ROCK MILLS

Our profound sympathy is extended to Mrs. Ernie Russell and little son, the sisters and brothers, in their sore bereavement

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Walter Russell is suffering from stomach trouble, but we hope to hear of her complete recovery soon.

We also extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Thos. Sled and family in their sad bereavement by the death of the wife and mother.

Mr. Thomas Betts and daughters, Edith and Mabel, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Newell and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Duckett and daughter, spent Christmas day with the former's sister, Mrs. E. Binnington, Maxwell.

Quite a number were disappointed on Christmas day owing to the severe weather and bad roads many were kept at home. Others who were able to go away were storm-stayed and did not get home for two or three days. But the storm did not prevent Santa Claus from getting around as usual.

OWEN SOUND JUNIORS WIN

Owen Sound junior hockey team won from the Hanover juniors 10 to 1 in the opening O.H.A. game. on the former's ice on Monday evening. The Greys had hard luck at the beginning of the season losing their first three games played. Their fourth and fifth game were with Kitchener and Parkdale juniors of Toronto and they won easily. With expert coaching the Sounders are coming along nicely and if they do not again capture the O. H. A. and Dominion titles they won't be far from the top when the curtain rings down on hockey in the spring. The fans down here are again pulling for Owen Sound to repeat their performances of last year.

With Pleasant Memories Of Good Will Between Us At All Times

We hope that you had a very pleasant Christmas and wish you continued prosperity and happiness during the coming year.

Mrs. T. Sled Passed Away On Sunday

Leave Husband And 3 Sons—Funeral Held On Tuesday

Mrs. Thomas Sled passed away at her home near this village on Sunday morning last at the early age of 49 years, after an extended illness. Mrs. Sled's maiden name was Annie Dinwoodie. She was a woman very highly respected in the community and her early demise is a subject of deep regret by a large circle of friends. Mrs. Sled was a member of Flesherton Methodist church and the funeral service on Tuesday afternoon was conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. H. Eaton, in the Methodist church, where the remains were taken previous to interment in Flesherton cemetery, and at the graveside.

The deceased lady was the youngest daughter of the late George Dinwoody of Flesherton. One brother and one sister survive—Fred in Alberta and Ida (Mrs. Albert Beecroft) in Montana. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves three little sons, who will miss the care of a loving mother. Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family.

ERNEST RUSSELL PASSED AWAY AFTER OPERATION

It was with sad regret the friends and neighbors of Mr. Ernest Russell learned of his death on Monday afternoon of last week at four 'cloock after a short illness of intense suffering, which was borne patiently and cheerfully. He was taken ill Thursday evening previous to his death and gradually grew worse until Saturday when it was found necessary to operate, it proving of no avail, and in spite of all that loving hands could do he passed to everlasting rest, where there will be no more pain and sorrow.

Ernie was but thirty years of age and was born on the homestead at Rock Mills, where he has lived with his father all his life, his mother dying when he was but a child. Five weeks ago his father, Jas. Russell, was called to the Great Beyond, leavin a very lonely home. Little was it thought he would so soon follow. He was of a very cheerful disposition, beloved by all who knew him, always ready to give aid in time of need. Four years ago he was married to Miss Edna Wilkinson. To them was born one little son, now ten months old, and these two are left to mourn sorely the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.

The funeral, which was held on Wednesday afternoon last, was attended by a large circle of sympathizing friends, the service at the home being conducted by the Anglican minister, Rev. Mr. Pogson, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Preston of the Baptist church, after which the remains were interred in Flesherton cemetery. The floral tributes were very beautiful, among them being a wreath from wife and little son, wreath from brothers and sisters, wreath from Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson and family. The pallbearers were Messrs. Leslie Chard, Charlie Wilkinson, Edgar Linton, Wesley Smith, Arthur Chard and Charles Stafford.

Far removed from pain and sorrow
Now the joys of heaven to share,
For him now no sad tomorrow,
Oh! Prepare to meet him there.

Upward floats the voice of mourning,
Precious Jesus! Can Thou hear?
Yes, He feels each drop of anguish,
He will all our sorrows share.

A few more years and we shall meet
Where parting is no more,
There with the voice of love will greet
Our loved not dead, but gone before.

J. C. Griffiths Gave Cheque To Lodge

Only Living Charter Member Of Masonic Lodge Sends His Greetings

Prince Arthur Lodge No. 333, A.F. & A.M., Flesherton received a very pleasant surprise when it was presented with a generous Christmas gift of a cheque for $25 from one of its old members, in the person of Mr. J. C. Griffiths of Owen Sound. Out of the nine charter members of the Lodge Mr. Griffiths is the only one living to-day of those who formed the Ladge on January 14th, 1876. He is well known by the older citizens of the village as he was in partnership here with S. Damude in the harness making and tanning. Although in the neighborhood of 88 years we are glad to know that Mr. Griffiths is enjoying good health.
