saturday at his home, at the age of 29 years, 10 months.

He leaves a young widow and little son to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father. His untimely death was a distinct shock to his many friends in Flesherton and surrounding country, where he was very highly respected. Five weeks previously his father, Jas. Russell, passed away. The family are the recipients of the greatest sympathy in their trouble. The funeral takes place to Flesherton cemetery this Wednesday afternoon.

SANTA KEPT FAITH WITH THE CHILDREN

According to announcment last week, Santa Claus put in an appearance on Saturday afternoon last. It was a very stormy, blustery day, not such a day as would entice the boys and girls to come out and make the acquaintance of our boyhood friend from the northland, but the weather appeared to be quite the thing for our bewhiskered visitor, who beamed benignly on a large number of kiddies who trailed him raound the streets and received at his hands packages of nuts and candies. It is rumored that Santa did not bring the load of confectionery with him but that the good things were actually presented to him for distribution by Messrs. F. W. Hickling, W. A. Armstrong, F. G. Karstedt, Henry & Kennedy, C. N. Richardson, Stewart & Sons and F. Pinder. The old fellow informed The Advance that this visit was merely preliminary to his annual tour. His reindeer were resting up for the long journey on Chistmas Eve and he was obliged to borrow Jim Stewart's horse to draw him around town. It was an hilarious bunch of yougsters that joined in the procession and everyone of them got a bunch of candies and nuts. One little girl said she got two packages, but did not know how it happened. A number of children from the country were in the crowd, and had it been a fine day the town would scarcely have held the visitors. Santa tells us that he may make this preliminary visit an annual event, but has not fully decided. So many things have to be considered, and it is so inconvenient to pay the visit without Donder, Blitzen, Prancer, Cupid and the rest of his reindeer team. Still, we hope he will consider the question favorably.

FEVERSHAM

(Intended for Last Week)

Mr. Geo. Samson of Duntroon was a caller in our village on Wednesday last.

Sorry to report that Miss Robinson is not improving any. She has been ill for several months now and is in a serious condition at the present time. Since the above was written the grim reaper has called Miss Robinson to the world beyond. The call came to her on Thursday last and though not unexpected to her friends yet it seemed as it always does to leave a great sorrow behind and especially to the aged mother. Miss Robinson had been a great sufferer for about eight months and everything that could be done for her was done. The funeral service was conducted by the Revs. Simpson and Mills in the Gospel Workers church here, which was crowded to the doors. Revs. Shannon of McIntyre and Duffield of Maxwell also assisted. Rev. Simpson preached an impressive sermon from the words, "Be yea also ready." The remains were laid to rest beside her father in Bethel cemetery, who predeceased her 47 years ago. There is left to mourn her departure, her mother, sister and brother here. Her brother, Eli, keeps a general store here and Miss Robinson in her health was an able assitant.

Mr. Henry Butcher of the Sixth of Collingwood, about four miles north of here had the misfortune to lose his dwelling house by fire early Friday morning and the family had a narrow escape as they escaped in their night clothes only. It was a very severe loss to Mr. Butcher, as nothing was saved and at this time of the year in severe weather. Let us put our hands in our pockets neighbors, as a little help is worth a lot. Mr. Butcher is in poor health, too, having been under the doctor's care for some time with leakage of the heart.
